July 4th

Number

PROCLAMATION

NOW the Seasons in their course have brought us once more to that Festival whereby we celebrate, with public rejoicing, the Anniversary of our Independence. One hundred and five and forty years ago our forefathers put off the burden of King George's yoke and set up in this land a rule founded on freedom, equality and justice. On this foundation has been reared a noble house, proof against storms from without and sedition from within. Today we dwell in it, a nation blessed most signally in a none too happy world, and it is fitting that on the day of our country's birth we should rejoice and make merry in token of our gratitude.

Therefore we summon all the good folk of Forest Hills Gardens to assemble on the Village Green at half-after nine o'clock on the morning of July 4th, to sing in praise of the Flag which will be hoisted on the Flagstaff. Thereafter, games and contests of skill will be held in the Public Square for the pleasure of our children and the pride of their parents.

At half-after four the mimes known as "The Gardens Players" will perform under the trees of Olivia Park a merry masque entitled "The Flying Door Mat," composed for this occasion by Master Renaud. The ballet troupe of Monsieur Chalif will exhibit their sprightly dances, and a band of music will play.

After nightfall the Public Square will be lit with flares and torches and those so minded may dance as long as their strength, and the fiddlers', shall endure.

All these sports and entertainments have been prepared by your committees, but they cannot supply the spirit of merry-making, of neighborly good-fellowship. Of that, we beg you, let each citizen resolve to contribute his full share.

LEGION MEN ATTENTION!

The American Legion Post 630, composed of Forest Hills men, has been invited to take charge of the Flag raising exercises both in the Gardens and in Forest Hills and to assist with the entertainment of the 100 soldier guests of the day.

Members of the Legion should be in uniform, if possible. Come to Station Square at 9 A. M. on July 4.

