

The Forest Hills Bulletin

Forest Hills, Long Island

Vol. 10

Saturday, November 1, 1924

No. 3

BOUNDARY MARKERS PROPOSED

Gardens Corporation Holds Animated Meeting— Directors Elected

THE subject which excited the most interest at the meeting of the Gardens Corporation, held in the Church-in-the-Gardens on Monday evening, Oct. 27, was that of ornamental boundary markers for the Gardens. Judge John R. Davies reported for the markers and called attention to the one which has been erected on Continental Avenue at the southerly end of the property. This pair of markers has been erected at a cost of $2200. It is proposed to erect other markers at 12 other boundary points at a total cost of $17,400.

There was one dissenting voice against the whole proposition, but a resolution was carried almost unanimously to the effect that a series of markers be placed at boundary streets and that each property owner is invited to voluntarily pay an extra tax of four mills to the square foot. Either check or signed subscription shall reach the treasurer by Jan. 1, 1925. If not enough money is subscribed, the markers will not be erected. If more than enough is subscribed, they will be erected and the resurfacing of the streets will take the surplus.

Judge Davies reported confidently, for the four lawyers of the board, that the Gardens Corporation will win the case which Forest Hills Dwellings, Inc., has brought against the corporation because of the corporation's resolution not to permit the building of any more two-family houses in the Gardens.

Dr. William A. Hume reported for the upkeep committee, that it is the desire to resurface all the streets as soon as money is available. A tree expert will work the next two months trimming trees and shrubs and cleaning off parasites.

Credit was given to George Meyer, of the Cord Meyer Development Co., for getting the city to take over the sewage pumping station, thus saving the corporation about $2,500 per year.

Lawrence F. Abbott, president, who was in the chair, gave the report for the architectural committee, that during the last year architectural supervision has been given to 45 houses, 55 garages and 3 alterations. Also that 37 houses have been supervised, somewhat, on the Vanderveer tract.

Horace Hume reported that 319 of the total membership of 475 had signed the four mill per square foot maintenance agreement and that therefore it had become effective.

George Hanavan, treasurer, reported total receipts since Jan. 1, $25,520.98, plus a balance of $6,000 at the beginning of the year, making a total of $31,520.98. Total disbursements have been $24,448. The balance of $7,081.98 must meet bills payable to the extent of $3,969 and the running expenses of the rest of this year.

Dr. Philip G. Cole, Judge John R. Davies and Walter D. Teague were elected directors to succeed themselves, for a period of three years.

In opening the meeting, Mr. Abbott recalled with gratitude, the faithful, invaluable work of Mrs. Herbert P. Green, executive secretary, who is recovering from an operation. He also spoke of the devoted work of Grosvenor Atterbury and his associate, John A. Tompkins.

MEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Members Tell About Their Travels—Needs of the Gardens Considered

THE new and beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wicke, 19 Markwood Road, was thrown open to the Men's Club, Monday, Oct. 20, and about 50 members enjoyed a program of travelogues. Edward H. Mays told about his sojourn of seven months in Japan and gave a highly interesting description of events following the great earthquake. He also told about the home-life of the Japanese, as he had unusual opportunities of going into the homes and seeing how the people live and how they entertain their friends.

Thurlow M. Gordon related some of the experiences of the members of the American Bar Association who attended the London meeting with the British Bar Association last summer. Mr. Gordon spoke particularly of the great historic places of interest in England and of the entertainments that were very graciously provided by the members of the English bar. He also spoke of his visit to France, which included a trip through the once devastated but now rebuilt regions.

Niels F. Holch, who spent last summer in Denmark with his family, delighted the members of the club by his humorous description of experiences in his native land.

