REPAIRS TO GARDENS STREETS

Material Expected Daily After Railroad Delays— Borough President's Office Provides Signs To Stop Heavy Trucks.

Within a few days, possibly before the BULLETIN reaches you this week, work will have begun on repairing the streets of the Gardens, something for which they show a deplorable need.

Gardens Corporation, after a thorough canvass of available materials and their costs and after the streets had been examined by specialists in road repairing, ordered, some time ago, enough Tarvia from the Barrett Company to make the necessary repairs. This material has been shipped and is on its way here. Railroad delays have so far prevented its arrival and efforts are being made to expedite its delivery.

The repairs will be made by the regular Gardens Corporation workmen under the direction of an expert from the company. Broken stone, with which the Tarvia is mixed when applied to the streets, is already on hand. It is thought that, although there are a great many holes to mend, the work can be completed rapidly.

Progress is also reported in regulating traffic on the Gardens streets to the end of making them safer as well as to protect the roadbed. The Police Department has reduced the heavy trucking on Ascan Avenue and within ten days the office of Borough President Connolly will place official signs at both ends of Ascan Avenue, and at Burns Street and the Turnpike, calling attention to the fact that the streets are private property and forbidding trucking through them. The corporation has arranged for other signs calling attention to the speed limit.

The police department has also taken steps to stop the abuse of the Gardens streets by motor car instructors who recently have been using Ascan Avenue as a rink, much to the danger of both drivers and pedestrians.

GARDENS PLAYERS IN LITTLE THEATRE TOURNAMENT

Twenty of the Little Theatre organizations of the Metropolitan District are now each busily whipping their selected plays into shape for presentation on Broadway during the tournament week beginning May 7. Wednesday, May 9, is the night on which the Gardens Players are booked to appear, and they will produce "The Clock," by Robert Courtney.

The cast of "The Clock" will be the same as when it was given in the first bill of this season, and includes Blanche Lopez, Frederick Smith, Edward Swazey and Melville Greig. Appearing on the same night as the Gardens Players will be the Fireside Players of White Plains, the Alliance Players of Jersey City, and the Temple Players of Manhattan. Other groups to play during the week will represent Bridgeport, Scarsdale, Greenwich, New Rochelle, Great Neck, Trenton, Brooklyn, Cranford, Nyack and Montclair.

From the twenty plays to be presented, a committee of five judges will select three to be repeated on the two Saturday performances, and to each of these organizations a prize of $100 will be awarded. To the best of these three David Belasco will present a trophy signifying distinction, which will be held by the winning group until the tournament of 1924, when it will again be competed for.

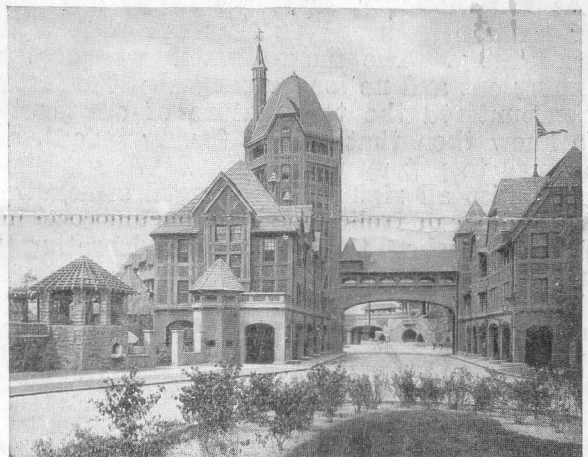

Walter Hartwig, general manager of the tournament, which has been arranged under the auspices of the New York Drama League, has been fortunate in securing the Bayes Theatre, on 44th Street, for the week, though it was necessary to postpone it one week beyond the date originally planned.

One hundred orchestra seats have been allotted to the Gardens Players for the Wednesday night on which they appear, and these may be obtained from Miss Mary E. Taylor, Flower Shop, Greenway Terraces, at $1.65 each. Miss Taylor will also arrange for securing tickets to the other performances of the week, or they may be obtained by addressing the Little Theatre Tournament, 29 West 47th Street. The box office sale will begin Thursday, May 3.

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT INN.

The Forest Hills Inn is being recognized as a delightful and an easily accessible place in which to hold conventions. At the joint call of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, and the various interdenominational organizations engaged in educational work, a conference will be held at the Inn, the first session beginning at 7:45 Wednesday evening, May 2, and the last session being held on the following Friday afternoon. The general subject of the different programs of the sessions will be "Correlation of Educational Programs," and from the list of eminent speakers and the details of the plans, this promises to be a most important, instructive and interesting conference. The speaker at the session to be held on the afternoon of May 3 will be Rev. C. E. Silcox, minister of the Church-in-the-Gardens.