M. J. FOLENSBEE,
Commander.

THE TOWN CRIER

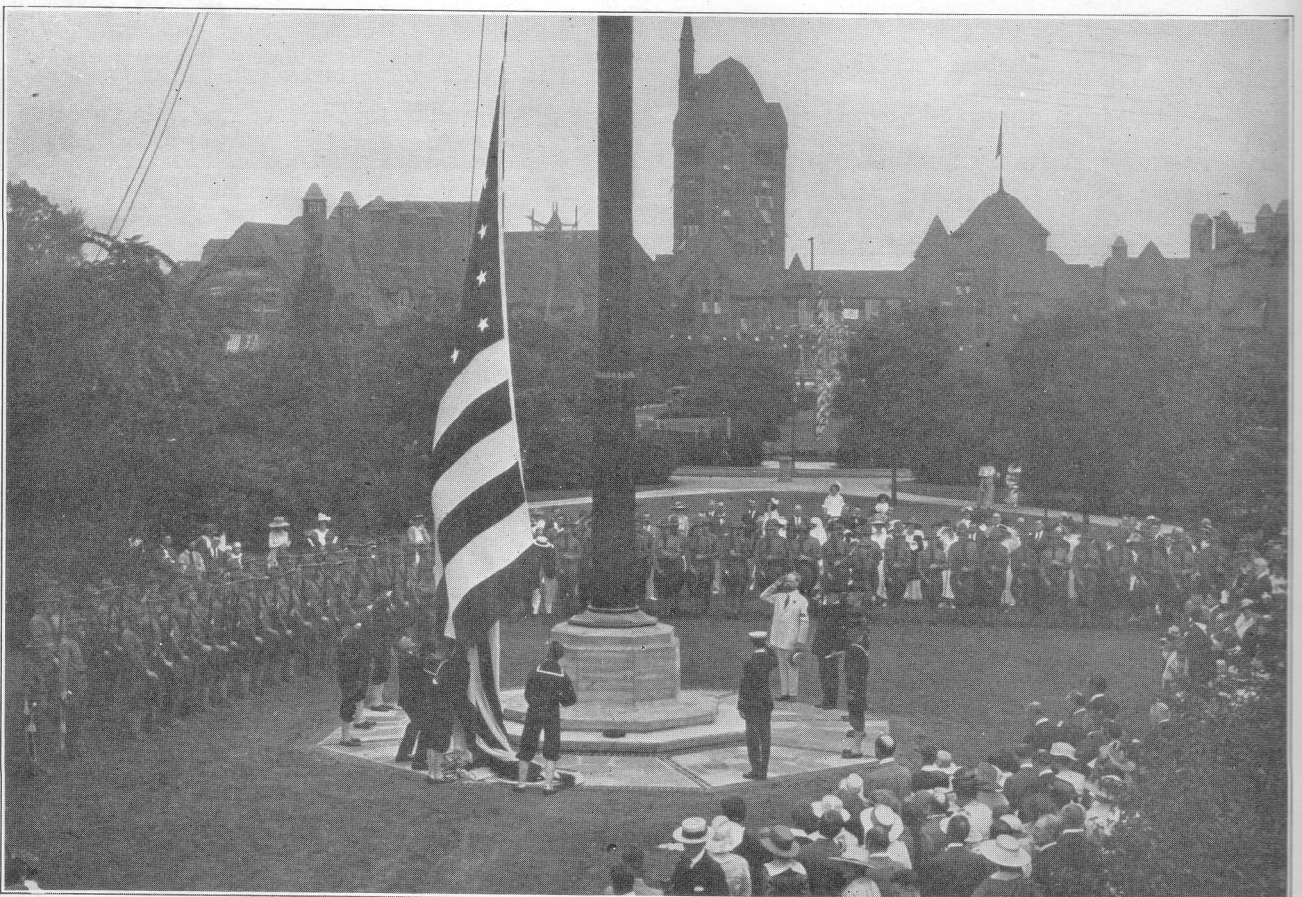

Harvey Warren and his assistants, dressed in the garb of old fashioned Town Criers, will go through the streets of the village, early in the morning of July 4 and arouse the townfolk with the following call to the celebration:

Oyez, Oyez, ye Towns-folk all,
 Good News Town Crier hath to call.
 Ye Patriot Heart, be glad, be gay,
 Now cometh Independence Day.
 With Lusty Cheer, with Joyous Shout,
 Ye Lads and Lassies, come ye out
 To foot it gaily on ye Green,
 Where Divers Anticks may be seen.
 With Sport and Feasting, Dance and Song,
 With Jollity ye whole Day Long;
 Now keep we in ye Old Time way,
 Our, Glorious Independence Day!

Gertrude Knevels.

FLAG RAISING

The Flag Raising will take place promptly at 9:30 A. M. on July 4, on the Green. There will be inspiring singing by the Choral Club under the leadership of Bruno Huhn and a short address by Dr. David Latshaw, pastor of the Church-in-the-Gardens and the invocation by Rev. W. P. S. Lander, of St. Luke's. There will be one new feature of this morning program which will be a surprise and will interest all people of the Gardens.

FLAG RAISING EXERCISES JULY 4, 1917

GREENWAY TERRACES IN PATRIOTIC ATTIRE

FOREST HILLS CHORAL CLUB

Both Morning and Evening Programs Under the Leadership of Bruno Huhn.

A number of men and women of the Gardens have been singing together for the last several years at Christmas time and on Fourth of July. Mrs. Charles H. Scammell has been their guiding spirit through the years. Last year Bruno Huhn, a famous New York conductor of choruses and a composer, was the leader of the Choral Club and again at Christmas time, with excellent results. The women have had considerable practice in a chorus of the Women's Club. Mrs. Scammell is again chairman and Mr. Huhn is the leader also this year.

The program of the Choral Club at the Flag raising at 9:30 A. M. on the Green will include "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," "The Red, White and Blue" and "Star Spangled Banner." In Station Square at nine o'clock in the evening the Choral Club will sing, "Hail, Land of Freedom," by George C. Turner, Kipling's "Recessional," by Reginald de Koven, "American National Airs" by Ross Hilton and the "Star Spangled Banner."

To make these programs all they should be, Mrs. Scammell urges all singers to meet for rehearsals at the Church-in-the-Gardens, Sunday, June 26 and Friday, July 1, at eight o'clock in the evening. Mr. Huhn will conduct the rehearsals.

THE LOCAL CELEBRATION BOOSTED

The Community Center, published bi-monthly by the National Community Center Association, takes occasion in its March-April number to tell how Forest Hills Gardens celebrates Independence Day. A nice bit of praise is given to the Taxpayers' Association, for the last two years known as the Community Council, through which organization the village has worked out many of its local problems. Then the article goes into considerable detail about the Independence Day celebrations here, giving the features which have marked the observances since 1914, when the first of the local festivals was held. Several cuts are used to illustrate the story. Major Clarence A. Perry is the editor of this magazine.

