Stage Fright June Kiendl

A dance after the painting of Degas. Created by Agnes George De Milne.

MUSIC: Coppelia, by Delibes

SCENE: Backstage and wings of the Paris Opera. Just before the rise of the curtain. The night of the dancers debut. The overture is on.

DEGAS (1834-1917), in his pictures of backstage life at the Paris Opera, has immortalized the old-school ballet in the period of its greatest artificiality and elegance. Degas devoted hours on end to watching the ballet girls work in the school, in the practise rooms, at the Opera, and on the stage during rehearsals. Completely disinterested in the spectacle of light and motion that presented itself to the audience, he painted the sweat and fight of dancing.

The Great Magician

An Easter Offering

Night has its ghostly shadows,
And a golden day is born.
There's always a lovely rosebud,
Wherever you find a thorn.

Rain must fall then the sunshine
Still we must climb the height
But after sadness and sorrow,
There is peace and hope and light.

Growing With Forest Hills By Helping Forest Hills Grow

---

Burglars ! Residents of Forest Hills are sleeping lightly these nights. Nerves are on edge and a kitten scratching at the back door is sufficient to send father timorously pussy-footing down the stairs with a gun in his hand.

The reason for the growing apprehension is an outbreak of wholesale burglaries. Home after home has been systematically rifled.

A significant fact about these robberies is that not one of the homes protected by the Globe Protective Company, of 33 Windsor Place, has been entered. Their special uniformed men patrol around the entire house and garage at all hours of the night and at the same time punch a time clock installed on the rear door.

Mr. Jack Burke, manager of this agency would be glad to consult with anyone desiring protection. He can be reached by phoning BOULEVARD 4553.

CLOTH COATS WITH FUR

Women who know recognize that subtle element
of quality
that makes a Jaeckel coat different.

• • • • •

There is a softness—
a lustre—
and a luxuriousness
to the furs
that only fine furs achieve.

• • • • •

That Jaeckel prices are no higher than those of any other house—
of equal distinction—
is always a surprise.

• • • • •

But the reason is obvious—

• • • • •

Being specialists in furs and buyers of very large quantities of raw skins
our methods of buying are unusually advantageous
—An advantage
our patrons naturally share.

The GARDENS and TENNIS APARTMENTS containing 170 apartments and opposite the West Side Tennis Club, have been over 97% rented for the last two years but we don't know whether this is entirely due to the fine management, value, service, location, satisfied tenants, etc., or because WALTER HARTWIG and ALBERT HOWSON used to live in these excellent apartments.

Why not try living in one and decide for yourself, or get one of your friends to do so?

THE DEBUTANTE SALON AT THE TAILORED WOMAN WAS SHOPPED BY ONE OF
THE EDITORS OF VOGUE
AND THIS IS THE WAY
SHE WRITES ABOUT IT—

"The Tailored Woman has opened a new shop on its third floor expressly for the glorification of that class of females loosely classed under the category "Debutantes". The clothes in this department will stress that famous fifty-dollar range so agreeable to the young and allowanced. This shop seems rather particularly important to me, for the reason that The Tailored Woman, always so high in its standards of material, cut, and workmanship, will certainly never let down on this exalted policy. There are enough shops offering inexpensive clothes to which the adjective "cheap" applies in more than one sense. You may be assured that this will not be one of them, even in the name of Youth and Good Value. Little things like hand-finishing on the dresses will mean everything to clever little girls and not raise the prices too achingly above clever little purses."

YES—Miss Shop-Hound of Vogue, we have clever little dresses, all around fifty dollars and we have smart ones at twenty-two fifty—twenty-seven, and thirty-five dollars, too.

As the time goes on the apartments and homes in the Garden will be more and more appreciated. The restrictions will make this the place to live in.

Besides, the Tennis and Gardens Apartments are practically an apartment hotel with excellent restaurant, also real kitchens and electric refrigeration, attended elevator service, etc.

The tenantry is most carefully selected—more like a fine club than an apartment building.

Meals will be served to your apartment if desired.

— TACTFUL PLUMBING —

Stop me if you've heard the one about the tactful plumber. It was this way:

He called at a home on Greenway North to repair a gadget in a bathroom.

“Just go on upstairs,” the lady told him, “and fix that gadget. Did you forget your tools?”

He hadn't forgotten his tools. He went up stairs. He opened the bathroom door. He heard a splash and a scream. He saw a lady in the tub.

“Pardon me, SIR,” said the tactful plumber.

Chic Sales never would have thought of that, you bet me.

But our plumbers are all specialists.

FUR STORAGE YOU WILL KNOW—

• There is no substitute for dry-air cold storage for your furs . . . Only too often weeping ladies bring us furs that have emerged from their summer hiding places lusterless and parched . . . In some cases they have escaped drying only to accumulate blue mold . . . In short many have proved it a dangerous experiment and a poor economy.

• JAECKEL FUR STORAGE COSTS NO MORE THAN ORDINARY STORAGE AND YOUR FURS ARE GIVEN
THE SAME EXPERT CARE AS THE PRICELESS JAECKEL COLLECTION.

