

The Forest Hills Bulletin

FOREST HILLS, LONG ISLAND

Vol. 8

Saturday, October 28, 1922

No. 2

COMMUNITY PROBLEMS

John M. Demarest Addresses the Property Owners

Residents Prepare to Administer Maintenance Fund and Restrictions Now Vested in Sage Foundation Homes Company

The property owners of Forest Hills Gardens, who for the past eleven years have had much of their community responsibilities borne by the Sage Foundation Homes Company, particularly with respect to the administration of the maintenance fund and the restrictions, took their first formal step on Tuesday night, looking toward the carrying of their own burdens hereafter.

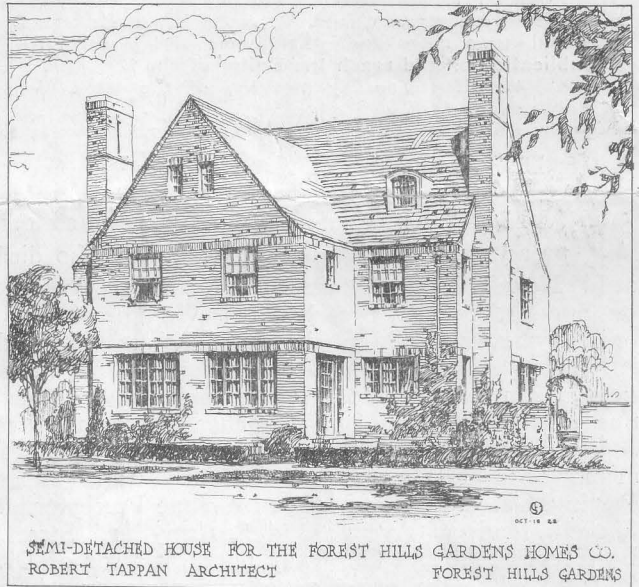

At a special meeting at the Inn, John M. Demarest, vice-president of the Sage Foundation Homes Company, who, with others (most of them residents of the Gardens) has taken over the stock and all of the remaining holdings of the Homes Company, made an announcement as to the new company's position in regard to these matters and asked the co-operation of the residents in the working out of the new arrangement. Edgar D. Sealy, president of the Community Council, presided.

Mr. Demarest gave some details of the physical improvements which had to be cared for under the maintenance charges and many were surprised to learn the village has about ten miles of roads, about thirty-five acres of parks and parking spaces. He showed that 40 percent. of the property was devoted to roads, parks, sidewalks, and other open spaces, and but 60 percent. remained as marketable property. He also showed that the maximum charge of two mills per square foot of lot area per year was insufficient to cover the cost; in fact, that there now appears a deficit in the general maintenance fund, existing over a period of eleven years, totaling $105,000, in addition to which there is a deficit for this year's work of $10,000. The Russell Sage Foundation, however, responding to an appeal made by the special committee of the Community Council, has indicated its willingness to meet this deficit so as to allow the property owners to take hold of the administration of the maintenance fund in future, free of all debt, contingent of course upon the proper organization being formed for the purpose. He also read a letter from Borough President Connolly, expressing willingness to recommend to the city the taking over the maintenance of the sewage pumping plant after a few details shall have been worked out. In the matter of restrictions Mr. Demarest read an agreement entered into by his company and Robert W. DeForest, president of the Russell Sage Foundation, whereby the Homes Company, which had the power to modify restrictions, turned that power back to the Russell Sage Foundation, retaining, however, the privilege of erecting apartment houses on certain land, including Block 12, which is the tract upon which the old sales office still stands.

Mr. Demarest suggested the formation of a membership corporation on the part of the property owners to take over the administration of the maintenance fund and the restrictions.

Louis Dean Speir, chairman of the special committee which has been at work on the matter for some time, read a very comprehensive report covering the entire ground and recommending the continuance of the committee for ten days, with orders to present at a meeting to be called at that time, a plan of organization.