TENNIS TOURNAMENTS REVIVED

Old Time Competition Between the "Inns" and the "Outs" Will be a Feature of the Festivities.

The "Inn Cup" will be contested for by two groups of men, one group living in the Inn and one group living in the Gardens. The tennis tournament will take place on the Inn courts at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 4. These formerly were a regular part of the program of the celebration but last year were put aside and a ball game was substituted.

Those who will play in the single matches, on the Inn side, will be Captain, E. H. Conway, John Winkler and Frank Ross. They will be opposed by these men from the Gardens; Captain, Dr. S. E. Davenport, Jr., Stuart Gayness and Charles P. Orr. In the double matches championing the cause of the Inn will be these, Mr. Winkler and Mr. Ross, Mr. Conway and Frederick Koshwitz. The Gardens will be represented in the doubles by Mr. Gayness and Dr. Davenport, Jr., Mr. Orr and Charles Bishop.

SPORTS FOR CHILDREN

All the fathers, mothers, boys and girls will be interested in the sports to be held in the Station Square from 10 A. M. to 12 M. There will be many kinds of contests for the various ages. Races in which express wagons, sacks, balloons and obstacles play a part will take place, for the children. There will also be many other stunts to delight the boys and girls and to test their strength and skill. For the men and women some novel contests are planned, among others "an affinity race for married couples." Number 23 on the list of contests reads, "Fred Stone will entertain the kids." Since that is the last on the list it possibly means "skiddoo" to dinner; at any rate it means that the last number will be fun for everybody. There will be medal prizes for all of the children's events and suitable prizes for adults.

The committee on the children's games consists of Dr. W. F. Saybolt, chairman, Mrs. Edward S. Mof-fat, playleader, Dr. J. A. Corscaden, S. W. Eckman, E. H. Mays, John M. McMillin and Fred Stone. There will be judges, starters, announcers, a special committee on prizes and one on properties—all to insure a good time for the boys and girls.

COOPERATION AND ENLIGHTENMENT

WE have lived through a period of war when patriotism and humanitarianism have reached wonderful heights. It has been a rich experience to live on such a high plane of national and personal unselfishness. The victory has been won and the reaction has come. As individuals and as a nation we are more self centred, more commercial, than we were three years ago. This condition is disappointing, but not unexpected.

The period of business depression is here. Far reaching and deep must be the readjustment commercially, to bring back to this country the business stability which will insure prosperity. There are many signs of willingness to compromise and to cooperate among large business interests and between the government and business, so that we may hope for a better day in the financial and economic world.

There is need of patriotism today, just as much as in war times. Not the waving of a flag and singing a patriotic song alone, not by word of mouth nor by any particular display, but by a living patriotism which is "hard cooperative effort," one individual with another, one class with another and the government with all classes.

Henry W. Taft, in speaking before the New Jersey State Bar Association, said the other day that the way to answer the bolshevists and the socialists is to reason with them, not to suppress them. Soviet propaganda must be fought by argument, be affirmed. "If the American people will seriously concern themselves," he said, "to combat such heresies—communism and bolshevism—they not only will wither away, but we will have a most healthful exhibition of the power of unrestrained discussion."

We are to come into this new day of commercial prosperity by the difficult road of "hard cooperative effort" and trustfulness and we shall evolve a most healthy national life through an intelligent, enlightened and open-minded citizenship.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT GREETING THE PEOPLE OF THE GARDENS, JULY 4, 1917

JULY FOURTH IN THE GARDENS

ALL the people of Forest Hills Gardens are helping in the plans for the celebration of our national Independence Day. Working and playing together, boys and girls, men and women, enjoying the fruits of weeks of labor and planning, all signify a community life and spirit which have considerable depth and breadth.

The Celebrations Association, through many committees, has worked since Christmas on the detailed plans for the happiness of our people on July 4. As the program of the day progresses, it will be apparent that careful, intelligent and devoted work has been done in preparation of the events.

The Choral Club, shows a splendid piece of team work—the chairman, the leader and the members, all aiming to inspire us with patriotism by their singing at the Flag raising in the morning and in the Station Square at night. Forest Hills needs music and there is no better way to encourage community spirit than by community singing.

