Stunning Address Delivered Before Men's Club by Colonel Kalpaschnikoff

Playground Given Financial Support—Lyman Beecher Stowe Chosen on Advisory Board of Community House

At the meeting of the Men's Club held at the home of Dr. A. E. Davenport, Jr., Monday evening, March 21, Colonel Andrew Kalpaschnikoff delivered an address which received the closest attention of the members. It seemed hardly possible that one who had gone through such hardships, including military imprisonment for months in Bolsheviki prisons, could discuss conditions in Russia so dispassionately and show no personal ill will toward those who had wronged him. He was, however, severe upon the "long haired men and short haired women" who are interested in almost all kinds of "isms" much more than they are in the Russian people, and go to that country for a brief visit, returning with pretension of full information as to the existing conditions.

He referred to the recent report by H. G. Wells in regard to the schools of Russia which were described by the English author as better than those of England. After describing the demoralized condition of Russian schools, he remarked, "I have not been in England for a couple of years, but I hardly think that the schools are as bad as they are in Russia."

The colonel vigorously condemned the attitude of the military party in Japan which seeks domination in Siberia and urged that the United States and other nations friendly to Russia co-operate with the Liberal party in Japan, which favors withdrawing the military forces from Siberia. He said that there is real danger of the combination of the military forces of Japan and Germany with Bolsheviki of Russia. He believes, however, that the hope of Russia lies in Siberia. "That country is now on fire," he said, "and is utterly opposed to the Soviet rule which has obtained some foothold there." As to trade with Russia, he commended the policy of Secretary of State Colby. He said that even if we should make a trade agreement with the Soviet Government, it would be of no value, because Russia has almost nothing to sell to other countries.

In conclusion, the colonel spoke eloquently of the historic friendship of Russia and the United States. He does not believe that this country can do much, if anything, in the near future to improve conditions in his troubled country, but he looks ultimately toward co-operation of the people of the United States with others who are the real friends of Russia.

Lyman Beecher Stowe was unanimously elected to represent the Men's Club as a member of the Advisory Board of the Community House. It was voted that an appropriation to help in the maintenance of the playground be made, the amount to be determined by the officers of the club.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mr. Stowe, April 18, and he will speak on "Self Governing Principles in Communities and Schools." His practical experience along this line will enable him to speak with authority and in a very constructive way. Mr. Stowe kindly consented to act as a substitute for Kermit Roosevelt who was invited to speak but will not be able to do so on account of making an extended trip to another country.

RED CROSS NURSING COURSE

Through the generosity of the Forest Hills chapter of the American Red Cross a course of fifteen lessons in nursing will be given to sixteen women of Forest Hills, beginning on Monday, May 2 and continuing on Monday and Thursday mornings from 10 to 11:30 until the course is completed. The place will be decided later and then announced. The lessons will be given by Miss Wilson representing the Red Cross through its bureau of health. The names of all who desire to join the class should be given to Mrs. Charles Page Caldwell.

CHINAMAN WILL SPEAK

Women's Club Will Meet April 4—Chapters all Active—Open Meeting Planned for April 25.

Peng Chung Chang, educator, dramatist, will address the members of the Women's Club, on the afternoon of April 4, at the Inn, on the subject, "The Hopes of New China." After securing his education in this country he returned to China, where he was Acting President of Nankai College, Tientsin. Last year he came back to this country and served as secretary to the Chinese Educational Commission to the United States, which was sent by the Chinese government to study the American educational systems. He has travelled widely in America. He has written plays in Chinese and English.

Open Meeting

The current events chapter of the Women's Club is planning an open meeting for the evening of April 25, in the Church-in-the-Gardens, when Lieutenant Vincent Wierzbicki, of the French High Commission will speak on "The Present Conditions in France." To this meeting all residents of the town are invited.

Chapters

The current readings chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. George Smart, 45 Deepdene Road, Tuesday afternoon, April 5, at 2:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Stokes will review "The Mountebank" by William Locke. The philanthropic chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Forry R. Getz, 60 Olive Place, on Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, April 6. The music chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Raymond P. Kaighn, 52 Seasongood Road, on the afternoon of April 15, at 2:30 o'clock when the subject of study will be "Carmen."

