NEW COMMUNITY HOUSE PLAN

Advisory Board, Trustees and Members of Church-in-the-Gardens Take Important Action

At a meeting, June 16, of the Advisory Board of the Community House of the Church-in-the-Gardens, composed of various organizations of the village, the following resolutions, written by Thurlow M. Gordon, the chairman, were adopted:

Resolved: That in view of the changed conditions in the community since the plan for the Community House was first inaugurated, and in view of the unwillingness to co-operate in such plan on the part of certain organizations whose active participation had been hoped for, and the failure of the community generally (other than those members of the community who are affiliated with the Church-in-the-Gardens), to give the plan adequate support, it is the recommendation of the Community House Advisory Board, after careful consideration of all the circumstances, that the Church-in-the-Gardens recognize the existing situation and modify the original plan by assuming full responsibility for the financing, construction and management of a community house, to be called "The Community House of the Church-in-the-Gardens."

Further Resolved: That, in spite of this necessary change in plans, it is the hope of the Advisory Board that, as nearly as the means at the disposal of the Church may permit and with due regard for its own church activities, the proposed new building may be constructed and operated in such a way that it may still serve in the broadest way the needs of the whole community, as an institution for the character-building of its children and as a center for community activities generally and as a means of promoting friendship, good-will and community spirit.

Further Resolved: That it is the hope of the Advisory Board that members of the community not affiliated with the Church-in-the-Gardens who have heretofore agreed to contribute to the Community House may still be willing to give it their support; but it should be understood that such support is purely voluntary and that such subscribers will be released from their subscriptions if they so desire.

A few days later, June 29, the trustees of the church approved the resolutions and at a meeting the same day of the members of the church similar action was taken by the corporate body. It is now expected that the trustees will proceed under the new plan as above outlined in the resolution drafted by Mr. Gordon.

SCOUT DRIVE GOES OVER TOP

At a dinner of campaign managers and workers, held in Jamaica on the evening of July 8, when Judge Richard S. Newcombe, as chairman, presided, it was announced that $90,810 had been raised to carry on the Boy Scout work in Queens Borough. Judge Newcombe's home is in Forest Hills. The chairman of the Forest Hills drive has been C. W. Johnson, who reported $6,731 raised in this village. Forest Hills is part of district 2, which reported the largest total of all the districts.

The scout workers sent a message of sympathy to President and Mrs. Coolidge in the death of Calvin, Jr., who, with his brother had been a scout, and who, as Franklin D. Roosevelt said at the Democratic convention, had been "called from life to life."

A rising vote of thanks was given Judge Newcombe for his splendid management of the campaign.

For many years W. P. McCulloch was scout master of a troupe in the Gardens. He was followed as leader by M. J. Folsensbee, Gardner Osborn and others, but now there is no troupe in the Gardens, for the reason that no leader has been found.

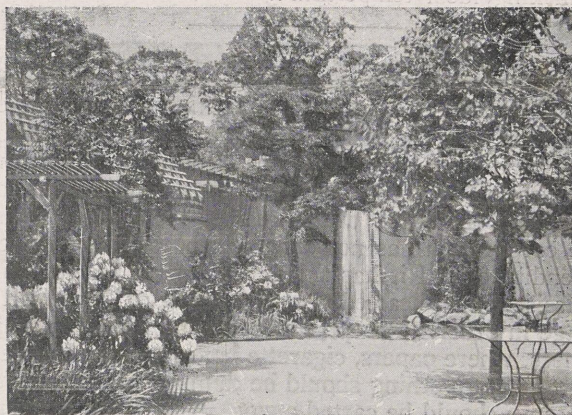

George Springsteen and M. J. Folsensbee are directing a troupe which meets in the Presbyterian Church in Forest Hills.