The games and contests of the children are always enjoyable and this year, with Fred Stone bringing laughter from the kiddies and their parents, these sports will be better than ever. No one will miss these games.

The Olivia Park performance, a play written by one of our neighbors and produced by our own Gardens Players; costumes locally designed and for the most part locally made; our own children acting well, clever parts; these are all proof of a wonderful piece of community cooperation. The Players are the logical producers of our July 4 plays and we hope they will always render this service. We predict that this performance will be the best one ever given in Olivia Park.

This whole celebration is to be a community, family affair. Our soldier guests and our patronage of the Big Sisters booth will give us some touch with the outside world. Primarily, however, the day's events have been so arranged that you and yours will retire on the night of July 4, tired, happy and grateful, that some good fairy has influenced you and your family to make your home in the Village Beautiful.

DISPLAY THE COLORS

Let every house in Forest Hills Gardens display the United States Flag from sunrise to sunset on Independence Day!

The first page of this edition of the BULLETIN has been designed by Walter D. Teague.

OFFICERS OF THE CELEBRATIONS ASSOCIATION.

The officers of the Celebrations Association are: Horace MacRobert, Jr., president, Mrs. J. S. Maxwell, vice-president, Scott Robinson, secretary and Henry Hirschberg, treasurer.

CROWDS IN STATION SQUARE, JULY 4, 1917, APPLAUDING THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE FLYING DOOR-MAT

Renaud's Play in Olivia Park Will be the Best Ever Given Here—The Gardens Players Are Responsible for the Production.

From the sub-title of Ralph Renaud's play, "The Flying Door-Mat," or, "An Exposition of Relativity in One Lesson," one might imagine that Professor Einstein, instead of Harvey Warren, had been conducting the rehearsals in Olivia Park. As a matter of fact, the BULLETIN understands that the Relativity involved is more psychological than metaphysical and refers to a mental habit to which most of us, even we who enjoy the blessings of Forest Hills Gardens, are prone.

The play, masque, or fantasy, if you like, seeks to develop the theme that our own troubles are often insignificant when viewed in the light of other peoples' woes, especially if they are faced with courage and determination. "The Flying Door-Mat," as you might expect, wanders a bit and carries the action of the entertainment as far as England, Greece and Russia. England is presented as "The Land of Things as They Are," Greece as "The Land of Things as They Were," and Russia as "The Land of Things as They Never Should Have Been." The conclusion, of course, is that Forest Hills Gardens is the pleasantest spot in the world and has advantages beyond enumeration.

Renaud, they say, has striven for a satirical effect and they even hint that he actually expects to persuade the audience into laughter before the afternoon is over. Except for a novelty introduction and the incidental dances which Louis Chalif, as in former years, will supply, the play is a bit of international foolery with a distinctly local background. An engaged couple, Mr. Forest and Miss Hills, make many amazing discoveries during their lesson in Relativity and, in the end, are thoroughly convinced that The Gardens is the ideal place for engaged couples who are prospecting for a home. Naturally, the author hasn't forgotten that it is the Fourth of July and managed to make the American view-point perfectly clear.

This year the play calls for a number of children in the cast and the little folk will have the run of the stage in some of the cleverest costumes that Walter Teague has designed. The costumes have all been designed by Mr. Teague and executed by the Eaves Costume Company and the Gardens Players Studios. Mrs. Donald G. Clark has trained the children.

THE CAST AND THE COMMITTEE.

The Gardens Players are producing "The Flying Door-Mat," with Harvey Warren, the president, personally directing the rehearsals. This is the fourth play which Mr. Renaud has written for the Independence Day celebrations. The Players are using their strongest members for the cast, among whom are Edward Swazey, Lolita Cordon, Walter Hartwig, Evelyn Dorr, Walter Claypoole, Edward Moir, John Heinz and Crispia Bebb. The children of the Gardens have a very important part in the production. Those who will take part are Affa Gray, Frances Barnard, Jessie Tappan, Betty Bristol, Deeney Claypoole, Rita O'Shea, Patsy Renaud, Dorothy Clark, Harriet Barnard, Ruth Haas, Margaret Williamson, Esther Makela and Mildred Vanderveer. The singing voices of Jewell Aldrich and Lyla Wilson will be heard to advantage in the charming echoes that will sound from the slight elevations near Olivia Park.