BENEFIT FOR JACOB RIIS SETTLEMENT

The Twentieth Century Club of Richmond Hill will give a benefit recital for the Jacob Riis Settlement at the Kew Gardens Club, on Tuesday evening, April 5, at 8:15 o'clock. The artists will be Mme. Marie Bashian, who will give a costume recital of folk songs of the Occident and the Orient and Frank Rehman, violinist. Mrs. Jacob Riis will tell about the work of the settlement. Tickets will be one dollar each, at the door.

HOME OF HENRY HIRSCHBERG

On the corner of Greenway North and Puritan Avenue is the home of Henry Hirschberg illustrated in this number of the BULLETIN.

The home is of stucco on hollow tile with a vine clad pergola facing on Greenway North. The architect was Alfred Fellheimer.

The playground will open April 4.

REAL PATRIOTISM

In a recent address here on "American Citizenship," the director of Greenwich House said: "America is really made up of the sum of all little, middle sized and big communities all over the country. He has the secret of the best American citizenship who, through hard cooperative effort, has helped to make his own community the best possible place which it can be."

Evidently this authority believes that patriotism begins at home, as does charity, although, like charity, it must not end there. This message is a cheering one for the civic committee, of the Women's Club, whose ambitions for the neatest, cleanest village have been endorsed by almost all the organizations in town. To make one's own yard beautiful with blooming flowers, trimmed and trained vines and shrubbery and close cut lawn is the duty of every one living in this beautiful village. Then the lots nearby are to be cleaned up and vegetable gardens are to help to make these vacant lots attractive and at the same time will furnish fresh vegetables for the families here. The parks and parkways of the town are so lovely with trees and shrubbery that they are a delight to the eye.

The community is well organized in various associations, whose objects and membership will furnish outlets for the community interest of all the people here. The work in these many clubs ought to be so divided that each man and woman here could find his or her niche, where he and she can work to the best advantage for the good of all. Although located in the reserved East, the town itself is new and has no hard and fast traditions. It is an inspiration and a responsibility to feel that we are making the traditions. It is genuine patriotism to make those traditions the best possible ones. The proposed Community House will help to unify all community effort.

After seeing the whole village, the director of Greenwich House said: "This is an ideal place for a home. It solves the almost insolvable question of really living in or near New York."

VACANT LOTS TO BE CLEAN

The Sage Foundation Homes Company has a corps of men busily engaged in cleaning up the vacant lots of the Gardens—every bit of rubbish is being removed. Instructions have been given to all employees that any employee of the company who is found putting any refuse of any kind on a vacant lot in the future will immediately be discharged, unless he bury the debris. The residents are reminded that there are men who work on the property who are not connected with the company and who do throw rubbish on the vacant lots. It will be a great help in keeping the village clean if all residents will cooperate and give instructions to employees, who are not connected with the company, to put nothing on the lots.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

Community Council Trying to Lower Prices—Bank May be Started Here.

At the meeting of the Community Council on the evening of March 18, it was hinted that the Bank of the Manhattan Company is considering opening a branch in Forest Hills. P. A. Rowley, vice-president of this bank, will be present at the next meeting and will tell of the proposed plan.

George Smart was elected the representative to serve on the Advisory Board of the Community House.

The subject of the high cost of living in Forest Hills as compared with Richmond Hill and Kew Gardens was a much discussed question. A comparative list of prices in these three places shows that residents of Forest Hills are often paying ten to fifteen cents more than their neighbors on the same article. A committee of three men and three women has been appointed to interview the merchants and see whether any solution of the problem can be reached.

M. J. Stickel, lately welfare director of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company, at Pueblo, but now a resident once more of Forest Hills, told a fascinating story of how a great body of workmen had been brought into harmonious relations to each other and to their employers. He told how simple it had been to maintain discipline since a system of self judgment had been instituted among the men. He said, in substance, that capitalistic control is doomed, that some form of democracy is necessary to take its place, and he proposed joint control by capital and labor as a remedy for the situation.

CIVIC COMMITTEE ACTIVE

Mrs. L. D. Speir, chairman of the civic committee of the Women's Club, has arranged with the Sage Foundation Homes Company to have a cart go up and down the streets on Friday, April 8, and collect all rubbish which the ash man does not collect—trimmings from trees, bushes and hedges, and all of the things left from house cleaning. The residents should have everything ready by eight o'clock in the morning when the collector will begin on his rounds. It is hoped that all families will cooperate and make this date a genuine clean-up day for the Gardens. It is probable that the Cord Meyer Development Company will send a cart around on the same day and then the whole village will be more beautiful than ever. This plan of cleaning up will be followed every six months.

