CHINA AND JAPAN

Account of Trip to Orient Given at Women's Club Meeting

All Chapters Active--Distinguished Russian Speaks at the Stowe Home Under the Auspices of the Current Events Chapter

Mrs. Edward H. Mays was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Women's Club, on the afternoon of Feb. 7, and although she and Mr. Mays had taken five months to the trip, she took the club members through China and Japan in twenty-five minutes. Landing at Yokohama, Mr. and Mrs. Mays went to Tokio and enjoyed the cherry blossoms and gayety of the place. The speaker described entertainment in a Japanese home and also a theater. Rice fields, the torii and shrines in the groves of trees, and many other interesting things in Japan were depicted. Then to China they went, and the speaker told of the over-population of China, a fact which impressed her, whether she was in Shanghai or in the country. Peking, Mrs. Mays found a most interesting place. Also there she enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Allan Swartz, formerly of Forest Hills. Passing through Korea, she found it in a state of passive revolution. In closing, Mrs. Mays spoke of Ross' book, "Seeing China," and quoted from it, "China is the middle ages made visible." A musical program of great charm was given by Walter Mills, tenor, and Miss Wilhelmina Rector, pianist.

The new members elected were: Mesdames Edward W. Holland, Spier Whitaker, Andrew E. Coburn, Lester G. Hopper, N. F. Holch, Harry Law and Miss Beatrice Reinhardt.

Civic Neatness Campaign

The civic committee is very active with its clean-up propaganda. On the afternoon of Feb. 11, the central zone meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson. Mrs. N. F. Holch was elected captain of that zone, with Mesdames G. Willis Drake, Albert Farjeon, A. Van Houten, H. J. W. Vanderminden and K. C. Knobbe, lieutenants. On Monday afternoon, Feb. 14, a meeting of the playground zone was held at the home of Mrs. James Rea. Mrs. G. G. Thompson was elected captain, and Mesdames Albert M. Gray, H. C. Hamilton, H. W. Harding and two others were elected lieutenants.

The Euclid zone held a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. W. Johnson on the afternoon of Feb. 16. The Olivia zone met at the home of Miss Vollmer on the afternoon of Feb. 17. The Shorthill zone met at the home of Mrs. F. E. Smith on the afternoon of Feb. 18. The Continental zone will meet at the home of Mrs. John R. Davies, 27 Exeter street, on Thursday evening, Feb. 24, at 8 o'clock. The Clubhouse zone will meet at 3 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Robert Whyte, 54 Ibis Street, on Feb. 25.

Chapters

The philanthropic chapter cleared $100 at the card party held recently. A decided treat is in store for those who will attend the current readings chapter, at the home of Mrs. S. Ellsworth Davenport, Jr., 20 Groton Street, at 2:30 P. M., Feb. 23, when Mrs. Silas B. Brownell will review Edith Wharton's "Age of Innocence." Mrs. Brownell can speak from personal observation of New York in the 1870's.

Russia

Colonel Andrew Kalpaschnikoff, author of "A Prisoner of Trotsky's," stirred his large audience at the home of Mrs. Lyman Beecher Stowe, at the meeting of the current events chapter last Tuesday afternoon. This distinguished diplomat and soldier told of the true condition of Soviet Russia. He answered those English and Americans who spend a few weeks in Russia and then come home and praise the present government. Communism is a strong fraternity, and it has nationalized everything in Russia and a world

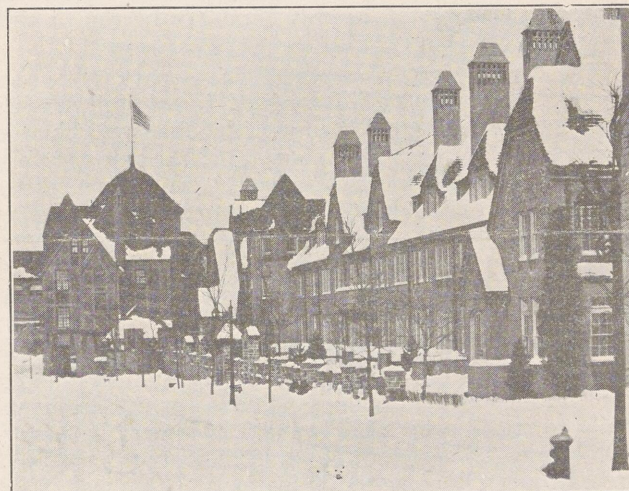

PLAYGROUND DAY

February 21 Set Aside for that Purpose—Mothers' Club Meeting in the Afternoon—Dance at Night.