The committee of the Celebrations Association responsible for the Olivia Park production consists of Mrs. George Smart, Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson and Louis P. McGahie.

"YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG"

SALE TO BENEFIT SOLDIERS

There are at the present time more than 3,000 disabled and convalescent soldiers in the hospitals within an hour of Times Square.

To help these men who have done so much for the country, a sale of articles made by disabled soldiers is to be held in the sun room of the Inn on Wednesday, June 29 from 10 A. M., to 9 P. M. The articles, which are charming as well as practical and inexpensive, include woven rugs, baskets, garden decorations, candle shades, bird houses, and many novel toys. The entire proceeds will be sent to the disabled soldiers through the local lest we forget committee of which Mrs. Lawrence F. Abbott is chairman.

In charge of the sale will be Mrs. G. Willis Drake, chairman and Mrs. Willis J. Abbott, vice-chairman.

SOLDIERS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

Lest We Forget Committee is Arranging to Extend Hospitality to 100 Soldiers.

Mrs. Lawrence F. Abbott is chairman of a local lest we forget committee, whose pleasure it has been to find hostesses for 100 soldiers who will be the guests of the village on July 4.

The soldiers will be brought to Forest Hills in busses. Of this number, 35 will be met at Governor's Island Ferry and they are men who have recently arrived from service on the Rhine; 35 will be carefully selected men from Fox Hills Hospital (selected as to health and character) and 35 will be met at the Community Service Club on West Forty-sixth Street. The last are men who have been rehabilitated. The first and last groups will arrive in time for the Flag raising ceremonies. The second group will reach Forest Hills just before noon. The busses will be met at Station Square by men of the American Legion who will march ahead to the Green. On their arrival, promptly at 9:30 A. M., the ceremonies will begin. After this, the visitors will march to Station Square, where seats will be reserved for them to watch the children's games. Following the games, the men will march back to the Green where they will meet their hostesses who will take the soldiers home for luncheon.

The men will attend the afternoon play in Olivia Park.

At six o'clock the busses will arrive and the men will go back to New York after each man has been given a good box supper, a pound of candy, a box of cigarettes and a ticket entitling him to a supper at the Service Club and a movie. These gifts and the expenses of the busses are donated by the Forest Hills Branch of the American Red Cross.

Assisting Mrs. Abbott on the committee are Mrs. Horace MacRobert, Jr., Mrs. M. J. Folensbee, Mrs. M. J. Stichel and Mrs. George Smart.

Automobile owners please notify Mrs. Abbott if their cars are available for the use of the soldiers.

THE EVENING PARTY

Dance for Children and Then for Adults in the Station Square—The Choral Club Will Sing.

From the plans of the committee the evening party promises to be the jolliest ever held in the Gardens. This will be a dancing party not only for the adults but for the children as well. The dancing floor in the Station Square will be especially reserved for the children from 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.—no adults except members of the committee will be allowed on the floor during these hours and this is a day of obedient adults. At nine o'clock the Choral Club will give a short program of patriotic songs, after which the dance floor will be reserved for adults and the children will obediently become the wall flowers.

The Square will be brilliantly lighted and beautifully decorated with festoons and flags as in former years and beside those decorations the Celebrations Association has bought 150 United States Navy signals and 50 United States flags to be used in the ornamentation of the Square and to inspire the people with patriotism.

The Regiment Band of the 22nd Corps of Engineers, formerly the 22nd Regiment, will furnish the music for the dance, as in other years.

Badge wearers only will be admitted to the dance.

Henry Hirschberg, the chairman, claims he has the very best committee assisting him. These are Louis McGahie, Harvey Warren, John G. Elliott, H. H. Robinson, Dr. R. W. Waddell, E. C. Ketcham, Clark Brown, J. H. Hopkins, Scott Robinson and W. C. Langcope.

BIG SISTERS

General and Mrs. Langfitt will Preside Over the Refreshment Booth.

The Big Sisters of Queensborough will conduct the refreshment booth at the Inn on July 4, as in former years. The organization is happy to announce that General and Mrs. William C. Langfitt, the distinguished head of the Engineers of the American Expeditionary Forces in France during the World War, and his wife will preside over the booth. Lemonade, sandwiches, ice cream and cake will be for sale. The Forest Hills Branch of the American Red Cross has arranged with the committee in charge of the booth to prepare 100 hot suppers for the soldiers, who will be the guests of the village on Independence Day.