In opening the meeting, the president, George Smart, briefly reviewed the history of the club covering the period of the last ten years and then spoke in part as follows:

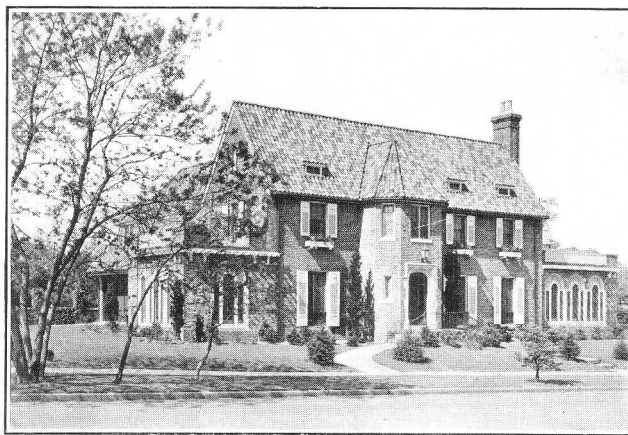

"In one of the early issues of the BULLETIN, a prominent member of the club solemnly proclaimed that the club should never be serious. I think we can safely say that the club has not been too serious, for there has been an abundance of good fellowship and genuine hospitality, but I am wondering whether we have not been a bit selfish and I believe that in view of the changing character of the village it is timely to inquire whether Forest Hills Gardens is departing from its original ideals, and if so whether the Men's Club can do anything to retard the change and re-establish the old ideals."

Mr. Smart referred to the failure to hold non-partisan meetings to which candidates for office were formerly invited; to the failure to protect bird life; to the crowding of the schools; to the deplorable failure to enforce laws; to the inadequate equipment of the library and to the untidiness of parts of the village. He highly commended the Gardens Corporation, Women's Club, Forest Hills Association and other organizations and announced that, unless there was objection, he would appoint two new committees, one on revision of the constitution and the other on civic activities.

The president has since appointed the following committees, which met at his home Friday evening, Oct. 31:

Constitution: E. H. Mays, John F. Byrnes, H. P. Daniels, John R. Davies, L. B. Stowe.

Civic Activities: Gardner Osborn, Dr. Lee Galloway, T. M. Gordon, R. Dawson Hall, Henry Hof, Horace Hume, John Allen King, Rev. W. P. S. Lander, Dr. Ward J. MacNeal, J. Gorton Marsh, C. G. Nichols, George H. Fahys, Jr., L. D. Speir, Rev. C. E. Silcox, Wm. J. Welsh, Spier Whitaker, E. B. Wilson, George H. Wicke, J. B. Reimer.

The Home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wicke and Family
19 Markwood Road

The Forest Hills Bulletin

FOREST HILLS, LONG ISLAND

Published fortnightly by

SAGE FOUNDATION HOMES COMPANY

CORD MEYER DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

FOREST HILLS GARDENS HOMES COMPANY

FOREST HILLS INN

WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

THE following letter explains itself and is pertinent to certain prevailing conditions in Forest Hills. Hence we print it in full:

8730 113TH STREET—RICHMOND HILL, N. Y.
Oct. 17, 1924.

To the Editor,
FOREST HILLS BULLETIN:

I read with interest your editorial in the October 4th issue of the BULLETIN entitled "Who Is Careless?"

I am particularly interested in this, because on passing through Seasingood Road I noticed that someone had dumped a considerable amount of debris on my property, which adjoins the house on the corner of Ascan Avenue.

I never gave anyone permission to do so and I do not believe that I should be expected to clean this up, but I am in hearty sympathy with the work of your Women's Club through the Civic Committee. I question the right of anybody to dispose of this debris on my property, and I believe it is a subject for your committee to investigate.

I am not a resident of Forest Hills, but my interest as a property owner is in sympathy with your campaign.

FRED. J. WILLOCK.

CHURCH CANVASS ALMOST ASSURED

The BULLETIN of Sept. 13 carried an editorial encouraging a Church Canvass of Forest Hills and Kew Gardens. It is very gratifying to report that following the publication of that editorial, Reverends C. E. Silcox, of the Church-in-the-Gardens; W. P. S. Lander, of St. Luke's and Albert Sheppard, First Presbyterian Church, have held conferences and have negotiated with the New York Federation of Churches, which is prepared to conduct canvasses in any community. It is very likely that these three church organizations will approve the plan and that soon the canvass will be carried on here by the organization so competent to do it.