MUSICAL PROGRAM EVERY NIGHT

Many Dine in the Tea Garden of Forest Hills Inn

The Tea Garden of the Forest Hills Inn is a veritable fairyland, when lighted with Japanese lanterns, with the trickling fountain heard in the background, and a new moon shining over head. There is no more delightful place in Greater New York for one to spend the dinner hour, and many motor from distant places to join the residents of the Inn and the Gardens who dine in the Tea Garden between 6:30 and 9 p.m. Every night of the week, weather permitting, dinner is served in the Tea Garden to a large crowd, who are attracted not only by the delectable menu but also by the excellent music skillfully rendered by the Inn Trio, of which Charles Prescott Poore is director. If the weather is unfavorable, all who come are served in the dining room and the trio plays indoors. The extra attraction every Saturday night is the dancing which is enjoyed in the ball room after the dinner hour.

The opening of the Tea Garden for dinner took place on June 28, and a special program by the trio, songs by Miss Adelaide de Loca and Alois Havrillo, dances by Lefa La Vine, Winifred Solden and Miss Agniel, charmed several hundred dinner guests. It would be hard to forget any of that well-arranged and artistically executed program, particularly the Egyptian and Gypsy dances of Miss Agniel, in the late twilight, with the spotlights bringing out the lines of her graceful figure.

A HAPPY MEMORY

THE celebration of Independence Day by the Forest Hills Association was highly successful and helped to increase the neighborliness and friendliness of that part of the village. The residents of that section universally report a happy day.

In the Gardens, the same enthusiastic comment of the day's activities is heard on every hand. The program was a full one, but was carried out in each part on schedule time, so that no one felt that there was too much planned for the day. The generosity and talent of Fred Stone and his daughters could not be equalled in any community in the country, and the afternoon program in Olivia Park will linger long and happily in memory.

The committees have worked for many weeks to bring to pass this outstanding celebration, and they deserve and receive the sincere thanks of the villagers. The weather man contributed much to the day's joy by furnishing ideal temperature.

KEEP THE VILLAGE TIDY

THE Gardens Corporation is making a strenuous effort to keep the village clean and tidy. Considerable money and labor have been expended this spring by that organization in trying to keep streets and vacant lots free from the litter which results from carelessness. The corporation has not one cent to spare for useless expenditure, and it has a right to expect the residents to assist whole-heartedly in the work of keeping the village in order. Receptacles are to be found on many corners, where papers, cigarette boxes and the like may be thrown. Nothing should be dumped in vacant lots; all refuse should be carted away. New York formerly was a clean city, but, alas! that is true no more, and it is a relief and joy to come home from Manhattan to this restful, lovely place. But if we persist in our carelessness, Forest Hills will resemble the rest of the big city in the litter that can be seen almost everywhere. Let us all help the Gardens Corporation and the civic committee of the Women's Club, the activities of which cover every part of Forest Hills, in this persistent campaign to keep up the standard of tidiness and cleanliness.

LIBRARY GROWS

The new books at the Forest Hills Station of the Queens Borough Public Library are as follows: "Boudoir Mirrors of Washington," "Heirs Apparent," Philip Gibbs; "Light Guitar," Arthur Guiterman; "Pitiful Wife," Storm Jameson; "Told By An Idiot," Rose Macaulay; "Callahans and the Murphys," Kathleen Norris; "Leap Year Girl," Berta Onions; "Honorable Jim," Baroness Orczy; "The Failure," Giovanni Papini, and "Treeve," Albert Terhune.

The increasing demand for books at the Library necessitates an appeal for a book case. Any large bookcase, with doors, will be gladly accepted by the library committee. A willing donor will please telephone to Mrs. George Smart, Boulevard 6709W.

CLUBHOUSE A CENTER

Forest Hills Association Celebrates July 4 on Seminole Avenue.

The members and their families of the Forest Hills Association celebrated Independence Day by flag raising, exercises, games, movies and dancing, held for the most part on the grounds of the Seminole Avenue Clubhouse. Representatives of the association attended the flag raising exercises held in the Gardens and then returned to the clubhouse for a similar program. At the latter function Dr. W. Leon Tucker, of Forest Hills, was the speaker.