Last year Forest Hills contributed $900 to the Big Sisters and this sum has almost supported the boarding house for unfortunate children, which is conducted by the organization at Springfield, Long Island. So far this year Forest Hills has contributed $500 to the organization. Mrs. Smith Alford, the president says that she expects even more from Forest Hills in the year 1921 than was received in 1920. The residents of Forest Hills are encouraged to patronize the booth on Independence Day. Mrs. Murray S. Brown is chairman for this ward and Mrs. John M. Demarest is a member of the executive committee of the Big Sisters.

MOSQUITO EXTERMINATION

Two careful inspections have been made of mosquito breeding places in this vicinity by an expert loaned us from the Union Mosquito Extermination Commission, of New Jersey. In each instance where breeding of mosquitoes was found, the owner was requested to abate the nuisance at once.

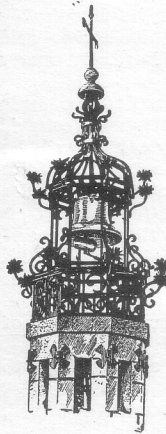

The new inspector, Edward Durand, is highly recommended. He has been at work two weeks and will continue all summer. He will cover every breeding place within four or five miles of Forest Hills and wherever breeding is found he will invite the owner of the land to get rid of the nuisance. When necessary, the Health Department will cooperate and bring the offender to terms.

The committee is proud of the work done in 1916 and 1917 and we hope to work so thoroughly this year that the mosquito pest will be a thing of the past. We need the financial help of every resident of Forest Hills and Forest Hills Gardens. Make checks payable to M. J. Folsensbee, treasurer, 55 Bow Street.

Beside the names of those published in the last BULLETIN, the following are contributors: W. H. Batcheller, S. L. Coles, John Curtiss, Frederick K. Seward, Walter H. Foster, Robert Burns Mantle, A. A. Renshaw, Eugene Christian, Phebe Woodard, Winifred Buck Abbott, Ira C. Barnes, Fred A. Stone and M. J. Stickel.

S. W. ECKMAN,
Chairman Anti-Mosquito Committee of the Community Council.

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

"The Social Question In Forest Hills" will be the subject of Dr. Latshaw's sermon tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Every resident of the community should hear this message.

Special July 4 services will be conducted on Sunday, July 3, in co-operation with the Celebrations Association. Dr. Latshaw's sermon will be one appropriate for the day. Visitors to the community are especially invited to this service. The regular morning services will be continued during the month of July and Dr. Latshaw will be in the pulpit each Sunday. There will be no services during the month of August.

The Sunday school, after a very successful year, closed its sessions for the season on June 12. The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor also closed its work on the same day.

Beginning with the new year early in October, all the educational work of the church will be under the direction of the newly formed Council of Religious Education.

The pastor, officers and members of the Christian Endeavor Society are co-operating in the arrangement and other matters in preparation of the Sixth International Christian Endeavor Convention to be held July 6 to 11 in the Seventy-seventh Regiment Armory, New York City.

The season just closing has been the most successful in the history of the church, with every department performing excellent work. Dr. Latshaw as pastor has contributed largely to the results obtained and has been greatly appreciated by the church and congregation. The membership has been increasing and now numbers 192. The fellowship of the many denominations represented in this unique community church has been most delightful and harmonious. A welcome is extended to all who desire to do so, to join with us.

THE GOLDEN DAY, OLIVA PARK, JULY 4, 1919
AN ALLEGORY BY RALPH E. RENAND

HON. JOB HEDGES, SPEAKER

Just as the BULLETIN goes to press, the committee announces that the Hon. Job Elmer Hedges will give the address in Station Square on the afternoon of July 4, at two o'clock.

Mr. Hedges is a justly famous speaker, with a sense of humor and he is a coiner of epigrams. The committee is fortunate in securing him for this occasion. He is the Receiver for the N. Y. Railways Company and belongs to the firm of Hedges, Ely & Frankel. He was secretary for Mayor Strong 1895-1897. He was a candidate for Governor in 1912 and ran again in the primaries in 1914. "Common Sense in Politics" and other books have come from his pen.

