YEAR'S WORK REVIEWED

Local Problems Met and Many Solved by Committees of the Community Council.

A number of very important questions to residents of Forest Hills were discussed at the last meeting of the Community Council.

Announcement was made that since the water bills for the period covering May 1 to Nov. 1, as sent out by the Citizens' Water Supply Co., were figured at 50% increase instead of 25% as promised, and since an injunction restraining the company from putting this rate into effect is now awaiting decision by the court, the Executive Secretary of the City Parliament of Community Councils advised consumers to delay payment until decision shall be announced by the court. The water bills as sent out to consumers contained the notice that "all bills are payable on or before 15 days from date" and that if unpaid by Dec. 15 the company reserved the right to turn off the water supply after giving 24 hours notice. A representative of the company, however, at a conference held before Assistant Corporation Counsel James Devery stated that no attempt would be made by the Citizens' company to turn off the water supply if bills were not paid by that date, and that the company did not intend to print such notice or convey such impression. It was an error that "just crept in."

Another subject discussed was the garbage dump in Flushing Meadows. The City Parliament of Community Councils has taken up the cudgel against this nuisance and formal complaint was made to Assistant District Attorney Bell of Queens County at a mass meeting in Newtown High School on Nov. 7. Mr. Bell promises to start some action in the matter at once.

Announcement was made that there is to be a fire house built at the corner of Ascan Ave. and Queens Boulevard. This will afford more adequate fire protection than Forest Hills has heretofore had.

The committee on soldiers' memorial reported that they had found it necessary to replace dying conifers around the beautiful memorial tablet in Flaggpole Green. They paid for these shrubs with the $35. left in their treasury after paying all expenses of the monument.

The school committee said that every effort is being made to influence the Board of Estimate to buy the site for the new school building. A delegation from Forest Hills appeared before the board last Friday only to have action on the matter postponed for another two weeks.

There was considerable discussion about the insufficient number of cars on the Long Island trains and the need of shuttle service between Forest Hills and Penn Station. Complaint was made of the continued poor telephone service.

There was much discussion about automobile speeding within the village. Need of police restraint in this regard was freely expressed and the committee on public safety was asked to agitate the matter of street signs, especially on school streets. Tradesmen were asked to caution their drivers against reckless driving on school streets where children crowd after school hours.

MRS. H. P. GREEN,
Secretary.

CHORAL CLUB CONCERT

Rehearsals are being diligently conducted for the concert of the Forest Hills Choral Club which will be held on the evening of Dec. 9, at 8:15, in the Masonic Temple. The officers have spared no expense in making the concert a success both musically and socially. Miss Anna Welsh, the well known harpist, of New York, and John Palmer, impersonator and comedian, will assist on the program. There are 75 singers in the club. Bruno Huhn is the con-

HOME OF FRED STONE

The above is the home of Fred Stone, on Olive Place, forming part of the successful scheme on this interesting street.

The exterior is of Lammie brick and red tile roof. The interior contains nine rooms and three baths and at the rear of the lot is a garage.

The house is from the designs of Grosvenor Atterbury and was built under the supervision of the Homes Company.

Fred Stone will long be remembered by the children for his entertainment in Station Square on the Fourth of July.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

Since the announcement, a short time ago, of the par auction tournament to be held on the evening of Dec. 8 at Mrs. H. W. Hardinge's home, 75 Greenway South, for the benefit of the American Committee for Devastated France, requests for reservations have been so many and the affair has assumed such large proportions that Milton C. Work, the famous bridge expert and originator of par auction has arranged to be present in person on the evening of the tournament.

Almost every person in Forest Hills who has even a smattering knowledge of bridge has shown an eagerness to participate in the tournament. The poor player will have a much better chance in par auction than in regular bridge because he will be dealt a hand already prearranged by Mr. Work and not a haphazard hand that would puzzle even an expert. And for the same reason par auction is attractive to the expert. The expert knows that his par auction hand should be played one way and one way only and that with his or her knowledge of ordinary bridge, that one way can be discovered.

Tickets—$10 for a table—can be obtained from the following people: Mrs. James R. Woodrough, Mrs. H. W. Hardinge and Mrs. Murray C. Brown.

ductor and H. Everett Hall is the accompanist.

After the concert, there will be a dance. Taylor's Orchestra will furnish the music.

Associate membership costs $10 each; this will entitle the holder to four tickets for each concert. Active membership costs $10 each, and entitles the member to instruction for the season,—no charge for music—and two tickets for each concert. A single ticket for admission to the concert costs $1.50. Send membership names to Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, or to Mrs. John A. McFarlan.

