CHRISTMAS DAY IN FOREST HILLS

Program to Be Given in Public School 3 at 4 o'clock
—The Forest Hills Association in Charge.

The officers of The Forest Hills Association have issued invitations to the members of the association, their families and guests, to attend the annual Christmas festivity on Christmas Day, 4 p. m., in the auditorium of Public School 3. The committee has arranged a program of such varied interest as will provide an afternoon of special delight to the children in particular, and so to the parents and friends. Carols, thrown upon the screen, will be sung; moving picture reels, including that of the Fourth of July celebration, will be given; a special novelty feature act will be staged, and last, as well as best of all, Santa Claus has promised to be present to give to each child in Forest Hills an appropriate gift, on condition that he be allowed to show himself to the children in his accustomed manner—that is, by way of a chimney. So he is sending on his workmen beforehand to construct a chimney for him on the stage, down which he will descend with his bundle on his back. The program is to commence at 4 p. m. sharp, in order that Santa Claus may not be kept waiting.

SCENE OF CHORAL CLUB PROGRAM ON CHRISTMAS EVE

PERMANENT TENNIS STADIUM

A Concrete-Steel Structure That Will Accommodate Twenty Thousand People.

The New York Evening Post of Dec. 20, says: "As a rule, the followers of any sport seldom have much of interest to themselves come out of any of the meetings which are held during the off season. But tennis enthusiasts this year can hardly make this complaint, for the annual meeting of the executive committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, held Saturday, provided interest of the very keenest sort for those who follow the game. There was nothing cut and dried about the meeting. Several interesting resolutions were adopted, but overshadowing everything else was the assurance that the United States, and New York in particular, would have a tennis stadium well able to vie with the recently erected Wimbledon, the fame of which has spread from England all around the tennis-playing globe.

"This comes about through the hearty approval of the executive committee granted to the West Side Tennis Club's offer to construct a concrete and steel tennis enclosure capable of seating 20,000 spectators. It means that the famous tennis club at Forest Hills, the turf of which has already seen some of the most historic events of tennis, will become virtually the centre of the game in the United States. It is supposed that the erection of the new stands will start this coming year and that they will be ready for the season of 1924."

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

"WHAT can save the world from war and destruction?" was the searching question which Giovanni Papini kept asking himself after the Great War. To this modern Florentine, seeking truth, there came this solemn answer: "The only solution is to change the spirit of mankind—to turn it toward religion." To this end he has written "The Story of Christ," which has been translated from the Italian by the reverent scholar, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, and is appearing in the Pictorial Review—a layman's account of the life of the "Supreme Artist in Living," whose birthday is celebrated throughout the world at this happy Christmas season.

In this profoundly dramatic and inspiring story of the One who "went about doing good," the first chapter tells of the Nativity, and with rare beauty of phrase and thought depicts the tale of the wise men whose gold, frankincense and myrrh, brought to the baby Jesus, established the precedent of Christmas gifts.

The Christmas Eve and Christmas Day celebrations in the Gardens and in Forest Hills are held in commemoration of a great fact in religious history. They also emphasize the community family feeling which exists here. While we are merry in the reunited family circles around our happy firesides, and while we are glad because of the community spirit which is here and will abide, we shall not forget those unfortunate children outside of our community, to whom our gifts will furnish Christmas cheer.

BULLETIN SERVICE

The meeting when the Gardens Corporation was organized was adjourned at 10:30 p. m., Dec. 7. On the evening of Dec. 8 the BULLETIN, giving a full account of the meeting, had been printed, was in the mails, and was delivered on Dec. 9. The editor has been accused of having had advanced information, but that is obviously untrue.

CHAPERONES AT MOVING PICTURE HOUSE

As the law forbids young people under sixteen years of age to enter moving picture theatres unattended, several members of the Women's Club of Forest Hills will be present at the Forest Hills Theatre every Saturday afternoon, beginning with Dec. 30, where they will act as chaperones.

Mlle. Augustine Galland, teacher of French and seamstress, can be reached by telephoning Boulevard 9907.

WINS JUDGMENTSupreme Court Decides in Favor of Sage Foundation Homes Company in Suit Against Sage-Forest Hills Associates, Inc.

On Dec. 13 the Hon. Justice Van Siclen, sitting in the Supreme Court of the County of Queens, rendered a decision in favor of the Sage Foundation Homes Company, plaintiff, against the Sage-Forest Hills Associates, Inc., defendants. The Sage Foundation Homes Company instituted suit against the Sage-Forest Hills Associates, Inc., composed of former employees of the Homes Company, to restrain them from the use of the name "Sage," and from the use of advertisements similar to those of the Homes Company. In rendering his decision, Justice Van Siclen states: "The defendants seek to justify their position by endeavoring to show that they only intend to sell property, and that they have a right to do. But when they adopt a name and conduct their business in such a way as to make it appear that they henceforth are to be the selling side of what formerly constituted the dual organization of the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff corporation, as now constituted, is merely going to continue the development side thereof, then the plaintiff has a just cause for complaint, for which this court should grant relief. Such a course of conduct, if allowed to continue, would be unfair in the legal sense both to the plaintiff and to the public, and may be enjoined. The relief asked for will be granted to the extent of restraining the use of the word 'Sage' and the use of advertising matter which simulates that of the plaintiff, and the use of any methods calculated to deceive or unfairly compete with the plaintiff."