Judge J. R. Davies moved and it was voted that the committee arrange for the organization of a Citizens' Membership Corporation, with power to carry out all the ideals for which Forest Hills Gardens has stood in the past. Mr. Sealy will probably call another meeting shortly to take final action on the plan of organization.

SEMI-DETACHED HOUSE FOR THE FOREST HILLS GARDENS HOMES CO.
ROBERT TAPPAN ARCHITECT FOREST HILLS GARDENS

ATTRACTIVE HOMES

Many Excellent Features of Construction in the New Development

The accompanying illustration shows one of the seven-room semi-detached houses which are being built on Whitson Street, between Puritan and Ascan Avenues, by the Forest Hills Gardens Homes Co., Inc. They will be completed and ready for occupancy shortly after the holidays.

These houses are of the highest type of construction and will be a credit to Forest Hills. The six and seven-room houses are semi-detached with light and air on three sides. Eight-room houses of two floors are on each end of the group. There are six semi-detached six-room houses in the center of the group.

Many unusual and attractive special features are being incorporated in these houses, such as Spencer heaters, the latest model Ruud automatic storage gas water heaters, low radiators under windows throughout; milk and package containers in the rear walls, special garbage cans; ash can lifts; "White House" white enameled steel dressers in kitchen recesses; Linetile rubber and cork composition kitchen floors; built-in bathroom fixtures as well as set-in tubs, vitreous china lavatories and side wall showers; brass hot water pipes, etc. Also copper flashings, gutters and leaders throughout. Other features are expanded metal lath instead of wood, heavy furring nailed into patent wall plugs, with provisions for two inches of air space between outside walls and plastering on metal lath, making the houses watertight, cooler in summer and warmer in winter. They will have metal weather strips and thermostat connection installed; all trim to have Valspar enamel finish above the cellar floor; a large cold storage room under front porch; red tile roofs, etc.

The garages are planned so as to form a solid brick wall in the rear, and to open on the private lane. They will be equipped with running water and be heated.

The "lammie" brick selected for these houses gives a most artistic appearance. As one lady remarked: "These walls have the appearance and charm of an old Oriental rug; so many brick walls look like a Brussels carpet."

The company extends an invitation to its friends to visit the property and inspect the houses.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

At a Republican meeting held in the Station Square on the evening of Oct. 18, the speakers were United States Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., and Samuel J. Joseph, candidate for Secretary of State. S. W. Eckman presided.

The Forest Hills Bulletin

FOREST HILLS, LONG ISLAND

Published fortnightly by

SAGE FOUNDATION HOMES COMPANY
CORD MEYER DEVELOPMENT COMPANY
FOREST HILLS GARDENS HOMES COMPANY
FOREST HILLS INN

Local news notes and other items of interest for publication should reach the Editor of the BULLETIN not later than Tuesday morning of the week of publication.

Dr. Lyman Abbott, A Great Leader

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT, dean of American editors, preacher, religious leader and author, who died at his New York City home, 1184 Lexington Avenue, on Sunday, Oct. 22, preached twice in Forest Hills, once in the Presbyterian Church of Forest Hills and last spring in the Church-in-the-Gardens. Life in this village is much richer because the residents have heard this great exponent of the practical Christian life. A large number of Forest Hills people will attend a memorial meeting to be held at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Oct. 31, at the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, Madison Avenue and Seventy-third Street. Lawrence F. Abbott, Greenway South, is a son of Dr. Abbott and is the president of the company which publishes the Outlook, of which his father had been editor-in-chief for many years.