ENCOURAGE THE SINGERS

THERE is great need of the recently organized chorus in Forest Hills. Such a chorus will at the same time be an inspiration and an attraction to our celebrations on Christmas Eve and July 4. To be sure, through the leadership of Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, for many years there has been a hastily organized chorus of great value for these special programs, but each appearance of the group of singers has meant a special effort of reorganization. The Forest Hills Choral Club, regularly organized and christened this fall, satisfies an urgent demand. Considering the culture of our community, we should expect to have more musical programs throughout the year and this club promises to furnish such programs on a high plane. The names of the officers and the musical director guarantee a successful enterprise.

The advantages to the singers of the club are obviously many. The rehearsals bring together people for a beneficial purpose, in the happiest atmosphere. Business depressions, high cost of living and other vexing problems vanish into thin air when one is singing with a group of neighbors. Then, too, there is the opportunity to have the training under a skilled leader. One of the temptations incident to membership in a musical club is not to take the rehearsals seriously enough and to let social engagements interfere with one's regular attendance at rehearsals. However, the members of the local club have been almost 100% faithful in attendance upon the rehearsals.

The community will gain much from such a musical organization, not only in the celebrations, but all through the year. A singing town is a happy one, just as a singing army is a victorious one. As the club improves from year to year, under regular training, the residents will feel increasingly grateful for and proud of the men and women who have backed this aesthetic enterprise. The way to show appreciation now is to join the club; if you sing, become an active member; if you do not sing, join the associate list. Such action will prove your community spirit.

PERSONALS

Mrs. David Latshaw and son, Marvin, are spending the Thanksgiving vacation with Miss Margaret Latshaw at Ithaca. Miss Margaret is a sophomore at Cornell University.

Miss Margaret Maurer and Miss Margery Lane, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Martin S. Maurer, Ingram Street. Miss Maurer and Miss Lane are attending the Russell Sage College at Troy, N. Y.

Mrs. Henry Mears, formerly of 105 Puritan Avenue, now of Brookline, Mass., has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Nelcamp, 189 Puritan Avenue.

The December number of House and Garden pictures three houses of the Gardens; those of H. W. Hardinge, 75 Greenway South; J. A. Kienle, Summer Street, and J. O. Morris, 167 Greenway North.

"Digest of Legal Opinions of Thomas B. Paton, general counsel of the American Bankers' Association, 1908-1921," by Thomas B. Paton, Jr., is a large octavo volume of 760 pages issued by the American Bankers' Association. Mr. Paton, Sr. is a former president of the Taxpayers' Association, now the Community Council, and Mr. Paton, Jr. is now vice-president of the Council. Sixteen thousand copies of the volume have been printed and sold.

Mr. Lawrence Erwin has sold his home at 40 Slocum Crescent and returned to Chicago.

Mrs. Gertrude Flory will spend the winter in Miami, Fla. She left the last of the week to join her daughter, Mrs. Alice Coussen, who will be with her.

BATCHELLER—SPRINGSTEEN

The home of Mrs. David Springsteen, 112 Queens Boulevard, was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves on the evening of Nov. 15, when Miss Ella Alletta Springsteen was married to George Ellinwood Batcheller, 160 Greenway North. The minister was the Rev. Charles K. Clearwater, of the Reformed Dutch Church, of Elmhurst, a church to which the bride's family have belonged for seven generations. Azariah Springsteen, the oldest of the brothers, gave his sister away. Nelson, George, Howard and David Springsteen, the other brothers, were the ushers, and Allen McClintock, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was the best man. Mrs. George Springsteen was matron of honor and wore white satin. Miss Elise Fielder, maid of honor, and Miss Gladys Wilson and Miss Edith Rankin, bridesmaids, wore gowns of cream and lavender crepe de chine and carried yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The bride's gown of white satin and lace was charming. A large number of guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Batcheller are enjoying a visit at Palm Beach and expect to live later in the Gardens. They will build a house on Greenway South.

EX-SOLDIERS NEED CLOTHES

A shell shocked man of the Eighty-first Division, who has lost his overcoat, needs another one; but he will not ask for it. There are many other ex-soldiers to whom articles of clothing could be given. Please send any articles of men's clothing to Miss Martha Allen, 74 Beechknoll Road, and she will see that they reach the needy soldiers.

THE INN

The Thanksgiving dance on Wednesday night, was a great success. The ballroom was prettily decorated in yellow and white, and the varied costumes made it very effective, and dancing was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours.

Mrs. William Dunklin entertained a party of seven at dinner in the sun parlor on Saturday evening, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Dunklin.

Miss Marie Pauley sailed this week for Paris where she expects to be for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Lee White and two children, of Scranton, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major A. White.

Graham Davis has joined his family for a short stay.