JAECKEL REPAIRS and REMODELLING

• One more reason for choosing Jaeckel fur storage is that your furs are on the premises when you plan your repairs and remodelling. It is needless to stress the enormous advantage of having the Jaeckel highly skilled fashion experts and workers do this work for you during their slack summer season. Work done during the summer months is carried out at very special prices.

Shopping With Sylvia Greenway

After you buy your house through LOUIS P. MCGAHIE—72-19 Austin Street—you can get it insured by him as well. That's killing two birds with one stone! Incidentally, he'll also insure your automobile, canary, or what have you? And we can't recommend him highly enough.

After all is said and done, however, there's nothing like having your own clothes made to order. That's what Mrs. Kiendl and her daughters say—it's the only way to make them really fit. And Forest Hills is particularly fortunate in having an expert dress designer right in its midst—MRS. AGNES VIBORG—310 Burns Street (Bo. 8-5964)—who executed all the costumes in the "Gardens Varieties 1933".

Most husbands know to their sorrow that there's nothing for that despondent feeling like a new hat. But I suggest you steer the little woman in the direction of ANNA'S HAT SHOP—26 Winsor Place. She can revel there to her heart's content, and you'll both be satisfied as to price and quality.

I found out something new the other day. The AUSTIN COURT MEAT MARKET on Austin Street near Continental Avenue—you know—that place where you've been getting those swell chops and sea bass—is dealing in butter and eggs as well.

This is the time for you to have your little Mary Jane or Edward, Jr. learn to become an expert pianist. ROSAMONDE CRAWFORD, that excellent concert virtuoso, is now taking pupils in Forest Hills—and if she can't teach your offspring how to play—no one can. Call BOulevard 8-2609, and make an appointment.

Yes, I know we all dread that twice-yearly trip to the dentist, but if you visit DR. V. N. QUINTIN (2 Continental Avenue), the work will be neither financially nor physically painful. Established fourteen years in Forest Hills. Phone BOulevard 8-5943 for an appointment.

"The Naughty Little Bird on Nellie's Hat" is quite out of date, but not so with Ann Spencer's hats. They're up to the minute, modern in style and price, as are the charming dresses and frocks to be found at her shop. If you want a hat molded or remodeled, or the feminine antidote for Spring fever—a new outfit—visit ANN SPENCER—72-04 Austin Street.

There's no reason to be afraid of duplicate contract bridge—it isn't difficult—and it does improve you game. You'll find an interesting crowd playing in E. A. MASON'S tournament at the Forest Hills Inn every Friday night. The entry fee is only one dollar, and four handsome silver trophies are awarded as prizes.

Of course you get all your cakes at the MARY LEWIS SHOP—72-15 Austin Street—but did you also know that they serve a marvellous home-cooked dinner for only seventy-five cents?

I've been making discreet inquiries among the well-dressed women in Forest Hills, and I've found to my surprise, I confess, that most of them get their clothes right in their own home town. A large number go to EDNA CHASE, because, as one of them put it, "The prices and the quality are right!" Her new store is located at Continental Avenue and Austin Street.

Are you thinking of buying a house because that new arrival makes the apartment a wee bit crowded? Or do you have to move into an apartment because of temporary financial embarrassment? Whatever the reason is, JOHN W. GOODING, real estate agent par excellence, will accommodate you—39 Continental Avenue.

You people who always feel a yen to eat after the big party, why don't you try the FOREST HILLS RESTAURANT, just back of the National City Bank on Austin Street? Open day and night, and mmmm! what sandwiches!

I bet you've often wondered what makes our president, James Power, so—well—healthy-looking. Well, I've found out that he buys at the STANDARD MEAT MARKET—116-06 Jamaica Avenue, Richmond Hill. Their steaks must be steaks!

"It's odd," one of my friends was saying to me, "how people make a habit of garages. Now I always take my car to the AYWON GARAGE on Austin Street. I guess I started there because it was convenient, and the service was so good they haven't been able to shake me."

Tennis and golf seem to be the two major sports of Forest Hills, and it certainly is comforting to know you can get everything in the way of sportswear (even "spectator" sports) from the NICHOLS SHOP—23 Continental Avenue. Do try it!

The popular rendezvous for the tennis crowd this summer will be, I imagine, the TENNIS GRILL. As usual you'll see everyone there. They're serving fifty cent lunches and seventy-five cent dinners, featuring that old Southern home-cooking. Yowsuh! Located just opposite the West Side Tennis Club.

The low-down on the higher ups . . . . We feel it our duty to mention the fact that the lovely, natural wave in Loretta Howson's hair was originated, and is renewed weekly by the HARDING COURT BEAUTY SALON—72-27 Austin Street. Now, girls, don't rush! The shop has been doing excellent work here for eight years, so you can get your appointment next week.

There's no sense washing those tub-silk summer frocks yourself, when you can get plain dresses beautifully French dry-cleaned at the ADEL CO. (Cleaners and Dyers), 72-05 Austin Street, for only fifty cents. Your husbands will also be interested in the fact they can get their suits and topcoats dry-cleaned for the same unbelievably low price.

