A PLEASING PROGRAM

Choral Club will Give Second Program of Season on April 20

On Friday evening, April 20, at 8:15 o'clock, the Forest Hills Choral Club will give its second concert this season at the Masonic Temple. Bruno Huhn will conduct the Choral Club in the following selections:

"Daybreak"	Eaton Fanning
"O Peaceful Night"	Edward German
"Dream of Love"	Franz Liszt
Cello and Violin Obligato
Mixed Chorus
"The Heart of Her"	Charles W. Cadman
"Carmena"	Ross Hilton
Women's Chorus
"Dreaming Alone"	Hartley Moore
"Hail to Our Native Land"
"March from 'Aida'"	Giuseppe Verdi
Cornet Obligato
Men's Chorus
"Song of the Sea"	Stebbins
Mixed Chorus

Beside this program, Cornelius Van Vliet, the famous Dutch cellist, will appear, rendering two groups of selections. Mr. Van Vliet made his debut in this country in a program at the Chicago Orchestral Hall, when Mary Garden and Tetrazinni appeared. He is now first cellist with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, and he is greatly in demand.

Miss Suzanne Zimmerman, who sang before the Choral Club last January, will sing a group of songs. Mrs. Frederick Kiendl, a member of the club, will give a group of readings. Mrs. Charles Clifford Miller, violinist, will play an obligato to one of the Choral numbers. Mrs. Ada Park Maddux, cornetist, will play the trumpeting part to the "Aida" March, sung by the Men's Chorus. Miss Alice M. Shaw, accompanist, is a very important factor in the success of the club. She is the accompanist of the Rubenstein Club.

Mrs. Charles H. Scammell urges that all come promptly to the concert and be seated at 8:15, for the program will begin on time. Taylor's orchestra will furnish the music for the dance which will follow the concert.

The members of the Choral Club assist cheerfully at all community celebrations, Fourth of July, Christmas Eve and Memorial Day. Also on Christmas Sunday and Easter Sunday the members sing in all the churches. The proceeds of the concert will go toward training these voices, paying the visiting artists, the rent of the hall, etc. Tickets at $1.50 each may be obtained from members of the club or from any drug store.

DRAMALOGUE PRESENTED

Members of Women's Club Hear Frank Ferguson—
Chapters and Committees Active

How audiences can make or mar a dramatic performance was told with frankness and humor to the members of the Women's Club, on Monday afternoon, April 2, by Frank Ferguson, actor, author and critic. Mr. Ferguson's subject was "Audiences from Actors' Viewpoints." He said that inattention, lack of intelligent understanding on the part of the audience had a bad effect on the actors, and the reverse had a stimulating effect. Mr. Ferguson gave a reading of Sir James Barrie's "A Well-Remembered Voice." He was introduced by Mrs. E. D. Sealy, chairman of motion picture committee.

Mrs. John A. McFarlan, chairman of the membership committee, reported the names of the following new members of the club: Mrs. Jules Gingras, Mrs. Linwood M. Kelly, Mrs. Thomas F. Lawton, Mrs. T. R. Webster, Mrs. P. D. Wright and Mrs. Harvey K. Zollinger.

Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, chairman of the philanthropic chapter, reported that the chapter had given clothing to two boys, seven and nine years of age, who had not been able to go to school for lack of proper clothing. She made an appeal for the purchase of shares in the New York City Federation Hotel for Working Girls. Thereupon the club voted to purchase 20 shares at $5 a share.

Mrs. Virgil W. Miller, chairman of civic committee, reported the meeting held at her home, when zone captains unanimously awarded the club's trophy to the captain of the Club House zone, Mrs. E. H. Pierce, for the neatness of her zone and because, through her efforts, $90 worth of shrubbery had been bought and planted in the zone. Mrs. Louis D. Speir, president, presented the trophy to Mrs. Pierce, who accepted it in gracious words.