W. J. Stout has returned after an extended hunting trip in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Wheeler have returned from a visit in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lewis, of Manhattan, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Thompson over the week-end.

Capt. H. M. Rubey, of Los Angeles, Cal., is numbered among the guests of the Inn, and will be joined by Mrs. Rubey in a few weeks.

Mrs. Dunaway, of State College, Pa., spent the week here, the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. M. Pretlow.

Mrs. George Mason, of Detroit, Mich. (formerly Miss Hazel Bisbee), is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bisbee.

Dr. P. Phenix, of Hampton, Va., has returned to his home after a visit with his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Phenix.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are F. Sherman, Miss Francis Johnston, Miss K. M. Hallahan, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hulbert, Mr. and Mrs. George Ordway and two children, and Mrs. William Harrison Bryant and son, Russell.

M. Milo Picco, a prominent member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is expected at the Inn on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6, when he will render some of his choice selections. Residents of the Gardens are invited.

Mrs. Wohlstetter will have her usual annual display of lingerie, wearing apparel and holiday gifts at the Inn on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 5 and 6.

CENSORED MOVIES

The Queensboro League of Mothers' Clubs is responsible for a movement to give a series of moving pictures of a high grade. These pictures will be shown at the Rialto Theatre, Fulton Street, Jamaica, New York on Saturday mornings from ten o'clock until noon, Nov. 26, Dec. 3, 10, 17, and 24. The price is 25 cents for a single ticket or $1. for a season ticket. The object in giving these entertainments is to see if the standard of moving pictures for children can be raised. All pictures to be shown have been censored by a committee from the organization which is responsible for the undertaking. Tickets may be bought from Mrs. O. L. Grever, 22 Socum Crescent, Boulevard 6212 J.

On Nov. 26 the pictures shown will be (1) Blue Bird, (2) Billy Whiskers—a comedy, (3) Mystery of space—popular science, (4) Camp Mystic—a girls' camp.

On Dec. 3 the program includes (1) Rebecca of Sunnybrook farm, (2) Get-Rich-Quick-Edgar—Tarkington comedy, (3) Trained animals.

The bill for Dec. 10 is (1) The Bottom of the World, (2) Edgar the Explorer—Tarkington comedy, (3) Beat it—Shooky comedy, (4) Modern Centaurs.

The programs for Dec. 17 and 24 will be given in the next issue of the Bulletin.

PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

The executive board of the Celebrations Association is making plans and arrangements for the program for Christmas Eve. Committees, especially appointed for the purpose, are working out the details and it is announced that a novel program will be given; in fact, it is intimated that a number of surprises will be featured in the celebration.

Lost—A black loose-leaved note book, containing minutes of Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club, Monday afternoon, on Markwood Road. Kindly return to Mrs. H. P. Daniels, 20 Markwood Road.

HOME FOR THE BLIND

The Queens Borough Workers For and With the Blind is an organization striving to help the condition of the 300 blind people in this borough. A large house on Chichester Avenue, between 115 and 116 Streets, Richmond Hill, has been purchased and an initial payment has been made on it. In order to pay for the property, make the necessary alterations and additions, furnish the home and provide a fund for the maintenance, about $100,000 is needed.

Every family in the borough is expected to make a small donation to the fund on Nov. 28, when a house to house canvass will be made. Mrs. George C. LeBlanc is directing the campaign for the Gardens and she has working under her 26 women, whose names appeared in the last BULLETIN. Every family in the Gardens is urged to give at least 50 cents to the neighbor who calls, and if by chance any family is overlooked on Nov. 28, Mrs. LeBlanc, 105 Puritan Avenue, will be happy to receive the donation.

"SOME DISTINGUISHED MEN I HAVE KNOWN."

Richard Knight, 84 Greenway South, will be the host of the Men's Club on the evening of Dec. 2—the first Friday of the month—when Samuel Crowther will speak on the subject, "Some Distinguished Men I have Known." Mr. Crowther will include in his sketches Henry Ford, whom he has assisted in writing his autobiography, and also A. B. Farquhar, the manufacturer, of York, Pa., whom he knows well. Mr. Crowther is an investigator and writer on business conditions. Among his books are: "Labor and Common Sense," and "Why Men Strike."

The Men's Club is increasing in interest and in numbers.

BOY SCOUTS

Boys Scout Troop No. 2 (F. L. Fear, scoutmaster, John Montague, asst. scoutmaster) has arranged to hold its weekly meeting in Kew-Forest School. Under Mr. Fear's direction the boys are making their own furniture for the room assigned to them. Three new scouts passed their tenderfoot test last week. The membership is now about twenty-four. The regular meeting night is Friday.