PERSONALS

The homes of Forest Hills Gardens will be hospitably open over the Independence Day holiday. Relatives and friends from distant places will visit friends here. In many of the homes soldiers will be entertained.

Miss Donna Moore, Greenway Terraces, sailed on June 17 from Montreal for Europe, where she will spend several months. Miss Moore has gone with a party which will be conducted through the countries of Europe by Dr. John Kelsoe, a scholar and an experienced traveler. In the group are twenty-two girls from Wellesley College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Moir, 141 Jewell Street, announce the birth of a son, James Douglas Moir, on May 22.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hill and family are at the Lake Placid Club.

John Gray is home from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Fred Small has graduated from Andover and will go to Yale next year.

Miss Helena Ketcham is entertaining Miss Ella Cahill, from Boston.

Miss Helen E. Smart is home from Wellesley and is entertaining Miss Ruth Ling, of Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Nelcamp, Puritan Avenue, have enjoyed a motor trip to Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

Let the BULLETIN know whom you entertain from out-of-town during the summer and also where you visit.

THE SPIRIT OF OLIVIA PARK

RADCLIFFE COLLEGE BENEFIT

In the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow M. Gordon, Puritan Avenue, on the afternoon of June 20, was held a circus. Colo, Gordon Jr., Susanna, all proved themselves acrobats of great ability, and Bettina, a dancer of charm. The clowns, too, were there and acted like really, truly clowns. Campo, a magician of skill, was also the announcer. These performers are known in private life by such names as Alden Campbell, Susan Daniels, Betty Mitchell, Calvert Cole, Thurlow Gordon, Perry MacNeal and William Gretsche. It will never be announced as to just who was who. Lemonade and animal crackers were sold to help the fund. Assisting Mrs. Gordon was Mrs. Albert Morton Gray. There were seventy-five present and the Radcliffe endowment fund will receive $26.60 from these children of Forest Hills who, as Mrs. Gordon announced, "were not coached."

COMING EVENTS

THE INN

Mrs. H. W. Hardinge, of Greenway South entertained a small company at dinner in the sun parlor on June 9. Covers were laid for ten.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Prather and family of Dallas, Texas, are recent arrivals at the Inn; they expect to remain until they open their cottage at Lake Placid.

Mr. and Mrs. Fischer Buell, of Flushing, L. I., who have been guests of the Inn for the past several months, are now sojourning in the mountains, and expect to return to the Inn for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robbins departed a week ago for the summer. Mrs. Robbins will spend a short time in Nova Scotia. They will be welcomed on their return to the Inn in the early fall.

Col. and Mrs. Dalton have been joined by their two sons, Alexander and F. W. Dalton, who intend to spend their vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace have returned to the Inn after having spent several weeks with their daughter in Chicago.

Among the recent arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. Curtis McGraw, of Manhattan; Mrs. J. L. Winant and son, Frederick J. Winant, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Thesau and two daughters, of Capetown, South Africa; Mrs. H. H. Bosworth and little daughter, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Prince, Jr., of New York; Lieut. Richard W. Bates and Lieut. R. C. Connelly, of the United States Navy; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pretlow, of Manhattan, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark.

CARD PARTY JULY 26

As all children in the Gardens will benefit by the Community House, the members of the executive board of the Gardens Mothers' Club have decided that the club be responsible for the side shows and other attractions for the children at the Community House fair, to be held in the fall. To secure funds to arrange for and manage these, a card party will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Harold P. Daniels, 20 Markwood Road, on Tuesday, July 26, at 2:30 P. M. Any one wishing to secure tickets at $1.00 each, including refreshments and prizes, may buy them at any one of the three drug stores, or by telephoning Mrs. Daniels, 6460 Boulevard.

HANDCRAFT CLASSES DURING JULY

Handcraft classes begin July 5 at public school 101, at 2:30 P. M. These classes will include clay modeling, basketry, singing and drawing for the older children, and kindergarten classes for those of kindergarten age. Mothers who are competent to do the work have volunteered to be responsible for these classes. Parents will kindly register their children and remit $2.00 per child for the month to cover cost of materials which must be ordered in advance. Address Mrs. Donald G. Clark, chairman, 49 Markwood Road.