The convention of the City Federation will be held on May 4. The club elected Mrs. Speir and Mrs. E. M. Guyon delegates; Mrs. E. H. Pierce and Mrs. A. W. Guy, alternates.

Mrs. Otto L. Grever, chairman of the banner committee, showed four designs from which to choose a new club banner. A design made by Mr. Grever was selected by ballot as the one from which a banner is to be made. The present banner committee was continued to procure the banner.

Mrs. Mary Padden, of the State Charities Aid Association, spoke of the work of her association.

Mrs. Speir appointed Mrs. Alick Weir and Mrs. McFarlan to act on the nominating committee. Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, Mrs. Albert Sheppard and Mrs. H. Reed Harrison were elected from the floor to serve on the same committee.

Sasha Jacobsen, violinist, played a number of selections with understanding and feeling.

A GROUP OF HOUSES ON ASCAN AVENUE

The brick group of nine houses pictured above is now under construction on Ascan Avenue between Whitson and Ingram Streets. Colton & Ayres are the architects, and the Forest Hills Gardens Homes Company the owner and builder. The houses are designed to conform architecturally and structurally to those in the Gardens.

The exterior treatment will be of rough texture brick, with tile roofs, of English design. Each house will have seven rooms and two baths, with a paved terrace and enclosed porch. This group will be ready for occupancy in the Fall.

Local news notes and other items of interest for publication should reach the Editor of the BULLETIN not later than Tuesday morning of the week of publication.

KEEPING UP THE STANDARD

THE BULLETIN reflects the life of the community. In these pages fortnightly can be read the news of the activities of all organizations. Here one may read what the churches are doing; the life at the Inn is reported; the civic, dramatic and musical life of the village is pictured. Weddings, births, deaths, the public and private school life, the library station, the conservation of bird life, the protection of trees and shrubbery—all these and many other things of interest to suburban community dwellers find space in these four pages. An editorial on some pertinent subject appears. For the publication of the paper Forest Hills is indebted to the four companies whose names appear at the head of this column.

A perusal of the paper shows that community life is conducted here on a high scale; that neighborliness abounds, and that no matter what interests one may have, he can find his proper niche in Forest Hills. The BULLETIN'S picture of the life in the village attracts to the place the right kind of people.

The real estate companies have maintained a high standard in selling property, and they will continue to hold it. If the property holders are as careful in the re-sales as the companies have been and are in the initial sales, there will be no question about the maintenance of the standard set in the establishment of the community. Those of us who own property now and the salesmen can say what kind of people will characterize the future Forest Hills.

NEW BOOKS IN LIBRARY

The following books have recently been added to the Forest Hills Library Station: "Enchanted April," by Arnim; "Black Oxen," by Atherton; "Dim Lantern," by Bailey; "The Family," by Bosanquet; "From Tanger to Tripoli," by Carpenter; "Human Traits," by Edman; "Last Poems," by Housman; "Revolt of the Oyster," by Marquis; "To Tell the Truth," by Merrick; "Beasts, Men and Gods," by Ossendowski; "The Fool" by Pollock, and "Home-Making Simplified," by Streeter.

There were nineteen new borrowers enrolled in the Library Station in March. The percentage of fiction borrowed from the station last year was 90; today it is 84. There are a number of French books in circulation here.

The librarian compliments the people here when she says that very few Forest Hills people keep books out over time, and that never do Forest Hills adults or children mar the books.

BENEFIT FOR JAMAICA HOSPITAL

A double evening is to be given April 21 for the benefit of the Jamaica Hospital—a combined dinner and bridge. Both are to be held at the Pomonok Country Club. The dinner will be at 7 o'clock and tickets are $2.50. At 8:30 bridge begins. Tables are $5, and individual tickets $1.50. Mrs. Burns Mantle is chairman. Forest Hills is doing itself proud in helping to finance the hospital, which will be only a mile distant, on Hillside Avenue, near the Borden milk station. Horace Hume of Seasongood Road, who has adopted more "orphan lots" than any other person in Forest Hills, has been chosen one of the trustees.