Scoutmaster Fear is coaching the boys in football. Scouts, near-scouts, would-be scouts and other red blooded boys wanted in the game. Ask Maurice Mayer about it.

CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

The sermon preached by Dr. Latshaw on Thanksgiving Day at the joint service of the churches in Forest Hills was very appropriate to the occasion and greatly enjoyed by those present.

The illustrated lecture on Peking, China, by Sidney D. Gamble, at the Sunday evening service under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society was attended by a large congregation. As there is no regular Sunday evening service in the Church-in-the-Gardens, the older members of the congregation and friends are cordially invited to meet with the young people in their meetings.

In view of the fact that a number have expressed a desire to unite with the church, Dr. Latshaw has set apart Sunday, Dec. 4, as a "Join the Church Day," and therefore cordially invites any who desire to do so to join the church that day. He is subject to call for conference concerning the matter at any time in advance of the date.

Charles P. Poore, cellist, will play on Dec. 4 at the morning service.

Those who expect to attend the church on Sunday, Nov. 27, are requested to please remember to bring their special Thanksgiving offering.

The Women's Guild will meet on the afternoon of Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Theodore Luce, 62 Greenway North.

J. F. McT.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Sixteen persons received the sacrament of Confirmation by the laying on of hands by the Bishop of the Diocese on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 20. Bishop Burgess preached.

The Vesper service will begin this Sunday at four o'clock. Evensong will be said and there may be a short address following. A cordial invitation is extended to the community.

The first issue of the parish paper made its appearance on Nov. 14. This will be mailed to all the families listed in the records. Persons desiring copies may obtain them at the Rectory. Churchmen who have not received the paper are kindly requested to make the fact known.

The Women's Guild met at the home of Mrs. Jos. S. Maxwell on Monday, Nov. 14, when plans for the winter season's work were outlined and committees appointed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Van Manning, 88 Ascan Avenue, on Monday, Dec. 12.

The Junior Guild furnished ice cream for the crippled children at the Home of St. Giles', Garden City for Thanksgiving. Plans are under way to furnish toys and tree ornaments at Christmas time for the same children. The next meeting of the Guild will be with Mrs. David Millar, 14 Olive Place, on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 3:30 P. M., when it is expected that Canon Roy F. Duffield, Archdeacon of Queens and Nassau, and Chaplain of St. Giles' will speak on the work of the Home.

St. Andrew's Day, Nov. 30, Holy Communion, 7:30 A. M.

THE ARTS APPLIED TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

A joint meeting of the Mothers' Club of Public School 3 and the Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club was held at Public School 3 on the afternoon of Nov. 21. It was reported at the meeting that the Board of Education would fit up a small lunch room, with a counter, in the basement of public school 3, which will probably be available by the first of the year.

Another bit of welcome news is that the new scout leader, F. L. Fear, has offered to coach the boys of Forest Hills in football. They should apply to him at the ball ground of Kew-Forest School on Union Turnpike. This instruction in football is to be free.

It was also reported that plans are on foot to flood some central field in the Gardens for skating this winter. In order to defray the expenses of this sport, checks should be mailed, as soon as possible, to the treasurer of the Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club, Mrs. Lawrence F. Abbott, Greenway South.

The playground is officially closed until spring, it was announced.

Mrs. E. D. Sealy made a plea to the mothers to write to the Motion Picture Commission of the State of New York, Mrs. Eli T. Hosmer, 220 W. 42 Street, New York City, and express the ideals which the women hold for motion pictures, such letters to be shown to producers as proof of what mothers want.

The speaker of the afternoon was Miss Anna Price, teacher of art in the Bryant High School, who told what to do with children who show an interest in art and she also gave a list of the promising and lucrative fields of art, such as interior decorating, dress designing, textile designing and commercial designing for advertisements. Miss Price knows her subject and knows how to tell about it. Mrs. C. H. W. Hasselriis sang two Hindu songs and Mme R. de Vielle Neuf gave some numbers of interpretative dancing of classical music. Mrs. A. M. Gray was in charge of the program.

SALVATION ARMY SPEAKER

Ensign Madele Wilson, of the Salvation Army, will speak at the regular meeting of the Women's' Club on the afternoon of Dec. 5, at the Inn. Her subject will be "The Work of the Salvation Army Among Women and Children." Ensign Wilson spoke last spring before the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens and made such a profound impression that she has been urged to come back to Forest Hills and speak again. Mrs. A. M. Gray, chairman of the philanthropic chapter, is responsible for the program. The singer will be Miss Emma Noe, soprano, with Grover Tilden Davis at the piano.

The current readings chapter will meet at 2:30 on the afternoon of Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. W. P. Beazell, 155 Greenway South, when "Back to Methuselah," by Bernard Shaw, will be reviewed.