HALLORAN-BROWN WEDDING

Miss Anna Marguerite Halloran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Halloran, 15 Greenway South, was married to Harold Edwin Brown, of Freeport, L. I., on the evening of Oct. 25, at the home of her parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Silcox, of the Church-in-the-Gardens. The autumnal color scheme made a beautiful decoration for the home.

After a month to be spent in California, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Kew Gardens Terrace. Mr. Brown is a practicing attorney in Brooklyn.

MR. ABBOTT EDITS BUTT'S LETTERS

Lawrence F. Abbott, president of the Gardens Corporation, is the editor of "The Letters of Archie Butt," recently published by Doubleday, Page & Co. The reviewers all praise the letters as a real contribution to the literature about Theodore Roosevelt, many-sided and dynamic personality, and they heartily approve of Mr. Abbott as the editor.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Forest Hills Association held a most successful Hallowe'en Party last night at the Masonic Temple. The next BULLETIN will carry a report of this party and a story of the plans of the association for the coming year.

FOR WHAT DOES THE CHORAL CLUB STAND?

Mrs. Charles H. Scammell has had many requests from the new residents to know just what the Forest Hills Choral Club is and for what it stands. She has prepared a syllabus, which appears below, answering all the possible questions except two. These are the dues, which are $10 for active members and $5 for associate members, and the other omission is the time and place of meeting—every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Social Room of the Church-in-the-Gardens. Since next Tuesday night is election night, the next rehearsal is a special one, to take the place of the regular one, and will be held at the home of Judge George H. Boyce, 62 Greenway Terraces, Monday night, Nov. 3, 8 o'clock.

If there is any other question about the Choral Club which the syllabus does not answer, please inquire of Mrs. Scammell, the president, whose hospitable home is at 14 Greenway Terraces.

F—For the singers in the community,
O—Only musical club in town.
R—Recognition of musical elements.
E—Education in choral work.
S—Standardizes musical interest,
T—Talent, ability and cultivation.

H—Harmony of spirit and work.
I—Inspiring
L—Lovers of musical art.
L—Local stimulating club
S—Supported by associate members.

C—Concentrated and concerted efforts.
H—Higher standard of musicianship.
O—Organization that is progressive.
R—Represents advancement musically.
A—Advantageous to community.
L—League of worthy talent.

C—Contribution of voices.
L—Loyal students and artists.
U—Unique opportunity to sing ensemble.
B—Become identified musically. —K.P.S.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Milton Knowles, formerly of Forest Hills, are now at home to their friends at 15 West 11th Street, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sarkisian, of Jewel Street, spent the week-end in Westchester County.

Mrs. M. Margaret Taylor, of Guilford, a suburb of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irving K. Ward, of Borage Place, for the winter.

Mrs. Carl C. Joys, Burns Street, has been entertaining Mrs. Ralph Hartley, Mrs. Harry Cook and Mrs. Morgan Davies, all of Oshkosh, Wis. Mrs. Hartley is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Joys.

Within a few days the George H. Merrill family will be out of quarantine, having had this enforced seclusion for six weeks, due to scarlet fever, from which William and George Ogden suffered.

Mrs. Herbert P. Green has been convalescing at her home on Burns Street, for a number of days. Her many friends are rejoicing over her recovery.

Louis D. Speir, Shorthill Road, is away on a vacation which he is enjoying at Warren Springs, Va.

Mrs. B. B. Kendrick, Greensboro, N. C., formerly of 205 Puritan Avenue, has been in town for a few days. She and her sister have been negotiating the sale of their house in the Gardens.