Next Monday, Feb. 21, will be playground day. In the afternoon at the Mother's Club, which will meet at three o'clock at public school 3, Donald Price, of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, will speak on the subject "Playground Activities."

Playground Benefit Dance

In the evening at 8 o'clock will begin the dance which will be held, in the interest of the playground, at the Masonic Temple. Tickets are selling fast at the Inn, drug stores and by Mrs. George A. Douglass and Dr. J. A. Corscaden, playground chairmen for the Mothers' Club and the Community Council. All under sixteen years of age will be admitted for $1.00 each; for those over sixteen, the tickets are $2.50 each. Madame Tornabene's jazz band will furnish the music. Fred Stone and an assistant will do a dance at 11.40 P. M., Julius Tannen will give a monologue and Miss Beatrice Reinhardt will sing. There will be other features as surprises and there will be a buffet supper.

"LEST WE FORGET"

The way Greenway Terraces sometimes look in winter.

BIG SISTERS' DANCE

Worthy Organization Will be Benefited by a Costume Entertainment on February 22.

The costume dance, which the Big Sisters of Queensborough will give in the ballroom of the Inn on the evening of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, will be a most successful affair from every standpoint. Tickets are selling rapidly and everything is being done by the Inn management and the ladies in charge to make the party one long to be remembered. The tickets are $2.50 each and that price includes refreshments.

Mrs. Murray S. Brown is chairman for this ward for the Big Sisters and Mrs. John M. Demarest is a member of the executive committee and these ladies with an assisting committee are responsible for the dance.

The report of the Big Sisters shows a total of 57 new cases handled in this borough by this organization in the month of January.

revolution is planned. In America there are today 115,000 members of the Communist party, and recently 4,000,000 copies of their tracts have been distributed here. "Russia will save herself," he said in closing, "and the United States can save the world by her common sense." There was no doubt in the minds of those present that Russia has suffered untold misery at the hands of the Bolsheviks.

OUR NEIGHBOR—FOREST PARK

VISITORS to the Gardens are frequently attracted to climb the hill, in Forest Park, which leads to the central administration building of the Queens park system, comprising 1177 acres. The beautiful United States Flag flying from a pole near the building is the highest thing in that elevation, which is called the Overlook. From the hill top a splendid view is had, on a clear day, of the tall buildings of Manhattan and the shining waters of Flushing and other bays. A visitor is well repaid for his climb to the top of this little hill.

The central feature of the Queens park system is Forest Park, with its 536 acres of forest and glen, its excellent 18 hole golf course, (the finest within the city limits), its 18 tennis courts, its baseball grounds, splendid driveways, winding walks, service buildings and extensive greenhouse. The sum of $146,775 was named in the city's tentative budget for 1921 for widening and improving the present main drive 24 feet. Other large sums were named for improving the park in various ways.

It is to be hoped that Forest Park may be kept as nearly as possible in its natural beauty. Adjoining the Gardens as it does, it is possible for our residents daily to enjoy a bit of woodland in almost its primitive beauty. There, our children may study birds and trees while following the by-paths and they can "feel the exhilaration of the country road," as Burroughs puts it, as they digress from the asphalt. It is difficult to tell in which season the park is the most beautiful, for each season brings forth its peculiar beauty and charm. The glimpses of light through the trees at noon and the wonderful rose and violet tints of the setting sun are refreshing to tired men and women. The long walks that are possible for all of us through that enchanting woodland can mean for the residents here physical salvation and mental relaxation. All of this is at our very doors and within 15 minutes of the Manhattan stores and offices, which test our mental and physical vigor. Are we taking full advantage of Forest Park?

COPIES FOR BINDING

Certain copies are still needed before five sets of the BULLETIN can be bound. The missing numbers are in volume 2. Will any one who has a copy of volume 2, number 25, please send it to the editor, 45 Deepdene Road? Also please send two copies of volume 2, number 26, for two copies of this number are needed.

The BULLETIN office is grateful to the many friends who have kindly sent their back numbers to complete the files.

SONGS OF BIRDS

Louis Agassiz Fuertes Will Lecture for the Audubon Society.

There is no one in the country who can so perfectly imitate the songs and calls of the familiar birds as can Louis Agassiz Fuertes, of Cornell University. The Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society is particularly fortunate in securing Mr. Fuertes, who will lecture under its auspices in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens, on the evening of Mar. 19. Mr. Fuertes will use stereopticon slides in connection with his lecture. Every boy and girl in the Gardens ought to hear this treat, which will help to make familiar the songs of the birds, which frequent the shrubs and trees here and will also help to make the names of those birds a more intimate part of the young people's vocabulary. Tickets will be mailed to Audubon members. Send the names of new members to Miss Mary E. Knevels, 9 Station Square.

