TRUTH ABOUT RUSSIA

Son of Count Leo Tolstoy Describes the Failure of Bolshevism

So strongly resembling his father, Count Leo Tolstoy, that one wished that he wore a smock instead of conventional clothes, Count Ilya Tolstoy spoke before the Women's Club, on Monday afternoon, Nov. 6, at the Inn. His subject was "The Truth About Russia." After being introduced by Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, chairman of the philanthropic chapter, the speaker launched into his subject with well chosen, logical English which brought conviction that the "Bolsheviki are morally and financially bankrupt." He paid his respects to Mrs. Clare Sheridan and H. G. Wells for their inaccurate reports of the conditions in Russia. He told that he had lived 53 years in Russia. He traced the Russian civilization from the sixth century. "Bolshevism is the result of war and autocracy" he said.

Among the Bolsheviki are leaders and the mob. He called Lenin an honest dreamer, Trotzsky an adventurer and the present minister of education an insincere man. The mob following these leaders, it was shown, is the lowest class. The workers of Russia are uneducated, have no homes or property and Bolshevism kills the incentive to work. The French Revolution had ideals of liberty, fraternity and equality. "Russia now has equality in misery and the methods and men of the Czar are being employed. Bolshevism can not continue, for the dream has become a nightmare and Russia will have a government of, by and for the people."

"The Senior Toystoy, my father, was the 'autocrat of the universal mind,' a great moralist and a real Christian and would have been opposed to Bolshevism because he preached love and lived according to the Golden Rule," were the conclusions of the speaker.

An officer of the League of Women Voters outlined the work of the league in giving information about the candidates. "Intelligence plus conscience brings a good citizenship," she said.

Mrs. Virgil W. Miller reported for the civic committee, saying that prizes will be given to children for helping in keeping the town tidy. She suggested use of paper bags in putting out rubbish and paper for collection.

Mrs. E. M. Guyon reported on the recent State Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Louis D. Speir for the City Federation.

The new members announced by Mrs. John A. McFarlan are: Mrs. Walter Adair, Mrs. Ralph Bates, Mrs. Cecile Behrens, Mrs. George Boyce, Mrs. F. L. Bisbee, Mrs. M. J. Dannatt, Mrs. Arthur W. Drake, Mrs. Clarence Dauphinot, Mrs. George A. Eaton, Mrs. G. C. Gittere, Mrs. Robert Greig, Mrs. Henry Grupe, Mrs. H. Reed Harrison, Mrs. W. Alton Jones, Mrs. Frederick Kiendl, Mrs. J. A. Kienle, Mrs. Margaret Knapp, Mrs. R. W. Lillie, Mrs. Henry Midgley, Mrs. E. H. Pierce, Mrs. Arthur N. Penn, Mrs. Glenn Rolley, Mrs. Eugene Schoen, Mrs. Harrison P. Shedd, Miss Irma Simons, Mrs. M. J. Stickel, Miss Mary E. Taylor and Mrs. George W. Wicke.

The current readings chapter will hear Mrs. Donald G. Clark review the plays of Eugene O'Neill on the afternoon of Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Longcope, Wendover Road, with Mrs. K. I. Small assisting. The philanthropic chapter will meet on the afternoon of Nov. 15 at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, 80 Ascan Avenue.

THE LIBRARY STATION

The Forest Hills Library Station, of the Queens Borough Public Library, is open Mondays and Fridays, from 3:00 to 5:30 P. M. Miss Florence Loper is in charge.

ADVANTAGES OF MEMBERSHIP

The Forest Hills Association throws its membership open to all families who live in the Cord Meyer Development Company's side of the town. There is a possible membership today of 264 families, while as a matter of fact 125 belong. The dues are $25 per year.

The members of the association are entitled to much. The Seminole Avenue Club House—a bungalow type of building, with a large living or club room with an open fire place, two dressing rooms and kitchen—is at the disposal of members. There is a care-taker who could serve afternoon tea, if the members wished it. Near the Club House are well-kept tennis courts, a miniature golf course with 18 holes—to be used for putting—and a place for driving with two long driving opportunities. There is a hill for coasting in the winter and a pond for skating. The fringe of wild cherry trees in the grounds is an attractive feature.

The celebrations of July Fourth, Christmas, Hallowe'en and other special features, as well as lecture courses are free to members.

The association works for the community in a civic way as well as in plans for the recreation and entertainment of the members. The officers are: W. C. Mayer, president; George W. Watson, Jr., vice-president; Robert Turner, secretary, and Jac Auer, treasurer.

HERE'S TO THE McCULLOCHS!

NINE years ago, William P. McCulloch and his family moved into the comfortable home on Rockrose Place, which they have occupied ever since. This last week they have moved to Princeton, New Jersey, where Mr. McCulloch becomes acting treasurer of the Theological Seminary. As a news item, this has some significance, but there is something deeper and finer in it than news. For many years as Boy Scout leader and secretary of the Boy Scout committee, as an officer of the Men's Club, a member of the Soldiers' Memorial Committee, associate chairman of the anti-mosquito committee, this quiet, reliable, dependable gentleman has filled an enviable place. In the Church-in-the-Gardens as financial secretary, deacon, Church School teacher, his service has been so great that his place can not soon be filled. Every worthy appeal for funds in the community, every call for service has found him ready to respond.