Mrs. George Smart is giving historical impersonations this month before the Meriden, Conn., D. A. R.; Faculty Club, Ohio State University, Columbus; Descendants of the Mayflower, Cincinnati, and Church-of-the-Covenant, Cincinnati.

SUNDAY NIGHT MUSICALES

Every Sunday night, at 8 o'clock, a very fine musicale is given at Forest Hills Inn, under the direction of Charles Prescott Poore. All residents of Forest Hills, as well as guests of the Inn, are cordially invited to enjoy these excellent concerts.

MISS REPPLIER TO SPEAK

Fashion Show in December—Mrs. A. J. Wilson Heads Philanthropic Work.

Miss Agnes Repplier will speak on the subject, "What It Means to be Civilized," at the meeting of the Women's Club, Monday, Nov. 3, 2 p. m., at the Forest Hills Inn. This is library day at the club and it is appropriate that this famous author and essayist should be the speaker. There will be a surprise feature for the meeting. Also Frederick Wheeler, a baritone, whose voice is rich and well trained, will sing two groups of songs. Mr. Wheeler sang at the Inn last Sunday night to a delighted audience.

Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson has accepted the chairmanship of the philanthropic chapter and plans to concentrate the work in an effort to help the Jamaica Day Nursery, a most deserving institution. The philanthropic chapter will meet at Mrs. Wilson's home 80 Ascan Avenue, Nov. 19, 3 p. m.

Mrs. William A. Hume, chairman of the civic committee, announces that Mrs. E. H. Pierce will be chairman of the school work of the committee, in the place of Mrs. Virgil Miller and that Mrs. Otto L. Grever will be chairman of food store inspection.

The current readings chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. M. J. Dannatt, 73 Greenway Terraces, on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 2:30 p. m., when Mrs. William E. Woodard will review "Ariel," (Life of Shelley), by André Maurois. Miss Rose Terry will be assistant hostess.

At the December meeting of the club, a fashion show will be put on by Best & Co., free of charge, and the money, which is usually spent for a speaker, will probably be devoted to charity.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

The annual meeting of the Altar Guild will take place after the 10 o'clock service on All Saints' Day, Nov. 1.

On All Souls' Day, Nov. 3, there will be a Requiem celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 and 10 a. m.

The turkey dinner of the Women's Guild will be held in the Guild Hall on Thursday, Nov. 13. The tickets are limited to 300, at $1.50 each. It is advisable to purchase tickets immediately, since over 50 people were disappointed last year by waiting too long.

The Annual Fair of the Women's Guild will take place on Dec. 4 and 5, just in time to do Christmas shopping at home in comfort.

The Confirmation classes for children meet on Thursdays at 4:30 p. m.; for adults on Tuesdays, with the exception of election day, at 8 p. m.

On Thursday, Oct. 23, a conference for boys was held in the Guild Hall, preceded by a service and supper. Some 50 boys of high school age were present representing some ten parishes. The Rev. B. I. Bell, D.D., president of St. Stephen's College, addressed the meeting on the subject of the ministry as a vocation.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD APPEAL

Mrs. Fred Gretsche, 37 Shorthill Road, has for six years been director of the Needlework Guild, Section 40, and is now making the annual appeal in this vicinity for this very deserving charity. Both money and new garments, towels, sheets, pillowslips, etc., are wanted. The money and garments should reach Mrs. Gretsche by 9 o'clock, Monday, Nov. 3.

Forest Hills has nobly responded to this appeal in former years. Mrs. Gretsche has been able to turn over to the national organization from 500 to 1,000 garments and $150 in money each of the last six years. The friends of the Needlework Guild are urged to support the work in the same splendid manner this year.

NEW BOOK CASE

Through the generosity of Mrs. E. C. Ketcham, the Forest Hills Station of the Queens Borough Public Library has another book case. This very much needed article of furniture fills a long felt want and the community is indebted to Mrs. Ketcham.