When Junior insists upon going to the beach, then brings the gang home, and polishes off the chicken you were saving for Sunday dinner, that's the time to pack him off to Camp Forest Hills, for boys from 7 to 14 years of age, in the foothills of the White Mountains, at Groton, New Hampshire—where athletics balance appetite. Clarence Dauphinot, George Simon, Perry MacNeal and Victor Luneborg are some of its many satisfied graduates. Write ARTHUR H. FLINT, 92 Beechnoll Road, for a booklet. Depression prices.

Talking of Fine Places to Live

The HOLLAND HOUSE is a ten story, fireproof apartment house of the kind and type and with the appointments that you would find on Park Avenue, but the rent is reasonable and right.

The WAKEFIELD is a six story, brand new, modern apartment house mighty nice and even less expensive.

Both are on Austin Street at the corner of 73rd Avenue, Forest Hills.

SPEND MONEY . . . BUT SPEND WISELY

How to Spend Wisely

IT is never easy to reduce expenditures or cost of living. If one-half the effort which is made to increase one's personal earnings were directed toward careful and economical management of one's personal spending, a long step would be taken towards solving our national economic problems.

The average man or woman will readily apply a system of control over the business or household routine as to work to be done — things to be accomplished — but for some unknown reason will not apply the same control to personal financial affairs.

Wise expenditure is not meanness or stinginess, or any particular self-denial — it is simply wise regulation. It is directing the power of money and doing away with its lost motion.

A Bouquet of Orchids to our Shopping Column

We wrote it, and we're rather proud of it, of course we think it's going to be a howling success, but just in case we're wrong, we'd like to hear your opinion. Read pages 7 and 9 and tell us what you think of it. Maybe we can get our contract renewed next year.

PROSIT!

It's here
 3.2 per cent beer
 We drink it
 We feel fit
 It's real, not near.

Similar toasts are heard on all sides nowadays. The foaming beverage is proclaimed as the chaser of blues, the builder of health, the restorer of youth, the creator of prosperity. It may certainly assist in all these things, but is not the cure-all. It may help to down the depression; it certainly is not the sales solution of every business. The kenote of good business is, today as always, good advertising. The basis of good advertising is good printing. From the simplest business card to the most elaborate brochure, your printed advertising matter should express the spirit of your business. Our competent staff can assist you in the preparation of your advertising, most efficiently; our modern equipment can carry out the production of your printing, most economically. We would like to hear from you.

PROSIT!

A final word . . . Clap calloused mitts for the following nervous wrecks, the gentlemen with the severe case of pianoitis—Sam Pearce, our musical director; the unconscious heap in the corner, covered reverently with programs — Fred Kiendl, our program and advertising manager; the harrassed scholar backstage—Albert Howson, who, alone, and unaided, directed the entire performance; the woman still feverishly pecking away on a typewriter—Mrs. Mabel Collyer, our publicity director; "Bruce!" Howard, known familiarly as "props" and "lights". My squib is on page 7. And boy! did we have fun!

300 Eggs From One Bird!

Perhaps this bird lives right in your own home. It is so tiny and harmless looking, you are apt to forget that it is a destructive insect, dangerous to your valuable rugs, upholstery, draperies and clothing. Many women know these things about the harmless looking little moth but few know the sure way of eliminating the real source of this trouble, namely, the egg. I can absolutely guarantee to rid your home of moths permanently. Call me for the solution of this and all other spring house cleaning problems, as I am a member of your community and you can have confidence in the promptness, efficiency and satisfaction of my service.

Summer Memberships

Our pool is Sixty Feet by Twenty Feet and contains 50,000 gallons of Drinking Water.

We wish to acknowledge our appreciation to our advertisers who have helped materially to make these Varieties possible. In turn we ask all members and Patrons of the Gardens Players to patronize the shops and services of our advertisers.

This is playing the game.

When you go into a shop we are sure you will be surprised at the response you will get if you will just say, "I saw your ad in the Gardens Players Program."

It will be like taking a bit of the good humor and community spirit of this evening into their marts of trade.

We thank you,

THE GARDENS PLAYERS

THE PLAY OF ANOTHER DAY

Several of the players on the stage before you, many among the audience about you, together with scores of others selected from prominent residents of Forest Hills, Kew Gardens and other Long Island communities will present a gay, exciting, thrilling, gorgeous Play "Nothing But Fun" for a full summer engagement at Castle Beach Club, Atlantic Beach, Long Island.

Members of Castle Beach Club are assured a happy, care-free summer with people of their own kind—their friends—away from the hustle and bustle of crowded public beaches.

To its rigidly restricted membership, the Castle Beach Club offers the finest facilities for swimming, bathing and sunning . . . both surf and a huge outdoor pool . . . individual bathhouses . . . clean, safe, patrolled, private beach . . . games for the children . . . beach chairs and umbrellas . . . refreshment bar and cafeteria . . . modern equipment and courteous service by uniformed attendants.

And the tax on the family budget has been happily adjusted to the fortunes and incomes of 1933. Requests for complete details and applications for membership should be addressed to the Executive Offices, Castle Beach Club, 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, New York City.