The Law.

It is evident from the complaints received by the Audubon Society that the fathers and mothers of Forest Hills, as well as the boys, do not know that, according to the Penal Code of the State of New York, it is illegal to give an air gun to any person under the age of sixteen years, as well as illegal for any one under the age of sixteen to carry or have in possession such a gun. To make the matter clear, below is a copy of the two provisions of the code to which reference is made.

"SECTION 1896-L. 1913ch. 608.

"A person who manufactures, or causes to be manufactured, or sells, or offers, or gives, or disposes of any instrument or weapon of the kind usually known as a black-jack, slung-shot billy, sandclub, sandbag, bludgeon, or metal knuckles, to any person; OR A PERSON WHO OFFERS, SELLS, LOANS, LEASES, OR GIVES any gun, revolver, pistol or other firearm or ANY AIR GUN, spring gun or other instrument or weapon in which the propelling force is a spring or air, or any instrument or weapon commonly known as a toy pistol, or in or upon which any loaded or blank cartridges or ammunition therefor to ANY PERSON UNDER THE AGE OF SIXTEEN YEARS, IS GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR.

"SECTION 1897-L. 1913. Ch. 608.

"Any person under the age of sixteen years, who shall have in his possession any of the articles named or described in the last section, which is forbidden therein to offer, sell, loan, lease, or give to him, shall be guilty of juvenile delinquency."

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, Greenway Terraces, are making an extended stay at Hot Springs, Arkansas. Mrs. Scammell's sister, Mrs. A. P. Maddux and daughter Miss Helen, are occupying the Scammell house while Mr. and Mrs. Scammell are away.

Miss Agnes Kendrick Gray, of the Inn, is on the editorial board of a new magazine of poetry, call The Measure.

August Martin Funke and family have rented the E. B. Wilson house, corner of Puritan Avenue and Greenway South, while the Wilsons are in California.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stickel and children have returned to the Gardens and will soon move into their house on Ingram Street. They have been for several years in Colorado. Mr. Stickel was the one who suggested the idea of the BULLETIN and he was its first editor.

Mrs. George C. Devol, 114 Greenway North, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John F. Smiley, in Dallas, Texas.

Lost—Fox terrier, with unclipped, bushy tail, brown and white spots, evenly divided on neck and back. Answers to name of Riley. Reward if returned to R. E. Renaud, 336 Burns Street.

THE INN

Saint Valentine's day was the occasion of a very jolly candy pull in the kitchen of the Inn. All the younger set were equipped with caps and aprons and joined in the actual candy making. Screams of laughter accompanied the candy pulling between the ladies and gentlemen. Dancing was enjoyed between the busy moments. Several games and special features were introduced and refreshments served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. John M. Demarest entertained a party of ladies at luncheon and bridge on Wednesday afternoon last, the guests included being: Mrs. Harry Guggenheim, Mrs. George Fuss, Mrs. Murray S. Brown, Mrs. Lester Brion, Mrs. Charles H. Goddard, Mrs. Dwight Rockwell, Miss Estelle Brion, Mrs. Karrick Collins, Mrs. Frederick Richards, Mrs. Lynn Evans, Mrs. Lambert Walker, Mrs. W. L. Fleming and Mrs. Paul Shields.

Miss Florence Spendiff, who has been a guest at the Inn for the past two years, and who is shortly sailing for Europe, gave a farewell party to several of her friends last Saturday evening in the sun parlor of the Inn, after which all participated in the dancing.

Another interesting party on Saturday evening last was that given by Mrs. F. S. Marlow to fourteen guests, most of whom were residents of Kew Gardens.

Mrs. R. W. Steele also entertained last Saturday evening before her departure for her country home in New Jersey. Mrs. Steele is the mother of F. DuBosque of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and has much enjoyed her winter stay at the Inn. It is sincerely hoped she will return at some future time.

Mr. and Mrs. Maclin Arbuckle have recently arrived at the Inn, where they anticipate remaining until the summer months, after which they go to their home in Nova Scotia. Mr. Arbuckle has until recently been "Daddy Dumplings" and is now playing in the all-star cast at the Century, "The Night Watch."

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are: William M. Chamberlin, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stickel and two children, of the Gardens; F. Brydle and J. W. Vance of Manhattan; T. T. Byars, Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. Pason Deeter, of Philadelphia; Miss Edyea Davies, of Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Colter, of Manhattan; Reginald Smith, of Niles, Mich., who is spending a week with his brother, Stafford Smith; J. S. Hughes, of Huntington, W. Va., who spent a pleasant week with his daughter, Mrs. Robert Daniels.