INTRODUCING MR. AND MRS. LEOPARD MOTH

Editor of the BULLETIN:

Permit us to introduce to you and the residents of Forest Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Leopard Moth. We commend them to you as one of the meanest pair of insect people to be found in the United States. Watch for their coming, as they are due to arrive in early May and intend to spend the summer with us. Give them a hearty greeting with kerosene or the strongest insecticide you have in the house. Poke into their holes with a thin wire, bending the end over like a fish-hook and yank them out of their holes.

The larva (caterpillar) does not feed on the foliage, but bores into the branches and trunk of the trees. Whenever you see a little heap (the size of a pea) of what looks like sawdust, hanging on the trunk, branches, or lying on the ground under the tree, don't stop work until you have found the tiny hole from which the larva has pushed this matted material. After the larva gets big enough to have brains, it glazes over this hole with a thin membrane in order to fool you, as the glazing matches the color of the bark.

The leopard moth gets its name from the spotted appearance of its wings. You cannot easily tell the head from the tail of the caterpillar. The body is about the thickness of a lead pencil in the adult stage. The eggs are laid in crevices of the bark and when hatched, the children immediately start to "dig in." After they have finished a small twig, they crawl out and tackle a regular branch and then tackle the trunk. They love maple trees, especially the young trees.

As you all know, the moth lays the eggs; out of the eggs comes the larva or caterpillar, then the caterpillar goes to sleep in a cocoon and changes into an ectoplasmic mass known as the pupa and out of the pupa comes the leopard moth. After that, the cycle is started again. Now we really do not know whether the caterpillar came first into the world and produced the moth, or the moth produced the caterpillar, but this we do know—that if you don't watch your trees, the leopard moth will. If the moth once gets into them, say good-bye to Mr. Tree, farewell to sylvan shade, and an au revoir to your birds. The birds that belong to the right type of bird society expect you as their host to provide them with trees, shade, shrubbery, food and water. If you don't—well—they will simply drop you from their calling list.

"Again we sound the warning! Beware of the leopard moth!"

TREES AND SHRUBS COMMITTEE OF GARDENS CORPORATION.

P. S.—If you love your trees, write to U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and ask for Farmers' Bulletin No. 708, entitled "The Leopard Moth." You owe it to yourself and to the community to know a leopard moth and its caterpillar when you see them.

GARDENS' MOTHERS MEET

At a meeting of the Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club, held at the home of Mrs. Richard W. Knight, on the afternoon of April 9, Mrs. Donald G. Clark was elected president, Mrs. James A. Corscaden, vice-president, Mrs. John M. McMillin, treasurer, Mrs. W. F. Saybolt, recording secretary, and Mrs. Richard W. Knight, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Clark appointed Mrs. Lyman B. Stowe chairman of the program committee and Mrs. Harold P. Daniels chairman of the building committee.

There was great interest in the playground and it was decided to secure a playground leader at once. The president and one other member will attend the luncheon of the Queensboro League of Mothers' Clubs as delegates. Mrs. Daniels and John A. Tompkins attended the dinner given for C. B. J. Snyder, the architect of the public schools.

Mrs. Daniels reported that Dr. J. A. Ferguson, chairman of buildings and sites committee for the board of education, has recommended to the superintendents that a permanent building for Public School 101 be placed on the 1924 budget.

The treasury contains about $100 from dues, $50 for the skating fund, and $100 net from the bridge party for the playground.

AUTOMATIC TELEPHONE IN POLICE BOOTHS

The civic committee of the Women's Club has achieved a triumph. It has succeeded in getting the automatic telephone in the police booth on Station Square and the Boulevard. One number now serves both booths. Call Boulevard 6222 and the bell rings in both stations. This insures prompt service from the police who are co-operating splendidly with the civic committee.