Judge Charles F. Moore has presented the library an inscribed copy of his book, "One Thing and Another." This book of essays has had a wide circulation and makes most enjoyable reading because of the judge's subtle humor and it also strikes at the realities of life. Recently a resident of the Gardens purchased 12 copies and had them handsomely bound for distribution among his friends.

THE INN

Mrs. Aspinwall Goodrich has returned from a three-weeks' sojourn at Brentwood, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson have arrived from their home in Detroit to remain until Jan. 1, when they will go South.

F. A. Dudley, who recently returned from a business trip to Florida, joined his family at the Inn for the week-end.

Among recent stage celebrities who have stayed at the Inn has been Johnny Burke, the vaudevillian, who is now playing in the Music Box Revue.

Andre Gide, who has been spending the past spring and summer at the Inn, sailed on the Olympic on Saturday for France to rejoin his family. They will return to the Inn in January.

The Big Sisters of Queens Borough will hold a benefit bridge on Monday evening, Nov. 3, in the ball-room of the Inn.

Miss Mary M. McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McVey, of Richmond Hill, was married Oct. 22, to Alfred J. Jollon, of Brooklyn. The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Reverend Henry McFall in the Church of Saint Benedict, Richmond Hill. Father McFall came specially from Philadelphia to officiate at this wedding. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth McVey, as maid of honor, and Miss Grace Selle and Miss Pauline Keyes, as bridesmaids. Julian Jollon, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were: Ambrose J. Keyes, John McQuade, H. Clay Cotter and George J. McVey. The bride's wedding gown was of ivory satin trimmed with real Princess lace and the veil, which was also of Princess lace, fell in graceful folds over her court train. The bride's attendants were gowned in yellow chiffon hand-painted in pastel shades of Autumn. They carried large bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums. The wedding party of about 150 guests came directly from the church to the Inn, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served in the sun parlor and ball-room. After the breakfast, the guests danced until the late afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Jollon left for an extended wedding trip through Cuba and the Canal Zone. Mr. Jollon is a prominent lawyer practising in New York. Upon the completion of the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Jollon will live in Kew Gardens in a new home which they have already furnished.

The ball-room of the Inn will be the scene of a rather attractive ball Saturday evening, Nov. 1, in celebration of the Halloween festivities. Guests are kindly requested to come in costume. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Miss Eleanor Stone Ranlett, hostess of the Saturday night dances at the Inn, will be glad to confer with those who may be interested in the formation of a supper club which will meet once a month on Saturday evening to dine and dance at the Inn. Residents of the Gardens are urged to join.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson D. Miller spent the week-end on a motor trip to Bear Mountain.

Among the recent arrivals are: Mrs. Charles J. Rogers, Mrs. Anna M. Rogers, Mrs. John McFadden, and Mrs. H. McFall, all of Philadelphia; Owen Rossiter, of Boston; William Farrell, of Chicago; Edward J. Snyder, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer J. Brown, Freeport; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Halloran, Mr. and Mrs. M. Halloran and Mrs. Judson Meyer, all of Ramsey, N. J.; Herbert Strong, East Orange, N. J.; Harry A. Chandler, New York, and D. O. Hill, Chicago.

CHURCH OF OUR LADY—QUEEN OF MARTYRS

It might be of interest to the readers of the BULLETIN to know that all the square block bounded by Ascan Avenue, Austin Street, Portsmouth Place and Queens Boulevard (with the exception of the lots belonging to the three houses now occupied by their owners), is now the property of the church and with the exception of a few thousand dollars, is free and clear of debt. The erection of the new church and school will occupy the attention of the pastor in the very near future, as the present edifice is entirely inadequate to accommodate the congregations, especially at the late Masses. The energetic pastor of the Church of Our Lady—Queen of Martyrs is Rev. Jos. McLaughlin.