With the aesthetic charm of the Gardens and the location of the Inn only 15 minutes from Manhattan, it is reasonable to expect frequent bookings of conventions and conferences at this hotel. Later when the Community House is finished, it will provide another meeting place for the sessions, and the visitors will find the Inn a most convenient place in which to be house guests.

HOSPITAL BENEFIT SUCCESSFUL

The dinner and bridge given by the Forest Hills Auxiliary of the Jamaica Hospital at the Pomonok Country Club, April 21 was completely successful. There were thirty tables of bridge, some fifty odd guests at dinner and four tables of the new Chinese game, "Pung Chow," in the Governors' room under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Brion. The auxiliary will turn over about $350 to the fund received from the sale of tickets and various donated articles, and is grateful to the local tradesmen and many others who helped so generously.

This is the first of a series of entertainments planned by the auxiliary to help in the completion of the hospital, so badly needed in this neighborhood, and which is now in course of erection in Jamaica. Mrs. L. R. Blackhurst, 104 Ascan Avenue, is treasurer of the local auxiliary. Contributions may be sent directly to her.

BISHOP SHIPMAN TO SPEAK

On Monday evening, May 14, under the auspices of the Forest Hills Post, American Legion, Suffragan Bishop Shipman, former chaplain of the 104th Field Artillery of the A. E. F. will speak at an open meeting of the post at the Inn. All friends of the ex-soldiers are invited to attend.

The members of the post have challenged the Forest Hills Arrows to play a game of ball on the Playground at 3 p. m. on Saturday afternoon, April 28.

SPRING SONG WITH VARIATIONS

WE were somewhat delayed this year in writing our Spring editorial by a badly chapped pair of hands (we are ambidextrous and readily compose with either) and an old-fashioned hard cold on the chest, for which we could no longer procure the old-fashioned hard liquor which used to make too speedy a cure so repulsive to our finer sensibilities. Moreover, frequent heart-to-heart sessions with our vamp of a furnace, interspersed with hurried trips to the coal yard to keep the old girl fed up and in good humor, cut into the time we had allotted to reinforcing the weather strips.

At last, however, came the happy day when our ice-man informed us that our refrigerator was leaking. The melted water was actually running out and no longer congealed the instant it encountered the temperature of our pantry. We knew then that it was Spring indeed, and hastened to put up the screens. We got ahead of the flies all right, but managed somehow to let a number of frolicsome little pneumococci into our system, where they have been celebrating the season ever since.

We feel that it is Spring and we rejoice. Every fertilizer-laden breath that wafts from the adjacent heath confirms our suspicions. The ice has vanished from the streets, exposing the familiar vernal chuck-holes, and we are thinking of equipping our car with caterpillar treads. Of course, these are not the sort of caterpillars that bloom into butterflies; but if reminders of nature we must have there are the dear feathered songsters whose sweet insistent chatter wakes us each morning in plenty of time for the 5:23 to the city. This is a touch of nature so delightful that, as we grope to close the open casement, our teeth seem to chatter, too, in sheer sympathy.

Yes, Spring is positively here. We repeat the statement, if only for the sake of euphony. And after we have raked all the sodden old paper bags from under our rose bushes, and given the front door a fresh coat of paint, and beaten the life out of all the rugs in the house, and planted our early onions (weeping a little in anticipation), and tidied up the cellar, and kicked to the stationery store because our morning paper capers windily all over Forest Hills like a real estate agent trying to rent houses—why, we mean to write an editorial about it!

R. E. R.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Halifax, N. S., are visiting at the home of Mrs. I. W. Backus, having just returned from spending the winter in Florida.

F. C. Pinkham, now residing at 86 Greenway North, has purchased the Treumpy home, at 93 Greenway North. J. F. Morris, of 69 Ibis Street has purchased the house owned by Dr. J. B. Ogden, at 92 Greenway North.

THE INN

The tennis season opened on Saturday, April 14. A number of new members have enrolled already. Inasmuch as the enrollment is now extremely heavy, it was also decided not to issue guest cards on Saturdays, Sundays or holidays. The issuance of family cards has been eliminated.

Mrs. Walter Doerschuck entertained a party of twenty-six on Saturday, April 14, in the sunporch, where also Miss Sally Pierce entertained for Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stuart of Cincinnati and other friends.

Mrs. H. C. von Elm entertained on Saturday, April 21, at dinner and dancing for ten.

An especially pretty party was given by Mr. and Mrs. R. Runge for fourteen the same day.