SPRING CLEAN-UP IN THE GARDENS

Encouraging progress is being made by Gardens Corporation in getting the streets and vacant lots cleaned up, and the first two Saturdays and Sundays of April, which were especially designated as Adopt-a-Vacant-Lot days, brought out a gratifying number of men folks with rakes and bonfires. There is still, however, a great deal to do and it is hoped within the next two weeks all the residents will take a hand.

The streets are cleaner than they have been at any time for the past year. The worst of the dirt, including a lot of animal and vegetable matter, was first cleaned up under the direction of the committee by men with hand-brooms. The horse street sweeper was put to work last week. Negotiations between Gardens Corporation and the Water Department are now under way, looking toward securing city permission to use the hydrants to flush the streets and the sewers.

Residents are particularly asked to use every care in keeping ash and garbage receptacles covered and in removing them from the curb as soon as the ash men empty them. Papers should be securely tied into parcels that will not break open and allow their contents to be scattered by the wind. There is greater reason than ever for the property owners to be careful in these matters now that the cleaning of the streets and protecting the physical beauty of the town must be paid for out of the funds of the corporation of which they are members.

Residents are also asked to keep a watchful eye on the lamp posts, whose artistic beauty adds so much to the charm of the streets, and, when trucks or delivery wagons collide with these posts and break them, to note the name and license number of the wagon and notify the secretary or some one of the directors, so that the owner of the wagon can be made to pay the damage. These posts cost about $100 apiece to replace.

The beauty, comfort, and health of the Gardens now rests to a greater extent than ever before with the residents. The committees of Gardens Corporation, entrusted by the property owners with various duties connected with the well-being of the place, are dependent to a great degree on the co-operation of the residents and are hopeful, with the aid of each individual member of the community, that improvement in many ways will be apparent in better kept streets, fewer disfiguring open spaces, and less broken glass in the streets, as the time approaches when the trees and shrubs take on their spring foliage.

FIRE-ENGINE HOUSE STARTED

Ground has been broken at the corner of Queens Boulevard and Atom Place for a new fire engine house which will cost $25,000, exclusive of the land. Fire Commissioner Thomas J. Drennan wielded the shovel.

According to the information given out by the fire commissioner's office, this will be a two company house, containing hook and ladder company and engine company. The architecture will harmonize with the buildings of Forest Hills. The construction will be of brick and limestone. The building itself and the apparatus will be the most modern. The apparatus, kitchen and recreation rooms will be on the first floor; the dormitory and officers' quarters on the second floor and the attic will be used for supplies. The building will be completed as soon as possible.

A modern fire engine house has long been a serious need of Forest Hills and Kew Gardens and this new plant will supply that need and it will also be a help to Flushing and other places.

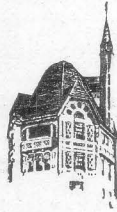

THE LEGION PUBLISHES A MONTHLY PAPER

The Forest Hills Post is the official publication of the Forest Hills Post, American Legion, and the first number appeared in March. It will appear monthly except July and August. Its editor is H. D. Canaday and he is assisted by G. E. Fahys, Jr., M. J. Folensbee, Dr J. J. Posner, N. Canaday and Mrs. Ward J. MacNeal. The aim of the paper is to encourage interest in the post by printing the news of the organization and its members.

The April number contains a lengthy communication from the Commander, Thomas B. Paton, Jr., dwelling upon the ideals for which the boys fought in the Great War and showing that the only standard of worth in times of peace as well as war is in service.

The subscription price of the little paper is 50 cents a year.

THE INN

The tennis season at Forest Hills will open on Saturday, April 14. The courts have been thoroughly overhauled and are in excellent condition.

The Inn is doing a capacity business, and particularly heavy requests are coming in daily for the summer months. Renovations are practically complete and the house will present a most attractive appearance when the outside painting is finished.