The winners in the various children's games were: Harold Briggs, Madeline Seebach, Camille Hirsch, George Hribar, Clement Hurley (thrice a winner), Alice Meenhan, Joseph Hurley, Frank Hargreave, Marjory Mayer, C. Kelly and Marjory Conkling. Those who came out second were: George Hribar, Camille Hirsch, Patricia Chase, John Kelly, Coyne Law, Daniel Meenhan, Madeline Seebach, Jerry Flarherty, Betty Lachman (who was second in two events) and Blanche Kline. In the clock golf, 18-hole course, girls under 16, Miss Means was first and Blanche Kline second. In the same sport, girls over 16, Helen Burns was first, Alice Hribar was second and Violet Guy third.

On the clubhouse tennis courts, a Gardens team composed of Dr. S. E. Davenport, Jr., and Jack Ortgies defeated an association team composed of Herbert Chase and John Guiler, and another Gardens team, Stanley Hillman and A. Cleland, defeated the Paton brothers. So the matches stood 2 to 0 in favor of the Gardens.

Men over 40 years of age indulged in a baseball game on the playground in the Gardens, in which the Gardens men were victors over the association men with a score of 18 to 14.

Dancing in the evening in the clubhouse was a very popular feature with the grown-ups, while on the lawn the children were happy seeing the movies.

For the success of the day's program credit should go to a committee composed of Herbert Chase, president and chairman, George J. Campo, Richard A. Clinchy, James Galbraith, James McGill, Ferdinand Neumer, H. Clayton Smith, Rev. Albert Sheppard, Robert Turner and Godfrey Von Hofe.

MR. AND MRS. STONE RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Stone have returned from a most delightful honeymoon trip by motor to Quebec. They came home through the White Mountains stopping at Sugar Hill, New Hampshire. After a short visit at 88 Continental Avenue, with Mrs. Stone's mother, Mrs. Frederick E. Smith, they are now establishing their home on Parsons Boulevard, Jamaica.

The wedding of Miss Helen Woolston Smith, daughter of the late Frederick E. Smith and Mrs. Smith, to John Francis Stone at the Church-in-the-Gardens on the evening of June 21, was one of rare beauty. Madonna lilies, marguerites and lighted white candles were used in decorating the chancel. Rev. C. E. Silcox performed the ceremony. The matron of honor was Mrs. Harry Keith Brown, of Bluffton, Indiana, and the maids, Miss Margaret Dalton, New York, and Miss Rosa Snowden, Forest Hills. The best man was Francis Green, cousin of the groom, Cincinnati. The ushers were Albert McConnell, Forest Hills, David Visel and Peter Visser, New York, and Leonard Tuttle, Montreal.

A reception was held, after the ceremony, at 88 Continental Avenue.

The gifts were lovely and among these were choice family silver from the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. R. S. Woolston, who was present at the wedding and also at the reception.

LA GRANGE SCHOOL WILL RE-OPEN

The La Grange School, which was conducted during June in the Social Room of the Church-in-the-Gardens, has closed for July but will re-open Aug. 1. In these schools, which are successfully carried on in Los Angeles and Detroit, the teaching staff is required to supplement its usual training with one especially designed to meet a number of unusual standards. Each individual child is studied and his own personality is developed. One aim, as expressed by the founder of the system, is "To arouse self knowledge, causing the child to know that he can do what he wills to do and to simultaneously arouse the child to will to do what ought to be done."

UNIVERSAL PRAISE

All Residents Enjoy the July Fourth Celebration in Gardens.

The residents of the Gardens assembled on the Green at 9:15, July 4, having been awakened by the picturesque Town Criers. Albert S. Howson read the Declaration of Independence impressively; a chorus of children, directed by Mrs. Alexander Greene, led the singing of patriotic songs; Dr. David G. Latshaw offered the invocation, and members of the Legion raised the flag.