On Sunday morning, April 22, the Knights of Columbus held their Annual Communion Breakfast at the Inn with 300 in attendance.

F. J. Hardy has returned to the Inn after a vacation which he spent in the South.

Elmer Bobst has returned from a trip to North Carolina. J. P. Downs has also returned from a trip South, where he attended an executive meeting of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Lady Peggy Dunsford arrived on Monday, April 16, in company with Miss Lydia Billbrook, of London.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Adair have returned after a prolonged trip in Florida.

Miss A. McPike is registered at the Inn again after a trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blakeley have returned from an extensive trip through the South and Mexico.

Mrs. C. W. Bliss and Mrs. W. J. Bliss have returned accompanied by Miss Alice L. Bliss and Master Tyler H. Bliss.

Among the new arrivals at the Inn are H. W. Frank of Cincinnati; Mrs. Margaret Hindley of Paterson, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Muldavin of Vedado, Cuba; Harold L. Smith of Milwaukee; Mrs. Francis Martine of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott of New Rochelle; John L. Clarkson of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wigton of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Mendlin of Jamaica and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning of Palm Beach, Fla.

CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA REVEALED

Allen T. Burns, director of the National Information Bureau, who has recently spent six months in Russia investigating conditions there, was the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens held at the home of Mrs. F. Clark Thompson, Winter Street, on April 13, in the afternoon. In the last five or six years there have been many speakers on a variety of subjects in Forest Hills and the writer has heard most of them, but no one has been more clear, direct and illuminating than Mr. Burns. His description of famine conditions is unforgettable. Agriculture has failed because of the war, revolution and confiscation by the Bolsheviks. The Bolsheviks have been compelled to stop applying communism to agriculture and they are gradually withdrawing it from industry. In Russia they have a theory of education but no schools. There is a gradual, evolutionary improvement in conditions there as confiscation is stopped. There is as much autocratic rule now as under the Czar because 500,000 Bolsheviks rule the 138,000,000 Russians. Still even the people of the old regime do not want another change. Mr. Burns was particularly gifted in answering questions.

A FORTUNATE AUDITOR.

CLEANING UP

The Cord Meyer Development Company has been very busy cleaning up litter from the vacant property in Forest Hills, carting it far from the sight of the residents. A surprising amount had accumulated during the winter. The present appearance of the vacant property should be an incentive to the people. Many of the lots were ploughed, rolled and sown to grass. Along Seminole Avenue the vacant corners were planted with flowering shrubs that will add to the beauty of this street. A donation towards this last work was raised by members of the Women's Club in the Club House zone. This zone received the prize recently awarded to the best kept zone.

WHAT OUR POLICE DEPARTMENT IS DOING FOR FOREST HILLS

The Civics Committee of the Women's Club is very proud of the co-operation it is receiving from the police department in the matter of caring for the safety of Forest Hills. Within the past two months much has been accomplished, including:

The installation of an automatic telephone connecting the two police telephone booths. The call is Boulevard 6329.

The parking of automobiles on Continental Avenue according to police regulations, so as to prevent interference with the business of the shops.

Placing of safety stanchions at the intersections of Ascan Avenue and the two Greenways.

Stopping of the heavy traffic on Ascan Avenue.

And, what is more important than all, the personal interest that is being taken by Commissioner Enright, the Chief Inspector and Deputy Inspector of this District, and Captain Rhorig of the 112th Precinct, in the protection of Forest Hills.

Mrs. F. M. Knowles, chairman of safety for the civics committee and chairman of the police protection committee of Community Council, says that no more prompt and helpful police co-operation has ever been received by any community than is being extended through her to Forest Hills.

She asks that whatever complaints are made be addressed to the Civics Committee or the Council, or to her, so that they can be taken up in an orderly way and with fairness to the precinct and inspection district commanders.

CHARACTER OR CONDUCT?

"Are you training your children for character or conduct?" "Which is cause and which effect, character or conduct or both?" These and many similar questions were asked and answered by Dr. William H. Kilpatrick, professor of the philosophy of education of Teachers' College when he spoke before the Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club members and friends on Monday evening, April 23, on the subject, "Education for Character." Lawrence F. Abbott, "merely a father," husband of the president of the club, introduced the speaker.

Speaking of habit as the unit of character, Dr. Kilpatrick drove home the fact that "honesty, courtesy, etc. must be ingrained attitudes of mind." "Whatever we do with success and satisfaction we tend to do again and whatever we do with failure and annoyance we tend not to do again," and so the habits are formed. Punishment, practicing decision, stick-to-it-iveness, the spoiled child, obedience and coercion all were treated psychologically and with a sense of humor. And finally the parents were told to respect their children as persons and to work with them.