Aside from the regular hotel business, the management has been busily engaged in catering to numerous private entertainments, having had a number of private card parties, luncheons and dinner parties. Several private dances are booked for the months of April and May.

An elaborate wedding reception was held at the Inn on April 4, following the wedding of Miss R. Gordon of New York and A. Galligan of Boston. The sun porch was effectively decorated and an attractive menu was served, after which the party enjoyed themselves in the ballroom. The new Inn orchestra played during the luncheon and for the dance.

E. Kretschmar, general director of the Hotel Bristol in Berlin and one of the most prominent European hotel men, was the guest of Mr. Bernbach, the Inn manager, at a luncheon on April 5, at which were present R. G. Sanderson, manager of the St. Regis Hotel, New York; Henry Rost, manager of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York, also other prominent hotel men.

Mrs. Charles Irwin entertained at a dinner party of ten on Saturday, April 7, in the sun porch. The table was very attractively decorated. Another very lovely party was given by Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Harn for fourteen.

The Sunday night concerts, when New York artists appear, have proven a decided success, and at the request of numerous guests of the Inn and residents of the Gardens, the management will continue this high-class entertainment, which is complimentary to resident guests and residents of the Gardens as well.

Two very interesting war motion pictures, "Flashes from the Front" and "Battle of the Somme," were shown in the ballroom on Monday evening, April 9, under the auspices of the American Legion.

The members of the tennis committee of the Inn were guests at a dinner given by the manager, George J. Bernbach, on Monday, April 9, and in the next issue of the BULLETIN the results of the business meeting which followed the dinner will be published.

Several large dinner parties are planned for Saturday, April 14, and requests for dinner reservations in the sun porch of the Inn are coming in daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hagar have returned to the Inn for a prolonged stay, welcomed by their numerous friends.

Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Hewlett have returned from a trip to Panama, and will remain at the Inn for an indefinite period.

Miss Elizabeth Williamson has returned from a visit to the exposition in Rio de Janeiro.

The Misses Dorothy and Frances Downing and Master Richard Downing are visiting their father, J. F. Downing.

One of the new arrivals at the Inn is Wm. M. Schultz. We also have as our guests Mrs. M. Wessmann and Miss Tapley Wessmann, her daughter, and Masters Alfred and Henry Wessmann, of the Gardens.

The well-known Japanese tennis star, L. Kashio, and Mrs. Kashio are registered at the Inn.

S. Burke, of London, has joined his wife, Jessie Burke, the famous English singer.

Mrs. G. N. Hallett and Miss G. B. Hallett, of London, England, have returned to the Inn for an indefinite stay.

Lady Dunford and Miss Billbrook, both of London, England, have made arrangements for a stay of several months beginning April 16.

C. P. Fenlon, who has returned from an extended trip West and a visit to Atlantic City, will be joined later by Mrs. Fenlon, who prolonged her stay in Atlantic City.

Mrs. F. von Briesen and her daughter, Miss Gernda von Briesen, and little son Han, are registered at the Inn.

Miss Bobbie Doyle was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Doyle.

Mrs. H. Worthington Stuart, of Clifton, Cincinnati, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Sally Pierce.

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

The minister, Rev. C. E. Silcox, spoke last Sunday morning on "Three Gardens." The themes for the next two Sundays are as follows:

April 15: "The Implications of the Fatherhood of God."

April 22. "The Implications of the Brotherhood of Man."

A sermon preached by the minister on Easter Sunday afternoon in the First Church in Fairfield, Conn., entitled "The Larger Meaning of Easter" is to be printed for general distribution in pamphlet form.

The Wednesday evening conferences on "The Organization of the Church in the Light of the Present World Situation" began on Wednesday evening, April 4, with a very gratifying attendance. Last Wednesday the special theme was "The Organization of the Church for Worship." Other subjects to be taken up at successive meetings will include: "The Educational Task of the Church," "The Church and Social Recreational Interests," "The Church and Public Welfare," "The Problem of Church Unity," "The Church and the Cure of Souls," "The Church and Methods of Propaganda," the series concluding with a conference on "General Problems of Correlation and Administration." It is intended to prepare before each conference a syllabus of the general treatment of the subject to assist those who may care to enter into the discussion.