CELEBRATIONS ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the Celebrations Association of Forest Hills Gardens was held Thursday evening, Oct. 19 in the sales office building with John Messenger, president, in the chair. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Henry Hirschberg, president; Fred Stone, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, second vice-president; T. J. Mitchell, treasurer, and Horace McRobert, Jr., secretary. Mrs. G. W. Cunningham and M. J. Stickel were elected members of the Executive Board. Those whose terms expired this year were re-elected to serve until 1925. The board is now constituted as follows: For term expiring 1923, John M. Demarest, Arthur H. Flint, Horace McRobert, Jr., John Messenger, Mrs. Charles H. Schammell, Mrs. George Smart, M. J. Stickel and Homer Croy. For term expiring 1924, W. W. Bruce, F. B. Colton, Mrs. George A. Douglass, Henry Hirschberg, Mrs. J. S. Maxwell, F. H. J. Paul, Dr. T. T. Sweeny and Judge Charles F. Moore. For term expiring 1925, T. J. Mitchell, Walter D. Teague, Louis P. McGahie, John M. McMillin, J. Gorton Marsh, Scott Robinson, Dr. Ralph W. Waddell and Mrs. G. W. Cunningham.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted. It is published in another column. Votes of thanks were extended to M. J. Stickel for his excellent work as treasurer in trying circumstances; to John Messenger, the retiring president; to Mrs. Donald G. Clark for the efficient manner in which she conducted the children's parade at the last July Fourth Celebration, and to all other chairmen of committees.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter to the Forest Hills Association, thanking the members for the hearty co-operation of the citizens on the north side with those of the south side of the village in the last July Fourth Celebration.

Tentative plans were made for the coming Christmas Eve Celebration.

The treasurer's report will be published in the next BULLETIN.

LAW ENFORCEMENT.

The New York state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, William H. Anderson, will address a mass meeting on the subject "Law Enforcement" in the Church-in-the-Gardens on Sunday evening, Nov. 5 at eight o'clock. Lawrence F. Abbott will preside.

TWENTY-ONE NEW HOUSES

Contracts Awarded by Forest Hills Gardens Homes Co.— High Grade Architecture

The Forest Hills Gardens Homes Co., Inc., has let a contract for the excavations and foundations of twenty-one additional houses on Ascan Avenue and Whitson Street. The group now being constructed on Whitson Street will be duplicated on the opposite side of the street. A new solid group of nine houses will face Ascan Avenue between Ingram and Whitson Streets. When these houses are completed, Whitson Street will be one of the most attractive streets in Forest Hills Gardens.

It must be a source of great satisfaction to the property owners and other residents to know that the Forest Hills Gardens Homes Company is continuing the policy as to high-class construction, architecture, landscape gardening, etc., which has made Forest Hills Gardens such an ideal residential community. Due care will be exercised in the selection of the buyers of these houses.

For the information of the new comers to Forest Hills, it may be well to repeat a little of the history of this new company, as many may not know that it is made up of residents of Forest Hills who have owned their own homes and lived here for many years. The officers are: S. W. Eckman, president; C. H. Scammell, vice-president; B. S. Halsey, treasurer; F. K. Seward, secretary and general counsel. The Board of Directors is composed of the officers named and also Lawrence F. Abbott and Dr. Eugene Christian. Robert Tappan, of the Gardens, has designed the houses now under construction. The plans are being supervised by Grosvenor Atterbury, to whose genius in exterior elevations Forest Hills owes its high reputation as a town where harmony without monotony prevails with enduring beauty everywhere.

PLAYERS' PLANS.

The Gardens Players started rehearsals this week on two programs for early presentation to their subscribing members and friends. Details of one of the performances must remain a secret for another week or two, but the first regular subscription performance which at present is scheduled for the last week in November will bring the Players out in two new plays—a comedy and a melodrama. The comedy is "Enter the Hero" written by Theresa Helburn, the executive director of the New York Theatre Guild. The melodrama is by a new author, Robert Courtney, and has been produced only once before—in Denver, by the same little theatre group that once presented Walter Claypoole's "Garlic," which the Gardens Players gave as its first performance on any stage. The name of Mr. Courtney's play is "The Clock." It is a gripping drama into which the author has worked a supernatural influence of great tenacity.

Of special interest on the first bill of the season will be the recurrence of visiting players with the Forest Hills group. This time the Players will have the honor of entertaining and being entertained by the Fireside Players of White Plains who have already had the Gardens Players as guests on one of their bills presented last spring. The Fireside Players, as plans now stand, will present a charming fantasy, "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil."