GARDENS PLAYERS' PRODUCTION

At the second subscription performance of the Gardens Players, three one-act plays will be presented—"Hunger," an allegory by Eugene Pillot; "Rachel," a tragedy, by Clarence Stratton, and "Pie," a comedy by Laurence Langner. These plays will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings, February 24 and 25, at the Kew Gardens Club. One of the important features of this varied bill will be the appearance of Jewel St. Leger Aldrich in the title role of "Rachel," a dramatic episode in the life of the famous French actress. The part offers unusual scope for fine and emotional acting, and will give Forest Hills an opportunity to see Mrs. Aldrich in the most important and adequate characterization she has yet undertaken for the Gardens Players. Her charming work is well known here, but hitherto she has played only comedy parts for the Players. Harvey Warren is the coach for "Rachel."

A beautiful setting, designed by Walter D. Teague, will distinguish the whimsical allegory, "Hunger," which is also in the hands of an admirable cast, who are being trained by Walter Hartwig.

"Pie," will furnish a large slice of the evening's merriment, and is a delightful comedy that was produced with great success by the Provincetown Players in New York. Last year the Gardens Players, as a group, visited this theatre and were so highly pleased with the production of "Pie" that they have transplanted it to their own stage. The performance will be under the direction of Elizabeth Williamson.

The casts will include the following members: "Hunger,"

Violet Eder, Crispia Bebb, Bryan Dorf, Channing Hare, and Frederick E. Smith.

"Rachel," Jewel St. Leger Aldrich, Mabel Claypoole, Nancy Hanks, James, Cassidy, Phanor Eder and Arthur Wilson.

"Pie," Annie Hooper, Arlene Kiliani, Walter Claypoole and Edward Packard.

In addition to the attraction of these well-acted dramas, the Gardens Players are preparing an absolute novelty for themselves and for their friends.

From the Housetops, a magazine of dramatics, is to make its bow to the Forest Hills public upon the occasion of the coming performance.

From the Housetops draws its editors, artists and contributors from the ranks of the Gardens Players—and the contents will present an extraordinary number of amusing, interesting and delectable things about amateur dramatics, and many fascinating facts about local people. No one can afford to miss this magazine, the first venture of its kind ever undertaken by the residents of Forest Hills. It will serve as a bonne bouche for the audience in the entr'actes.

From the Housetops will have on its cover a stunning silhouette of the picturesque roofs of the community—the "Housetops" from which many entertaining tales will be shouted to the reader.

CELEBRATIONS ASSOCIATION

Final Financial Report of Christmas Eve Given and Committees are Appointed for Next July Fourth.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Celebrations Association, held at the home of Henry Hirschberg, on the evening of Feb. 2, the financial report of the treasurer, Mr. Hirschberg, was given and accepted and as a final chapter is printed in this edition of the BULLETIN.

Various committees were appointed by the president, Horace MacRobert Jr., which are expected to make tentative plans for the next Fourth of July celebration. To secure the speaker of the day, the committee is composed of Lawrence F. Abbott, chairman, John M. Demarest, Judge John R. Davies, Dr. David Latshaw and Mrs. A. M. Gray. For the afternoon event in Olivia Park, the committee is composed of Mrs. George Smart, chairman, Mrs. A. J. Wilson and Louis P. McGahie. The dance in the evening will be in the hands of Louis P. McGahie, chairman, Henry Hirschberg and three others, whom they will choose. For the children's games and sports, the committee will be Dr. W. F. Saybolt, chairman, Dr. J. A. Corscaden, S. W. Eckman, Mrs. Edward H. Mays, Harvey T. Warren, John M. McMillin and the new play leader, when she is appointed. F. B. Colton and E. B. Meyer will have charge of decorations and lights. The singing will be in the hands of Mrs. Charles H. Scam-mell and the assistants whom she will appoint.

It is the sincere wish of the members of the executive committee that the events of the day be of such nature and planned in such a way as to meet the approval of the majority of the residents. This is particularly true of the afternoon program in Olivia Park. All who have any ideas as to the kind of production which ought to be given and as to how it should be produced will please write at once to the chairman, Mrs. George Smart.

MEN'S CLUB

Frederic W. Goudy Will be the Speaker on February 28 and the Ladies will be the Especially Invited Guests.