CHURCH - IN - THE - GARDENS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

At the Junior Church tomorrow morning, the choir will sing Barnby's "O Lord, How Amiable." The special offering will be given to the work of the Gideons, the organization of Christian traveling men, which places Bibles in the guest-rooms of hotels throughout the country. At the 11 o'clock service, the musical numbers will be:

"Andante Cantabile," organ, Tschai-kowsky; "I Will Lay Me Down," soprano solo, Dudley Buck; "Awake Up, My Glory," anthem, Chadwick; "Marche Russe," organ, Schminke.

On Monday evening, Nov. 3, a "Fotograf Album and Birthday Party" will be given by the special committee of the Women's Guild, of which Mrs. Henry Hof is the chairman. All are urged to send or bring juvenile photographs of themselves which will be thrown on a screen for identification by the audience.

These photographs will undoubtedly shed a great deal of light on some of the prominent people of Forest Hills, and Gardner Osborn has volunteered to throw further light on the photographs. The reflectoscope used will be provided by A. K. Hanks. A little play is to be given under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Brett Kieffer, in which the following children are expected to take part: Victor Luneborg, Henry Hof, William Brett Kieffer, Robert Luneborg, David Enquist, Kathleen Kieffer, Alice Eckman, Katherine Hof, Sue Stickel, Dorothy Clark, Corinne Greene, Mona Hasselriis.

The discussion group on "Christianity and Race Relations" meets every Wednesday evening in the social room at 8 o'clock. The special topics to be considered the next two weeks are: Nov. 5: "The Wandering Jew" (the Jewish problem), and Nov. 12: "The Hands of Ethiopia" (the Negro problem). The attendance at these gatherings reveals a growing interest.

The Junior Choir held a Hallowe'en party yesterday, which was given for the members by the director, Mrs. Alexander Greene. The regular members of the choir are: Virginia Chalmers, Elizabeth Chaney, Dorothy Clark, Margaret Clymer, William Clymer, Elizabeth De Forest, Alice Eckman, David Enquist, Corinne Greene, Natalie Green, Mildred Hampton, Mona Hasselriis, Katherine Hof, Henry Hof, Betty Ives, Ellen Luneborg, Robert Luneborg, Victor Luneborg, Vincent Kreamer, Betty Mitchell, Jane Mays, Judith Mays, Barbara Merrill, Betty Pope, Elizabeth Russum, Jean Schmolze, Robert Schmolze, Audrey Silcox, Sue Stickel, Betty Welsh, Dorothy Wicke, Henry Lee Willson, Harriet Woodard, Marburg Yerkes. In addition, there are some 10 or 12 substitutes on the waiting list.

COMING EVENTS

- Monday, 3 to 5:30 p. m.—Library open. Sales office. At the head of the Green.
- Friday, 3 to 6 p. m.—Library open. Sales office.
- First Monday of Each Month, 8 p. m.—Forest Hills Post, American Legion, Forest Hills Inn.
- First and third Tuesday evenings of each month, 8 o'clock—Forest Hills Lodge, 946, F. & A. M. Masonic Temple.
- Tuesday evening, 8 p. m.—Rehearsal of Forest Hills Choral Club, Social Room, Church-in-the-Gardens.
- Monday, Nov. 3, 2 p. m.—Women's Club, Forest Hills Inn.
- Monday, Nov. 3, 7:30 p. m.—Election Party, Sunday School, Presbyterian Church.
- Monday, Nov. 3, 8 p. m.—Special Choral Club Rehearsal, 62 Greenway Terraces.
- Monday, Nov. 3, 8 p. m.—Birthday Party, Women's Guild, Church-in-the-Gardens, Social Room.
- Tuesday, Nov. 11, 2:30 p. m.—Current Readings Chapter, Women's Club, 73 Greenway Terraces.
- Thursday, Nov. 13, 6:30 p. m.—Turkey Dinner, St. Luke's Women's Guild, Guild Hall.
- Wednesday, Nov. 19, 3 p. m.—Philanthropic Chapter, Women's Club, 80 Ascan Avenue.
- Monday, Dec. 1, 2 p. m.—Women's Club, Forest Hills Inn.
- Thursday and Friday, Dec. 4 and 5—Annual Fair, St. Luke's Women's Guild.
- Friday, Jan. 23, 8:30 p. m.—Program—Benefit of Community House, Church-in-the-Gardens.