SUCCESSFUL REHEARSALS.

Bruno Huhn is having remarkable success with the Choral Club rehearsals every Tuesday evening in the Church-in-the-Gardens and his triumph amply vindicates the judgment of the officers of the club in re-engaging a conductor of the high standing of Mr. Huhn. The program is exceedingly well selected and splendidly conducted. The hearty cooperation of the residents have alike been a striking testimonial of the confidence of the people in the club and in the conductor.

DR. MORTON TO SPEAK HERE AGAIN

Dr. Rosalie S. Morton, who recently addressed the members of the Women's Club, will speak before the members and friends of the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens, in the Social Room, on Monday evening, Nov. 12 at 8:30 o'clock. Her subject will be "The European Situation, Today and Tomorrow" and all residents of the community are invited. Dr. Morton is chairman of the International Serbian Educational Committee.

AUDUBON SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS.

The work of the Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society goes on quietly, as the annual reports printed in the BULLETIN show and meetings are held three and four times a year at the call of the president.

The annual meeting was held on Friday evening, Oct. 13, at the home of Mrs. George Smart, who retired from the presidency after serving three years. After the reports of the officers and committees were given, Fritz Hagens, whose accurate knowledge of birds is equalled only by his love of them, gave a graphically interesting talk on "The Migrating Birds." The warm weather has made an unusually scattered migration and now that the weather is cooler, we can see the migration in larger flocks. Mr. Hagens called attention to some of the new comers among the birds, such as the screech owl, and rejoiced at the owl's coming because he destroys the English sparrow.

The new officers elected were: John B. Reimer, president; Miss Beatrice Wilson, vice-president and Speir Whitaker, secretary-treasurer. This is a group of officers from whom splendid things may be expected.

The society was organized here in 1914 and from the beginning has grown steadily. In 1921 there were 168 members; so far this year, 87 have joined. There are three life members, the fee for which is $25. The annual fee is $1. Even before the organization was started, Miss Mary E. Knevels aroused the interest of the people here in the birds and for eight years has been secretary and treasurer. It has become impossible for her to serve any more and so to express in a small way the gratitude of the people for her labor of love, the society presented her a beautiful pocketbook. Miss Knevels says that the lovely songs of the wood thrush and the hermit thrush in Olivia Park pay her for her work. She rejoices at the many varieties of birds here.

The balance in the treasury is $178.35.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRY J. RIGBY

Mrs. Harry J. Rigby, Burns Street, died on Oct. 17 after a lingering and painful illness. Services were held on Oct. 19 at St. Luke's Episcopal Church with the Rev. W. P. S. Lander officiating and burial took place in the Maple Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. Rigby as Ray Risteen married Harry J. Rigby in Topeka, Kansas, sixteen years ago. They moved to New York City eleven years ago, lived also in Kew Gardens and a year ago moved to Forest Hills. She is survived by her husband, three children, Harry J., Jr., Frances A. and Janice E. and her mother, Mrs. F. N. Risteen, and two sisters who live in the Tennis Place Apartments and a brother, J. W. Risteen, of New York. She was an active member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Kew Gardens Country Club. She was a devoted mother and as such helped to organize and was the first president of the Mothers' Club of Public School 99, in Kew Gardens and had joined the two Mothers' Clubs in Forest Hills. She had a large circle of friends in both villages.

GARDENS PLAYERS HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

The Gardens Tea Room, Tennis Apartments, will be the scene of the annual Halloween party of the Gardens Players, to be held Monday evening, Oct. 30, at nine o'clock. This will be the first opportunity of the season for the new and old members of the Players to get together for one of their informal good times, but attendance is by no means limited to members. A special invitation is extended to the newer residents who may not yet be acquainted with the interesting activities of this organization. Tickets at one dollar each may be obtained from Miss Maude Marren, 26 Greenway Terraces, or at the door.

EPSTEIN LECTURE-RECITALS.