The store keepers' competition for the best kept store began on April 1. A sign which will read, "This is the best kept store of Forest Hills," will be awarded every three months to the store which most fully complies with the rules of the Board of Health. The sign may be passed around among the thirteen vendors of food here or may stay in one store, according to whichever one wins the prize every three months.

All of the zones of the village are working hard to win the prize for the best kept zone during the year. The greatest activity seems to be in the Continental zone where the men and women are very busy in cleaning up the vacant lots.

ERNEST DAVIS WILL GIVE RECITAL

Ernest Davis, famous American tenor, will give a recital at the Church-in-the-Gardens on Thursday evening, April 14, at 8:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Forest Hills Post 630 of the American Legion. Mr. Davis for two years has sung leading roles for the Boston Opera Company, touring the country with that organization. The commanding stage presence and wonderful voice of this distinguished young tenor have won the enthusiastic praise of all who have heard him. His voice is a lyric, dramatic one of brilliancy and power, with extraordinary range and mastery of execution. Mr. Davis made his debut with the Chicago Opera Company in 1912 and since then has appeared as soloist with the leading choral societies in the United States.

Assisting Mr. Davis will be Emil Levy, violinist, and Miss Mabel Austin, accompanist.

Arrangements will be made to have on sale at the Chemist Shop a limited number of Mr. Davis' phonograph records.

Owing to the limited capacity of the Church-in-the-Gardens, those who desire to hear the recital should obtain tickets early through the officers of the Legion, the Women's Club, the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens, and the drug stores. The tickets will be one dollar each.

"SONGS AND CALLS OF FAMILIAR BIRDS"

The people who came together to hear Louis Agassiz Fuertes talk about bird songs in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens on Saturday evening, March 19, knew that they were going to have a treat. They knew it because Mr. Fuertes was the man who arranged the habitat groups of birds in the American Museum of Natural History and was, besides, one of the best known bird painters in the country. But it was a fresh delight to hear the elusive delicate notes of the white throated sparrow and the gentle quavering trills and half notes of the blue bird that Mr. Fuertes justly described as being beyond the scope of music to write down. "There is no musical language," he said, "for the variety, strangeness, and individuality of the songs of birds any more than there is a suitable language for the fragrance of flowers." Along with the talk he showed pictures of the birds whose songs he was imitating. Altogether it was an evening as satisfying as a country walk on a spring morning and yet with something of that feeling of having been in a far and lovely place that should be within reach of us all if we only knew, as Mr. Fuertes so well does, the voices and names of its birdy people.

In introducing Mr. Fuertes, Mrs. George Smart asked for a more general support of the work of the Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society and spoke particularly of the need of more life memberships. The only life members, that is those who pay $25.00 down at one time in lieu of annual dues, in the Gardens are H. H. Buckley, C. C. Foster and Mrs. Anna C. Boyd. With ten life members the work could be placed on a substantial basis. There were over two hundred persons present.

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. S. Ellworth Davenport Jr. are spending a short vacation at Richmond, Virginia.

Miss Sue Tracy, a student at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., and her brother, George Tracy, who is attending the West School, of Saltsberg, Pennsylvania, enjoyed an Easter vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh, 68 Greenway North.

Mrs. George A. Douglass, who leaves in April for a six months stay in Italy is being much feted before her departure. Mrs. Douglass has been very active in the Mothers' Club and in the playground work. Mr. Douglass will make a shorter visit in Italy than Mrs. Douglass and George Jr.

Many of the younger people have been home from school. The Burton boys, Fred Small and Godwin Castleman, have come from Andover for the Easter vacation. John Gray has been here on a visit from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Helen Smart is here from Wellesley. Marvin Latshaw has been home from the State Institute of Applied Agriculture, at Farmingdale, L. I. Edgar Snow, is enjoying a vacation, having come from the Irving School at Tarrytown. Margaret Latshaw will come soon from Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Goudy, of Deepdene Road, entertained at dinner, Monday, March 28, Miss Pamela Bianco, the child-artist whose exhibitions of drawings in Turin, London and New York have elicited wide interest, her father, Capt. Francesco Bianco, Professor and Mrs. Samuel Baldwin of the College of the City of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rogers, who have recently returned from Cambridge, England, where Mr. Rogers was chief typographer with the University Press, and their daughter, Mrs. Burroughs, Mrs. Gale and Miss Gale of Minneapolis.