Donations to the playground fund should be sent to Miss Maude L. Wallace, 23 Ingram Street.

TREE SURGEONS FOR OLIVIA PARK

Following a meeting of the directors of Gardens Corporation last week, it was announced that Olivia Park is to have the attention of tree surgeons this spring and steps taken to protect its beauties in scientific fashion. Dr. Philip Cole, whose beautiful grounds border the park on one side, has offered to give Olivia Park the services of the Davey Tree Expert Co., Inc., whose men will care for the trees there according to the best modern method. The generous offer of Dr. Cole will be much appreciated by everyone who values the unique charm of this little sylvan dell.

BOYS' DAY TO BE CELEBRATED

Various city organizations interested in the welfare of boys have co-operated in arranging the second annual Boys' Week celebration from April 29 to May 5. Monday, April 30, has been specially designated as "Boys' Day in School." In Public School 3 a special assembly will be held at 9 o'clock in the school assembly room, with an appropriate program. All parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to be present. The Rev. Albert Sheppard will be the speaker on the subject "Grit and Gumption."

BOYS HAD THEIR EYES OPEN

The department store delivery van that ran into the lamp post on Greenway South near Ascan Avenue a few weeks ago, smashing the post and lamp, has been identified and the damage is in course of adjustment by Gardens Corporation with the company owning the van. Residents have to thank Lyman Abbott and Alexander Keyes, who saw the accident and got the name of the firm, for their alertness which made it possible for the directors to act at once. It is hoped that other boys and girls will keep an eye out for similar things.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH

Choral Club Delights Its Friends—Annual Election May 8.

The annual meeting of the Choral Club will be held in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens on Tuesday evening, May 8, and officers will be elected. The nominating committee consists of W. W. Bruce, Mrs. W. R. Clymer, Mrs. A. N. Atkinson, Mrs. S. E. Davenport, Jr., and Donald G. Clark.

Under the leadership of Bruno Huhn, the Choral Club gave its fourth concert on the evening of April 20, before a capacity house, in the Masonic Temple. It was a very happy and successful occasion. The club has shown decided and steady improvement since its first appearance in 1921, and the audience extended hearty approval by insisting on many encores. Beside to Mr. Huhn and club members, well-deserved praise must be given to Miss Alice M. Shaw for her most skillful accompanying, and to Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, president, who, by devotion and untold hours of concentration on the club's work, made the success of the evening's concert possible.

The cellist, Cornelius Van Vliet, is a master of his instrument, and played with skill, ease and charm two groups and many encores of difficult music, which were received with the greatest enthusiasm. Others assisting in the program were: Miss Suzanne Zimmerman, whose soprano voice has volume and power; Mrs. Frederick Kiendl, whose readings gave great pleasure; Mrs. Ada Park Maddux, cornetist, who ably played an obligato to the "Aida" march sung by the male chorus and Mrs. C. C. Miller, who also played an obligato part graciously and artistically. All helped in the ensemble of another achievement on the part of the Choral Club.

General dancing was enjoyed after the concert.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The Women's Club will hold its annual meeting at the Inn on Monday afternoon, May 7, at 2 o'clock. Election of officers will take place and the reports of various chapters and committees will be given. The work accomplished by this splendid, large organization is so diverse and far reaching that the reports are extremely interesting.

The speaker will be Miss Katherine Sloane Ward, who is a special agent for the National Child Labor Committee.

A most attractive musical program will be given by Edgar Bowman on the piano. Mr. Bowman accompanies Havrah Hubbard when he gives his operalognes, and has been heard twice in Forest Hills. Mr. Bowman will play: (1) Gavotte in B Minor by Bach-Saint Saens, (2) Erotic by Grieg, (3) Rhapsody in C Major by Dohnanyi. Mrs. E. M. Guyon has secured the services of Mr. Bowman.

The current readings chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Penn, 40 Shorthill Road, on Tuesday afternoon, May 8, when Miss Nella Braddy, of the Doubleday, Page Company, will talk on "Books, Current and Coming."

CHARITY CARD PARTY

Mrs. Laurence Lachman, Misses Mabel and Caroline Sondheim and Miss Bertha Mandel gave a most delightful card party at the Seminole Avenue Clubhouse on the evening of April 23. The party proceeds, amounting to $90, went to private charity. The refreshments and prizes were donated. There were 80 people who bought tickets and 40 attended the party.

DANCING PUPILS' RECITAL

The pupils of Miss Kathryn B. Van Orden will give a very entertaining and unusual recital on Saturday evening, April 28, at 8:15 p. m., in the Masonic Temple, Queens Boulevard. After the kiddies conclude their program, dancing will be enjoyed by all.