The pupils of the Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church are inviting their parents and friends to attend an "Election Party," to be held in the Sunday School rooms of the church on Monday evening, Nov. 3, at 7:30 o'clock. Each class in the school elected a delegate to the nominating convention, and the selections were unanimously accepted by the school. Miss Gertrude Cantrell is the nominee for president on the Democratic ticket; Master Carleton Endemann is the nominee of the Republican party; Miss Grace Clinchy stands for the Progressive party, and Robert Millen expects to gain the presidency on the Socialist ticket. Each of the candidates will present platforms and reasons for election next Monday night. In the meantime, the respective parties are working most assiduously for the success of their candidates. At the conclusion of the speeches, the pupils will vote in the approved fashion, and will then anticipate March 4 for inauguration ceremonies. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the entertainment.

Albert Sheppard, minister of the church, announces for his general subject during November, "Things That Matter Most." Next Sunday morning he will speak to the topic "Creed and Character." For the second Sunday of the month he will speak on "Life's Strength and Safety."

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church (Mrs. S. Canaday, president) held its usual monthly meeting on Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Albert Sheppard, Seminole Avenue.

Forest Hills Boy Scouts, Troop No. 1, meets each Friday evening at 7:30, in the Social Rooms of the First Presbyterian Church. Last Friday evening, P. D. Wright, chairman of the civic committee of the Forest Hills Association, addressed the Scouts, and offered prizes to the boys who produce the finest bird boxes for the care and protection of our wild birds. After the business of the evening, the troop held "Stunt Night." The scout master of the troop is George Springsteen.

The Forest Hills Troop of Girl Scouts held the first fall meeting yesterday afternoon in the Social Rooms of the Presbyterian Church. One of the officers from headquarters in Richmond Hill has charge of the troop until a local captain can be appointed.

C. Van Buren, vice-president of the Gideon Society for the State of New York, addressed the Sunday School of the Church-in-the-Gardens and the service at the Presbyterian Church on the significant work of the Christian traveling men of the country, who are placing Bibles in the guest rooms of hotels of the United States and Canada. A liberal offering was raised in the Presbyterian Church to assist in carrying on this work.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Van Buren, Mrs. Alexander Greene and Rev. Albert Sheppard assisted in the dedication ceremony at the Forest Hills Inn, where 100 Bibles have been placed by the Gideons for the guest rooms. The Inn is the first hotel on Long Island to be so honored.

CHURCH SERVICES

- PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF FOREST HILLS—Rev. Albert Sheppard, M.A., minister. Church services: Sunday, 10 a. m. Bible School, 11 a. m. public worship. Seminole Avenue and Gown Street.
- FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, OF FOREST HILLS—Services Sunday at 11 a. m.; Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.; Wednesday evening at 8. Reading room open daily, except Sundays and holidays, from 2 to 4 p. m. Masonic Temple.
- ROMAN CATHOLIC—Masses at the Church of Our Lady—Queen of Martyrs, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 a. m. Sundays. Rosary and Benediction, Sunday 4 p. m. Classes in Bible history meet in the Rectory directly after the 9 o'clock Mass. Catechetical instruction for the younger children at 3:30 p. m. Mondays. Devotions followed by Benediction on Fridays, 8 p. m. Ascan Avenue, near Queens Boulevard.
- ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL—Rev. William P. S. Lander. Sunday—Holy Communion, 8 a. m.; Matins, 10:45 a. m.; Eucharist and Address at 11 a. m.; Evensong, 5 p. m. Greenway South, near Cranford Street.
- CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS—Rev. C. E. Silcox, minister—Sunday services: Church School, 9:30 a. m.; sermon, 11 a. m. Wednesday, 8 p. m.—Discussion group meets to consider race problems. Corner Greenway North and Ascan Avenue.