Two of the six lecture-recitals on Wagner's "Ring of the Nibelung" being given at the home of Mrs. Eugene Schoen, 29 Oliver Place, by Herman Epstein, have been heard with great pleasure by a large number.

Mr. Epstein's attractive personality and dignified bearing, his simple but illuminating delivery of the brief introductory talk on Wagner's purposes and philosophy of art, and his beautiful and masterly rendering of the music have won for him instant appreciation from this discriminating audience.

The four remaining recitals are to be given on consecutive Wednesday evenings.

THE INN

The masquerade ball (which ended the informal dances for the season) given on Oct. 14, proved a huge success. The costumes were both unique and pretty. Prizes were carried off by Miss Dorothy Gitters, for wearing the prettiest costume; by Mrs. B. W. Pretlow and C. W. Godwin, for the most unique costumes; and by C. Trant, for the funniest. The judges found the awarding of prizes most difficult, due to the fact that all were attractive.

A dinner dance was given on Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone, of the Gardens, at the Kew-Forest School, for their daughter, Miss Dorothy. The catering was in the hands of the management of Forest Hills Inn, who transformed the gymnasium into a dining-room, and used the large class-room for the ballroom, both rooms being elaborately decorated.

The dancing classes conducted by Miss Eleanor Ranlett are being well attended by the children of the Inn and also of the community. Miss Ranlett is again acting as hostess at the Saturday night dances.

The series of lectures on Psychology given during the past week at the Inn were well attended and proved both interesting and enjoyable.

The usual Hollowe'en dance will be held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31. It is expected an enjoyable evening will be had. Prizes will be awarded and games will be played in keeping with the event. The same charge will be made as for the Saturday evening dances.

Miss Sally Pierce entertained at a birthday dinner on Monday evening, Oct. 16. Covers were laid for fourteen in the sun parlor; the color scheme was pink. The following were her guests:—Mrs. W. M. Shaw and Jas. M. Brodbelt, of Manhattan; Mrs. John Lyford, Miss Ida Boyd, and Mrs. A. M. Ryley, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. John Titus, of Kansas City, Mo.; and Miss Martha Williams, Miss Molly Nutting, Mrs. J. L. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fowler, and Mr. and Mrs. George J. Bermbach, of the Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Kloetzer and son, Curtis, Jr., are making their home at the Inn, awaiting the completion of their new home on Wendover Road. Curtis, Jr., has resumed his studies at the St. Paul School, Garden City.

Miss Elizabeth Burdick has recently returned from Europe, where she gained helpful ideas for the resumption of her millinery business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sewall, with their three sons, have started for England, where they will make their home, much to the regret of their many friends at the Inn.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are Dr. and Mrs. T. B. R. Webster, of Manhattan; Mrs. Harry K. Brown and daughter, Mrs. Brown Lanius and baby, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. M. J. Fuller and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Manhattan; Miss Margarete V. Faral and Miss M. G. Weaver, of Manhattan; Sidney Chubb, of Glen Cove, L. I.; C. W. Leighton and T. M. Fitzpatrick, of Manhattan, the latter a brother of Mrs. R. Fallon, of the Gardens Apartments; Miss Marion Sturges, of Wilton, Conn.; and Mrs. Audley Clarke and daughter, Mrs. Karl Whitmarsh, of Jamestown, R. I., who are paying a short visit to their son and brother, Jerry Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Grattan have returned to the Inn after several months spent abroad. They were welcomed by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson, of Detroit, Mich., have returned to the Inn for the winter.

Mr. Haviland and his daughter, Miss Florence, of Montclair, N. J., are here again for an indefinite period.

Seiver W. Sussmann has returned from a trip to Bermuda. Frank Megargee has returned after a short absence.

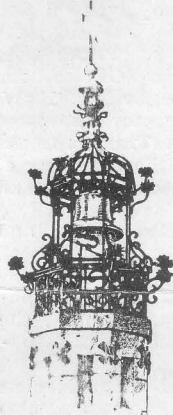

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith, three children and governess, have taken apartments at the Inn. Mr. Smith is president of the Vitagraph Company and of the Pioneer Moving Picture Producers.