PAINTING OF STATION

The Inn is attractive in its new coat of paint, and the whole Station Square will be greatly improved when the station is painted to correspond with the Inn. The Long Island Railroad has promised to so paint the trimmings of the station platform.

CHURCH - IN - THE - GARDENS

Tomorrow morning the minister, Rev. C. E. Silcox, will preach on "The Rising Generation," and the soloist will be George F. Taylor, baritone. During the month of May, the soloist is to be Mrs. William Furgerson, and for that month, which includes Mothers' Day, Whitsunday and the Sunday before Memorial Day, the minister is announcing a series of sermons. The sermon on May 6 will be on the theme: "The Higher Economy."

At the Wednesday evening conference on April 18, the minister used a graphophone to illustrate different types of ancient and modern church music, revealing the particular peculiarities of the music of the Jewish synagogue, the Roman and Russian churches, and raised several questions concerning the most desirable type of church music for the Church-in-the-Gardens. Last Wednesday evening the topic was "The Educational Task of the Church" and this is to be followed by conferences on "The Responsibility of the Church for the Social and Recreational Needs of the Community" and "The Church and the Formation of Public Opinion."

Two informal Sunday evening gatherings, primarily for young people, have been held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodward, 31 Greenway Terraces, which have been largely attended. These gatherings are to be continued for a few more Sunday evenings, at the same hour, and an open invitation to attend is extended to all the friends, old and new, of the parish.

The Women's Guild will meet on the afternoon of Friday, May 11, when Rev. Henry Leiper will speak on "Recent Missionary Experiences in China"—the place to be announced.

DEATH OF JOHN A. McFARLAN

The community has been deeply moved by the death of John Alexander McFarlan, 44 Stocum Crescent, on Wednesday, April 18. About one year ago, Mr. McFarlan had a serious illness and during his convalescence he and Mrs. McFarlan enjoyed a very happy visit at the home of his only brother, Frederick Knight McFarlan, in Berkeley, Cal. When they returned, Mr. McFarlan resumed his position with the auditing department of the Long Island Railroad with which he had been connected for the last 35 years. Pleurisy and pneumonia of only a week's duration proved fatal. Funeral services were conducted at the home on the afternoon of April 20 by Rev. C. E. Silcox, of the Church-in-the-Gardens; burial services were conducted at Cypress Hills by the Reliance Masonic Lodge of Brooklyn, of which Mr. McFarlan was a member.

Mr. McFarlan was born in Brooklyn and married Mary Elliott Tuttle, also a Brooklyn resident. In 1911 they moved to the Gardens into the house in which he died, and as pioneers have been interested and helpful in the various activities here. In the words of Mr. Silcox, in his expression from the pulpit of the Church-in-the-Gardens, the entire community joins: "With sympathy, affection and prayers we remember Mrs. McFarlan, who has been so active in all community and church affairs."

DEATH OF WALTER S. MAYER

Walter S. Mayer, Continental Avenue, died April 14 after an illness of three months. Father Mummey, of Richmond Hill, conducted the services at the home on April 16, and the burial took place in Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Mayer and his wife (Maud Walsh Mayer) and son, Thomas W., moved to Forest Hills in 1914 and have been enthusiastic residents of the village. There are also three nephews in the family. The many friends of the family extend the most heartfelt sympathy.

A HELP TO MOTHERS

Mrs. A. C. Jessup, 17 Ingram Street, announces that she will care for young children in her home when mothers wish to leave their children there. They will be given competent care not only in Mrs. Jessup's home, but also she is willing to go to the homes of the children.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday: 10 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., public worship. Mr. Sheppard will preach on "The Accusing Voice." The Christian Endeavor Society will meet in the Sunday School rooms at 7 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. J. Magill, Kelvin Street, on Monday afternoon. After the transaction of the usual business, Mrs. C. Orfutt, of Flushing, one of the most active workers in the Big Sisters of Queens Borough, addressed the ladies on the work of that organization, and enlisted the co-operation of the Auxiliary.

Excavations are being started on the extension work of the church. The extension is to take care of the organ space, and also more space for the Sunday School and additional rooms for the church.

THE MEN ENTERTAIN THE LADIES

A very delightful meeting of the Men's Club was held last Thursday night, April 26, at the Inn, when the ladies were the especially invited guests. The speaker was William R. George, founder of the George Junior Republic, and known to hundreds of boys and girls as "Daddy George," who spoke of his most interesting work both in this country and in France. This annual meeting, when the men entertain their wives, daughters and sisters is always enjoyable.