PLAYERS HAVE SOCIAL EVENING

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Kiendl, 69 Greenway Terraces, the Gardens Players held an informal meeting on the evening of Dec. 17. Edward S. Swazey, president, told of the progress of the organization. There is a paid-up membership of 110 members today and the number will probably be 175 before the close of the year. The biggest difficulty that has confronted the Players in the past is a place to give the plays. Mr. Swazey announced that three bills of three plays each will be given this Winter and Spring in a large room in the Gronbeck storage warehouse, where a platform will furnish a stage and there will be seating room for 200. Four theatre parties to Manhattan have been given this fall.

Walter Hartwig, director of the Drama League, told of the opening of a new theatre in the new high school building of Bristol, Conn., on Dec. 15. This is a spacious, beautiful auditorium, very fittingly dedicated when the three act performance of "Adam and Eva" was given under the personal direction of Mr. Hartwig.

Mrs. Kiendl gave a recitation, Homer Croy brought the regrets of Don Marquis, Miss Bertha Mandel and others spoke. Miss Nell Braman gave a reading from Lady Gregory's "Workhouse Ward."

STARK YOUNG TO SPEAK

On Wednesday, Jan. 3, at the Forest Hills Inn, under the auspices of the current readings chapter, Stark Young, dramatic critic of the New Republic, will speak before the Women's Club. Mr. Young is a forceful speaker as well as a writer. His subject will be "The Theatre and Life."

By the courtesy of Frank LaForge, the music will be furnished at the January meeting by Miss Edna Bachman, soprano, accompanied by Miss Helen Moss.

The next meeting of the current reading chapter will be held on the afternoon of Jan. 16, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edward H. Mays, 175 Slocum Crescent. The subject will be Negro Literature. "Batauala," by Rene Maran, will be reviewed by Mrs. Robert C. Adams; "Carter," by Don Marquis, will be reviewed by Mrs. Lydia M. Small and Claude McKay's "Poems" will be read and reviewed by Mrs. John A. McFarlan.

PARTY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Several mothers are planning a party for all the young people of the town, in honor of those who are home from college and preparatory school. Watch for the announcement of time and place.

CHORAL CLUB SCORES TRIUMPH

Genuine Applause for a Most Successful Program—Three Assisting Artists.

The Choral Club scored a triumph on the evening of Dec. 8 when the first concert of the second season was given in the Masonic Temple before a capacity house. The regular and thorough rehearsals of the last weeks and months under the able direction of Bruno Huhn bore fruit in a program of even greater smoothness and better ensemble than were apparent in the concerts of the first year. Strong choral numbers were given by mixed voices and by the women alone and the men's chorus made a hit with two negro melodies, which the audience insisted upon hearing a second time. The last number, "The Miller's Wooing," by the mixed chorus with incidental solos, by one of the members, William Roberts, showed particularly fine training and unity.

Miss Margaret McKee, the whistler who appeared on the program by courtesy of the Music Box Revue, gave sincere delight to the appreciative audience. Her whistling is beautiful, artistic and bird-like. Her tones are pure and personally she is very good to look upon. Edwin Grasse, the blind violinist and composer added much to the program by his soulful rendering of his own compositions and those of Saint-Saens and Sinding.

Mrs. Edwin Bird Wilson was ill and could not appear, so on a short notice, Mr. Roberts, a member of the club, who has a full baritone voice, sang two songs to the delight of everyone.

BOOK REVIEWING IN FOREST HILLS

With the mass of present-day literature offered to the public, much of it desirable reading, the problem confronting people of busy lives is how to find the time for books that are appealing and worth while. One solution is to find the time to read and to hear commendable book reviews. In Forest Hills the opportunity to hear the reviews is given through two channels. The Rev. Albert Sheppard, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, gives Sunday night reviews of books dealing with history, biography, autobiography and some fiction. Mr. Sheppard applies the lessons of the books to present-day conditions in a most interesting way. A larger number of book lovers ought to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him.

The current readings chapter of the Women's Club, meeting every other Tuesday afternoon at the homes of members, attracts a large number. Books of many fields of literature are reviewed by the members; however, the majority of books covered are fiction. Mrs. Phanor J. Eder is chairman. On the afternoon of Dec. 12, at the home of Mrs. Maria Massey, Mrs. Lee Galloway discussed "The Freudian Psychology and Present-Day Fiction" in a thoroughly clear and comprehensive manner. She was not only conversant with the type of fiction she was treating and the psychology of Freud, but she referred to the writings of Henry James; "The Mind in the Making," by Robinson; "Literature in a Changing Age," by Thorndyke, and other authoritative books. Only fiction written in good taste should be accepted, was Mrs. Galloway's claim.