The Informal Sunday evenings for young people of the parish will begin next Sunday evening, and in order that the informal atmosphere of the home may be preserved, the meeting will be held not at the church but at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Woodward, 31 Greenway Terraces.

LECTURE FOR PARENTS

Dr. William H. Kilpatrick, professor of the philosophy of education at Teachers College, who will lecture on "Education for Character," at the Church-in-the-Gardens on Monday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock, is a clear thinker, with a sense of humor, altogether a convincing speaker. He is a leader in thought in the project method. Dr. Kilpatrick's books are: "The Montessori System Examined," "Froebel's Kindergarten Principles" and "The Dutch Schools of New Netherlands and Early New York." Members of the Mothers' Club of Forest Hills Gardens will be admitted free, for the lecture is given under the club's auspices. All others will pay 50 cents each.

OUT-DOOR KINDERGARTEN

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the out-door class of the Gardens Kindergarten on May 1. The kindergarten is now conducted by Miss Louise Hanson in the Tennis Apartments and it will be located just around the corner from its present place of meeting when it is held out-of-doors. A huge umbrella will protect the children while at work from the rays of the sun. There will be a sand box, individual gardens and other things to make the children healthy and happy. The hours will be 9:30 to 12 in the morning and 1:30 to 5 in the afternoon. Telephone 10251 Boulevard.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Subjects to be discussed at the Presbyterian Church the next two Sundays are as follows: Sunday, April 15, "Should We Confess?" and the following Sunday, "The Mind as Healer."

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church held the most successful annual meeting in its history on Wednesday evening, March 28. Tables had been laid for a large crowd and almost every seat was occupied. At the conclusion of the dinner, the company sang a variety of well-known songs and each country represented sang a native melody. Miss Norma Bingham accompanied at the piano.

Reports were read from the various organizations of the church, showing marked progress along all the lines of the church's activity. At the conclusion of the reports, the meeting was given over to a discussion of the future progress of the church, and plans were laid to make provision for the expanding life of the congregation. The extension of the church building in order to house the new organ and to provide extra room for the Sunday School and the church is shortly to go forward. It was felt, however, that the day would soon come when it would be necessary to build a church large enough to take care of all the expected growth of the next few years and the official boards are now formulating plans and ways and means whereby this project can be taken care of.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORS

Mrs. Edwin E. Bush, Seminole Avenue, returned ten days ago from Los Angeles where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. deB. Newman.

Since the last edition of the BULLETIN Affa Gray has had a little set-back, but as this number goes to press she is steadily although slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrett, Puritan Avenue, will entertain their son's wife, Mrs. Theodore Barrett, and daughter, Ananelle, from Washington, D. C., this summer. Last summer the little girl and her mother were popular guests in the Barrett home.

The spring vacation of the schools and colleges comes at different times. Some of the young people were home during the last of March and some are arriving today. These vacations last about a week.

Mrs. D. McKenzie and children, Kelvin Street, have spent a few days at Atlantic City.

Carl C. Joys, Jr., has resigned as district sales manager of the Steel & Tube Co. of America, to accept the position of vice-president of the Lucey Mfg. Co., a large distributor of oil well equipment. Mr. Joys has not decided upon the future place of residence, but the family will be in Forest Hills at least for the Summer.

CLASSES IN CORRECT ENGLISH

Edward Harold Conway announces that he is conducting classes in correct English every Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Gordon Pearce, 118 Dartmouth Street. Weekly evening classes have been formed for business men and women and others unable to attend the afternoon sessions. There is also a midday class on Wednesdays for those who find the noon hour more convenient than either afternoon or evening.