MARTHA BONNER MILLER

Martha Bonner Miller, the nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Miller, Colonial Avenue, died March 24, at her home after a very serious illness of a month. The services were held on Good Friday afternoon, at the residence and were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Crothers of the Presbyterian Board of Education of New York City, (an old friend of the family) and the Rev. Albert Sheppard of the Church of Forest Hills. The burial took place at Greenfield, Ohio.

Martha was born in New York City and moved here with her parents, when she was six months old. She attended the public schools of Forest Hills and also the Sunday School of the Church of Forest Hills. She had an exceedingly sunny disposition and made many friends. She is survived by her parents, her sister, Miss Virginia, and her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Eliot.

THE INN

The dance last Saturday evening at the Inn was more in the nature of a Junior "Prom," due to so many of the younger generation of Forest Hills, who were home from college over the Easter holiday. They presented a very pretty sight, with the crispness of their college frocks and a newness of "long trousers."

Among those of the Inn guests who were here for these holidays were: Miss Ruth and Master Charles Ungerman, Master Ned Kroil, Miss Helen Smith, Master Charles H. Robbins, Jr., Miss Daisy Wright, and Miss Janet and Masters Holmes and Billy Bannard. The dance was very well attended by the older people also and was one of the prettiest held at the Inn this season.

J. R. Folger, one of the assistant managers of the Pennsylvania Hotel, had a delightful dinner party on that evening in the sun parlor, a number of his guests being residents of the Montclair Hotel, Montclair, N. J., who were delighted with the Inn.

Van H. Manning, of the Gardens also gave a very attractive dinner party to several of the younger people of Forest Hills.

Mrs. F. H. Atkins, of Escanola, Mich., mother of R. Atkins, of the Inn, spent nearly a week with her son and greatly enjoyed her stay at Forest Hills. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson, who had been wintering in Florida, have just returned and will stay at the Inn for the next three months, when they expect to leave for their summer home.

Mrs. Wm. H. Bannard, with her daughter and two sons, and her mother, Mrs. M. Sill, all of Manhattan, have been spending the last few weeks as guests of the Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nicolson, who have been spending a month at Atlantic City, have recently returned and now anticipate remaining at the Inn for a long time. Miss Phylliss Muller has been spending her Easter holidays as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Morgan of the Inn.

A very interesting luncheon was given in the sun parlor of the Inn on Monday last for the delegates to the Omega Upsilon Convention held by Gamma Chapter, of which Miss Rebecca Hardie, whose father is connected with the Sage Foundation Homes Company, was the hostess for the afternoon. The young ladies present, of which there were about forty, represented chapters from different parts of the country in Physical Education Schools, and are spending this week seeing New York.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are: Miss Helen Koeft, of Manhattan; Miss Gladys Tree, of London; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Perkins and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pommer, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robertson, of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Harrison Clarke and Mabel; Miss Phylliss Muller; Miss M. A. Field; Miss Mabel E. Rice, and Thomas Redding, all of Manhattan; William Vogel, of Pasadena, and Bertram Chesterman.

W. Crawford was here for a few days while on a trip to the east, from Chicago, where Mrs. Crawford is still at the Chicago Beach Hotel and will remain for the next three or four weeks, after which time she returns to Forest Hills.

PLAYERS' CABARET DANCE

A Gardens Players' "party" is always interesting and original, but the plans for their forthcoming cabaret dance, to be held at the Masonic Temple on Friday evening, April 15, bid fair to eclipse all previous efforts. The committee in charge, consisting of Harvey Warren, Jewell Aldrich and Walter Claypoole, are muttering vague announcements about "come and see," "Montmartre outclassed," "more Parisian than Paris" and definitely proclaim a "perfectly peerless" orchestra for dancing, refreshments, and several "exclusive and novel" cabaret acts, as part of the entertainment.

Several of our local Henry Irvings will be present in the role of waiters and cabaret atmosphere will be heightened by tables placed about the room, at which the guests may sit between dances. All for the modest sum of $1.00. Could anything be fairer?

One Who Knows.

PLAYERS' ANNUAL MEETING

Miss Mary Shaw, the noted actress, will be the guest of honor and the speaker at the annual meeting of the Gardens Players, on the evening of April 13. The place of the meeting will be announced by letter.