Mrs. R. E. Sass has been appointed assistant manager of the Inn, succeeding Miss Ida Prather, who resigned a short time ago, having accepted an offer to return to the Home Lawn, at Martinsville, Ind., as assistant manager and treasurer.

ONE MORE IN THE COLLEGE LIST

Harold A. Burdick of Forest Hills is in his senior year at the University of Maine.

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

An event which will be remembered as one of the bright spots in the history of the community was the farewell reception tendered to Mr. and Mrs. William P. McCulloch Wednesday evening, when their friends gathered in force in the newly decorated social room and enjoyed a delightful program which included two groups of songs exquisitely rendered by Mrs. Carl Ruggles of New York; the description in a humorous way by Raymond P. Kaighn of some of the many phases of the life of the beloved "Mack" in the past ten years; appropriate words of good-bye by Mrs. George H. Merrill, president of the Women's Guild, and the presentation on behalf of the trustees and the Women's Guild of the church by Rev. Dr. David Latshaw of a very beautiful chimes clock. Mr. McCulloch responded in exceedingly happy verses in which he drank—a la Volstead—to the Sage Company, the BULLETIN, the church and all the people of the town. Dr. S. E. Davenport, Jr., president of the board of trustees, presided, and Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh was in charge of the social features. Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch will leave soon for their new home at Princeton, New Jersey, where Mr. McCulloch will be assistant treasurer of the Theological Seminary.

Rev. F. Ernest Johnson, research secretary of the department of industry of the Federation of Churches of Christ in America, will occupy the pulpit tomorrow and Rev. Frank K. Sanders, formerly a professor at Yale and now of New York, will preach on Nov. 5.

NEWS OF THE TOWNSPEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson and daughter, Miss Gertrude, 80 Ascan Avenue, have returned from a delightful visit to the Bermudas.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Henderson have returned from a delightful motor tour of New England.

Mrs. Marie Vollmar, Miss Marguerite Vollmar, Miss Elizabeth Vollmar and Alfred P. Vollmar, Markwood Road, are home after a five months' tour of Germany, Holland, Belgium, France and the British Isles. There is terrible suffering in every country of Europe today, particularly among the people of stated incomes, the worst suffering being in Germany due to the low value of German money and the scarcity of milk for children, were the observations of the Vollmar family.

Mrs. Verner Kline, Fife Street, is visiting friends in Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, of Halifax, N. S., have returned to their home after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. I. W. Bækus, Queens Boulevard.

Mrs. D. Woidemann, of Hollywood, Cal., formerly of Forest Hills, has been visiting her friends in Forest Hills.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NO. 3 MOTHERS BUSY

The meeting of the Mothers' Club of Public School 3 held at the school building on the afternoon of Monday, Oct. 16, was well attended and much enthusiasm was shown over the work of the coming year. Mrs. Hulbert O. Yerkes, the new president, was in the chair. Plans were made for a bridge party which will be held at the Seminole Avenue Club House on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2.

The question of the noon hot luncheon to be served at the school building this coming winter was fully discussed.

It was voted to buy a new silk United States flag for the assembly. It was decided that the busses carrying the children to the public school should pick up passengers at Puritan Avenue as well as other stops.

The forty members who attended the meeting had an opportunity to meet each other in the social hour which followed the business session. Six of the school girls served tea under the direction of Mrs. Frank Wheeler.

TELL THE POLICE

A writer of anonymous letters has greatly annoyed a number of residents during the past week. Anyone so annoyed or having any information which would lead to the detection of the unknown person is urgently requested to report the facts promptly to the police.

COUNT TOLSTOY TO SPEAK

Count Ilya Tolstoy, son of the famous Count Leo Tolstoy, will address the members of the Women's Club on "The Truth About Russia," on Monday afternoon, Nov. 6 at 2 o'clock at the Inn. This program has been arranged by the philanthropic chapter, Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, chairman.