Frederic W. Goudy, who is to tell the Men's Club and their guests, the ladies, "How the World Learned its A B C's," in the Church-in-the-Gardens, on Feb. 28, is, perhaps, the only person in the world making type design his vocation and whose avocations are so distinctly allied thereto, since he is even better known as a printer of fine books, a book lover and craftsman, who has never been identified with the fantastic or trivial nor has he sacrificed the high standards he set for himself at the outset of his work.

He is now enjoying the measure of success, which is plainly evident in the large number of types he has given the world. Of these types, The Printing Art said recently, they are "always original and distinctive, they are fundamentally extremely useful and incidentally, the most beautiful of which we know."

Mr. Goudy is vice-president of the American Institute of Graphic Arts, a member of the Salmagundi Club, the Stowaways, the Caxton Club and Grolier Club. Before the last organization he is to deliver an address next month, by invitation, on the development of types—an honor and a recognition from an organization whose membership includes such names as Robert Hoe, Samuel P. Avery, Theodore L. Devienne, Henry Huntington and whose publications occupy the highest place among typographic productions.

"The Alphabet," soon to appear in a second edition, "The Elements of Lettering," which is almost ready for the press and "Typologia," which is now in manuscript, are Mr. Goudy's books, set by Bertha M. Goudy, in types designed by the author. Mr. Goudy also finds time to be the art director of the Lanston Monotype Machine Company, of Philadelphia.

ST. LUKE'S

The Wednesday evening instructions, at eight o'clock, are most interesting and it is hoped a large number will attend.

The supper given by the Woman's Guild was a decided financial success, since $600 was cleared. Much credit is due to Mrs. T. T. Sweeney, the chairman, for her wonderful management, to Harvey Warren, the auctioneer and Ralph Herz, who delighted all with his humorous recitations. Mr. Herz was leading comedian in "As You Were."

The new organ has been promised for the early part of March.

The cake sales, in charge of the Woman's Guild at the Inn on Saturday nights, are proving very successful. Feb. 19, at the Inn dance, there will be attractive boxes filled with home made candy for sale. The Woman's Guild is planning a minstrel show to be given early in the spring. New shades adorn the windows of the chapel, through the efforts of Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Sterling, members of the Woman's Guild.

CHURCH SERVICES

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

Morning worship tomorrow at 11 o'clock. Dr. Latshaw will preach. All are cordially invited to worship with us.

Last Sunday afternoon a large audience enjoyed the organ recital given by Mrs. George C. Le Blanc, assisted by Miss Elise Gardner and Mrs. C. H. Hasselriis. The musical program was one of exceptional merit and never was the work of these three friends of the church and the community more highly appreciated. In his brief address, Lawrence F. Abbott spoke most fittingly of the relation of beauty to religion, making special application of the place of beauty and music in worship. At the close of the program the Women's Guild gave an informal reception to Mrs. Le Blanc. The occasion marked the fifth anniversary of Mrs. Le Blanc's service as organist of the Church-in-the-Gardens, which work she is giving up to accept a similar position with her own church, St. Luke's Episcopal.

The past two "Wednesday Evenings" were of particular interest at this time, dealing with the great influx of immigrants and the vital problem of Americanization. The attendance was larger than usual and the discussions most interesting and valuable. The topic for Wednesday evening, Feb. 23, will be "Why Does the Soulless Corporation Do Welfare Work?" M. J. Stickel will speak. Mr. Stickel has just returned to Forest Hills from Pueblo, Colorado, where for nearly five years he has had experience with the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company that enables him to bring us a message of real practical experience in line with the subject. Members and friends of the church are urged to be present.

The social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hirschberg, 108 Greenway North, on last Tuesday evening, was a delightful affair, when the Women's Guild was the hostess.

S. W. Eckman has been elected president of the Board of Trustees and Edward H. Mays, secretary.

Sunday evenings from Feb. 27 to Mar. 20, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, Dr. Latshaw will give a series of Lenten lessons on church membership. All who are interested in the subject, particularly those between 12 and 18 years of age, are urged to be present. The meetings begin at 7:45 in the social room.

The new members joining the church on Feb. 6 are: Mrs. John Enequist, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel R. Wilkes, Dr. Wm. F. Saybolt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Woodard, Mrs. John F. Hill and Mrs. Letitia Patterson. J. F. McT.

Women's Guild

Charles E. Hurry, of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., who has charge of the friendly relations of the 10,000 foreign students enrolled in colleges and universities of this country, was the intensely interesting speaker at the meeting of the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens, at the home of Mrs. Donald G. Clark, 49 Markwood Road, on the afternoon of Feb. 11. Mrs. Rowland H. Smith and Mrs. Harold P. Daniels were assistant hostesses.