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

The largest congregation that ever attended services in the Church-in-the-Gardens was present last Sunday, when three hundred or more crowded into the church and many were turned away. In Dr. Latshaw's sermon on "Immortal Life," he quoted from Victor Hugo, as he philosophized at the close of his life. "When I go down to the grave I can say like many others, 'I have finished my day's work,' but I can not say, 'I have finished my life.' My day's work will begin again the next morning." Then he concluded his sermon of the day by drawing the lessons from Christ's serene death, as he approached the entrance into immortal life. The flowers, a gift of a friend of the church, were perfectly beautiful. The music, under the direction of the organist, H. Everett Hall, with a quartet, Mrs. S. Nash, Mrs. A. F.

Warren, L. Brant and R. A. Freemantle, was most inspiring. Twelve new members were received into the church: Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stickel, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Montague and her son, John Montague, Misses Dorothy Renshaw, Ora Freeman, Kathleen French, Etta Wylie, George Woodard and David Millar.

A large audience enjoyed the Sunday School exercises in the morning, when Mrs. Donald G. Clark was in charge. Each child was given a flower. The Christian Endeavor vesper service was much enjoyed. Dr. Burton spoke most informingly of the "Customs of Easter."

The Guild

The Women's Guild will meet next Friday afternoon, April 8, at the home of Mrs. Frederick E. Smith, 210 Greenway South, when Mrs. George Sherwood Eddy will be the speaker.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Old Organization Disbands—Plans Are to be Made for Two Organizations, One on Each Side of the Railroad.

The Mothers' Club met Monday afternoon, March 28, at public school 3, with Mrs. Charles Pope Caldwell, the president, in the chair. Mrs. Caldwell said that it seems to her that the mothers on either side of the track have different objects for which they need to work; the problems in reference to the schools and playgrounds are each peculiar to the individual locality and so she recommended that the club disband and then that each side be reorganized. Mrs. Caldwell's suggestion was accepted by formal action of the club. However, all of the mothers of the village of Forest Hills will have another general meeting on the afternoon of April 18, when a tea will be given for Edward Mandell, the new district superintendent of Queens. This tea will be held at public school 3.

GARDENS' MOTHERS WILL ORGANIZE

All mothers of the Gardens and any other women of this locality who are interested in educational matters are urged to go to public school 101 at 10 A. M. on the morning of April 11, when a Mothers' Club of the Gardens will be organized and officers of the club will be chosen. There is much work for this new organization to do in connection with the needs of public school 101, and all women who are interested are invited most cordially to come to this meeting. Its importance is apparent to any one conversant with the school question here.

SAUNDERS—HANSON

Wednesday morning, March 16, at 167 Meteor Street, Forest Hills, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paton, the Rev. Fred Saunders and Miss Belle W. Hanson, both of Forest Hills, were married by the Rev. W. D. Beach, D.D., pastor of the First M. E. Church of Elmhurst, a friend of the groom who is a member of the New York East Conference. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders are spending their honeymoon in Bermuda. Upon their return they will reside in Forest Hills.

ST. LUKE'S

The food sale given two weeks ago under the auspices of the Woman's Guild was a success financially, $200.00 being raised.

Easter day will be remembered by members of St. Luke's. Two hundred people crowded into the little chapel, many having to sit on steps outside during the morning service. The early communion service also attracted a large crowd. The Rev. Mr. Kroll preached an inspiring sermon on "The Resurrection to Life Eternal." The beautiful vestments, an Easter gift to Mrs. George C. LeBlanc, organist, by one of the members of St. Luke's, added much to the dignity and churchliness of the service. The well trained choir, under the leadership of Mrs. LeBlanc, rendered the Communion service beautifully. The anthem, "They Have Taken Away My Lord," by Stainer, was effectively sung, the soprano part being sung by Mrs. Edward Moir and the bass by Frederic Seward. Others in the choir were Mrs. Seward, Mrs. Lester Brion, Miss Estelle Brion, Mrs. Bulkley and Mrs. Guy Catlin. A tenor solo, "Hosannah," by Granier, was rendered by Seymour Bulkley, a professional tenor of New York. The altar was beautiful with floral pieces, all memorials, given by members of the church. The large Easter offering will be added to the building fund.

The children's service of song was held in the afternoon. Mr. Kroll addressed the children and each child was given a pot of pansies.

The members regret that Easter day finished the work of Mr. Kroll, who has been called to St. George's Episcopal Church, Newburgh, which has a membership of over one thousand communicants. Mr. Kroll will be remembered for his executive ability and inspiring sermons. The members wish Mr. and Mrs. Kroll and Master Fred, "God Speed."