Mrs. W. P. Beazell will review "Vandermark's Folly" by Herbert Quick at the home of Mrs. Ward J. MacNeal, 82 Rockrose Place, on the afternoon of Oct. 31. Mrs. Lydia Small will be assistant hostess.

Mrs. Donald G. Clark will review the plays of Eugene O'Neill at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Longcope, Wendover Road, on the afternoon of Nov. 14. Mrs. K. I. Small will be the assistant hostess. These two reviews are under the auspices of the current readings chapter.

Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson will entertain the members of the philanthropic chapter at her home, 80 Ascan Avenue, on the afternoon of Nov. 15.

FOREST HILLS ASSOCIATION ACTIVE.

The members of the Forest Hills Association hold the annual Hallowe'en witch party on this evening, October 28 in the Masonic Temple. Preparations have been made for a jolly celebration of the event.

Under the auspices of the same association, a series of winter lectures are to be given by the Rev. Albert Sheppard on the history of constitutional government in the United States, national, state and local. These lectures are to be held in the Seminole Avenue Club House on the alternate Friday evenings during the winter months. It is expected that some leading statesmen will assist in the series by delivering lectures on special phases of the subject.

CHURCH SERVICES

Roman Catholic—Sunday mornings at 6:45, 8 and 11 o'clock. Ascan Avenue near Queens Boulevard.

St. Luke's Episcopal—Rev. Wm. P. S. Lander.

Sundays—Holy Communion, 8 A. M., Church School 9:30 A. M. Service and sermon, 11 A. M.

Holy Days—Holy Communion 7:30 A. M.

Church-in-the-Gardens—Sunday services: Sunday School 9:45 A. M.; sermon, 11 A. M.; Christian Endeavor 7:45 P. M.

Presbyterian Church of Forest Hills—Rev. Albert Sheppard, M. A., minister. Church services, Sunday: 10 A. M. Sabbath School; 11 A. M. Public Worship. Wednesday, 8 P. M. Bible Study. Seminole Avenue and Gown Street.

First Church of Christ, Scientist of Forest Hills—Services Sunday at 11 A. M. Sunday School, 9:45 A. M. Wednesday evening at 8:00. Reading room open daily from 2 to 4 P. M., except Sundays and holidays. Masonic Temple.

COMING EVENTS

Monday and Friday, 3 to 5:30 P. M. Library Open—Sales Office.

First and third Tuesday evening of each month, 8 o'clock—Forest Hills Lodge, 946, F. & A. M.—Masonic Temple. Tuesday, 8 P. M.—Choral Club Rehearsal, Church-in-the-Gardens.

Saturday, Oct. 28, 8 P. M.—Hallowe'en Party, Forest Hills Association, Masonic Temple.

Monday, Oct. 30, 9 P. M.—Hallowe'en Party, Gardens Players, Gardens Tea Room.

Tuesday, Oct. 31, 2:30 P. M.—Current Readings Chapter Women's Club, 82 Rockrose Place.

Thursday, Nov. 2, 2 P. M.—Bridge Party, Mothers' Club of Public School 3, Seminole Avenue Club House.

Sunday Evening, Nov. 5, 8 P. M.—Law Enforcement Meeting, Church-in-the-Gardens.

Monday, Nov. 6, 2 P. M.—Women's Club, Inn.

Friday, Nov. 10, 2 P. M.—Women's Guild, Church-in-the-Gardens, 168 Slocum Crescent.

Monday, Nov. 13, 8:30 P. M.—Dr. Morton's Lecture, Women's Guild, Church-in-the-Gardens.

Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2:30 P. M.—Current Readings Chapter Women's Club, Wendover Road and Rockrose Place.

Friday, Nov. 24, 2:30 P. M.—Music Chapter, Women's Club, 250 Greenway South.

Tuesday, Nov. 28, 2:30 P. M.—Current Readings Chapter Women's Club, 250 Greenway South.

Friday, Dec. 8, 8:30 P. M.—Choral Club Recital, Masonic Temple.