In Forest Hills there are 668 families, not counting those in the Inn and in the Apartments. If the same community spirit prevailed in every home as has been found in the McCulloch home, what a wonderful place this would be! Every civic enterprise and every civic need would find a whole hearted hundred percent response and this would be the ideal village which all of us want it to be.

NEWS OF THE TOWNSPEOPLE

Professor Bruno Roselli, head of the department of Italian Literature, at Vassar, spoke at the Men's Forum of the Union Congregational Church, Richmond Hill, Oct. 29, and was the guest of John B. Reimer, Greenway North and Rockrose Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knight and family, Greenway South, have returned from a delightful visit in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman E. Stowe, Greenway South and Union Turnpike, are home after a pleasant trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Verner Kline, Fife Street, have returned home, having enjoyed an extended vacation in Tennessee.

Mrs. A. M. Gray and daughter, Betty, Slocum Crescent, are enthusiastic over their recent visit in Boston and Cambridge.

The family of Everard C. Stokes and his mother and sister, Greenway North, have returned from England.

ELECTION RETURNS

A large crowd of Masons and their friends attended the Temple on election night to receive the returns. The local radio manufacturers, of which Fred Dede and James Millen are the leading members, very kindly installed the equipment and managed the event.

The recent highly successful smoker held by the Masons of Forest Hills has stimulated them to further endeavors. Plans are afoot to stage a Minstrel Show some time in the near future and the prospects are for something very entertaining.

SINGERS REHEARSE WEEKLY

The Forest Hills Choral Club is rehearsing diligently every Tuesday evening in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens, getting ready for the attractive program which will be offered to the friends of the club on Friday evening, Dec. 8, for that is the date of the program to be given in the Masonic Temple. Beside the choral numbers, there will be three assisting artists. Mrs. Edwin Bird Wilson will sing a group of songs and two other artists whose names will be announced in the next BULLETIN will assist. After the program, Taylor's Orchestra will furnish the music for the dance which will take place as is the custom at the Choral Club concerts. Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, president, is preparing a souvenir program similar to the ones furnished last year and which proved such acceptable keep-sakes.

Due to the pressure of business and necessity of being out of town frequently, Donald G. Clark resigned as secretary of the club after filling that office since the organization and G. H. Boyce, 62 Greenway Terrace, has been elected to fill the office.

The following list of names of those who have become identified with the club as active or associate members speaks for itself.

FOOD STORE PRIZES AWARDED

The civic committee of the Women's Club is untiring under the leadership of Mrs. Virgil W. Miller. Mrs. Harper H. (2) The stores are generally improving and there is evidence that they are trying to conform to the standards of the committee. (3) The best kept grocery store is the Forest Hills Grocery. (4) The best kept soda fountains are those of Pryor and the Chemist Shop. (5) The best kept market is the Forest Hills Market. The Austin Court is model, but has not been in operation long enough to be considered eligible for the award at this time. (7) Letters are being sent to each proprietor telling him on what points inspectors base their estimates and what criticism was offered in the committee meeting on his store.

THE PLAYERS BUSY

Hallowe'en Party—Theatre Party—Membership Drive is Going On

The Hallowe'en Dance which the Gardens Players held Monday, Oct. 30, for their members and guests was one of those delightfully informal affairs where everyone had an opportunity to meet and dance with everyone else.

Early in the evening, there was a cotillion, under the direction of Mrs. Donald G. Clark, chairman of the entertainment committee, with many pretty and appropriate favors as the means of introduction to those who were not so well acquainted.

The Gardens Tea Room of the Tennis Place Apartments proved a delightful setting for a party of this sort, its attractive decorations supplemented by Hallowe'en lanterns and streamers and the suggestion is already under consideration by the management of the Tea Room for a series of dances there during the winter under the Tea Room management.

On last Monday night, thirty-five members of the Gardens Players went to the Princess Theatre in a body to witness a performance of the interesting and unusual new play, now being so widely discussed, "Six Characters in Search of an Author," which is being presented under the management of Brock Pemberton.

This is the second theatre party this year which the Players have gotten together, and its success was such that plans are now under way to make these pilgrimages more or less regular affairs. It will probably be found possible frequently to make arrangements for tickets at reduced rates, as was the case Monday through the courtesy of Mr. Pemberton, and in this event a new privilege accrues to membership in the Players.

Under the direction of its chairman, James H. Cassidy, of Ascan Avenue, the membership committee of the Gardens Players is now busy bringing to everyone in the community the advantages and the interesting features of membership in this thoroughly established organization. It is not yet possible to publish the complete plans for the season, but this much can be said, that those who become regularly subscribing members will gain over those who wait until the time of the performances to obtain their tickets.

Those who have not already joined are cordially asked to get in touch with Mr. Cassidy or with Miss Mary E. Taylor, secretary, who may be found at the Flower Shop during the day.

THE INN