Congressman A. M. Free, California, later gave a stirring address in the Square, calling for loyalty to the flag and the U. S. Constitution, and warning against insidious propaganda against patriotism. He told of the activities of the Reds, protested against the "slacker's oath," urged that foreign-language newspapers print English as well as the foreign tongue, and insisted that the red flag should find no place in this country, where only Old Glory should be exalted. Julius Tannen entertained the crowd, Hollis Davenport sang a solo, six Forest Hills girls, in red, white and blue, danced with spirit, and then the surprise came—Will Rogers appeared and in his droll, original way humorously paid his respects to the Democratic convention. The people went wild over this erstwhile fellow-townsmen, who, they hope, will come to live in our town again. Greetings were received from Theodore Roosevelt, who regretted that he could not be present.

Then the children took command in the Square and held the usual games, in which these were the winners: Kathleen Copp (a winner in two events), John Alevek, Sistine Attardo, Edmund O'Shea, Jr., Maria Attardo, Sandy Davenport, William Colton (twice a winner), Walter Simon, Herbert MacNeal, Jane Cavanaugh, Robert Luneborg, Theodore Endres, Sylvia Mather, Reta O'Shea, William J. Cavanaugh, Ellen Luneborg and Margaret Leach. Mrs. G. B. Williamson proved herself the best egg racer; S. W. Eckman was victor with the wheelbarrow, and in the three-legged race for fat men Dr. Ward J. MacNeal surpassed all entries.

In the late afternoon, in Olivia Park, with a capacity crowd present, a most enjoyable program was given, largely through the talent and generosity of our neighbor, Fred Stone. He himself sang and danced, as did also charming Dorothy; Paula made her first stage appearance in a dance and song hit with her father, and little Carol danced with other Gardens children. While Mrs. Stone was not seen or heard, we strongly suspect that she directed the performance from back stage—back of the shrubbery. Marguerite Holt, soloist; Johnny Burke, monologist; Roy Hoyer, dancer and singer, and others, added much to the program. The 40 children who danced the stately minuet, and many others, who appeared as butterflies and flowers, including the wonderful little Stone girls and gifted Betty and Jane Mitchell, all trained by Miss Dorothy Whyte, immensely pleased their neighbors and friends. A fitting and happy ending for this unusual program was the singing of "Peter Pan" by Fred Stone and Dorothy.

The dance in the evening, in decorated and lighted Station Square, gave pleasure to hundreds, who lingered until 1 a.m. The artistic decorations in the Square were designed by John A. Tompkins. James Hayden, builder, carried out Mr. Tompkins' instructions.

The various chairmen of the different events of the day were Irving H. Hare, Dr. T. T. Sweeny, Dr. W. F. Saybolt, M. M. Davidson, Walter Hartwig, F. M. Knowles, Mrs. Knowles, T. J. Mitchell, John Almy Tompkins and Mrs. George W. Cunningham. These, with the officers—G. W. Cunningham, president; R. W. Sterling and Mrs. Cunningham, vice-presidents; T. J. Mitchell, treasurer, and the faithful and efficient secretary, A. N. Penn—with hosts of others, worked for several months towards the success of the day's celebration.

Jules Gingras designed the cover for the attractive 8-page program, edited by Mr. Knowles.

KEW CIVIC ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

The Kew Gardens Civic Association on June 17 elected officers for the coming year as follows: Joseph Stanley-Brown, president; Fred T. Youngs, vice-president; Douglas H. Kenyon, secretary, and Ernest Martin, treasurer. The new president has many friends in Forest Hills and his selection insures the most cordial co-operation with all organizations in this village.

TWENTY-NINE GRADUATE

Public School 3 Holds Impressive Commencement Exercises.

"Without knowledge it is impossible to travel the road of life," declared Judge John R. Davies in his address to the graduates of Public School 3, on the evening of June 25. The address was informal but appealing and the topic was "The Improved Education of Today." The judge told in well chosen words the marked changes that have taken place in the public school education system in the last 30 years. He urged the graduates to obtain the best education possible, as its value in later years will be inestimable.

Grace Campbell, of the graduating class, in rendering two piano solos in the evening, proved, as she has many times in the assembly, that she has unusual talent for her years. Well chosen songs were capably sung by the graduates. The feature of the evening was a play entitled, "Past, Present and Future," which dealt with the different stages in the lives of a class of boys and girls graduating together. The play showed expert coaching by Miss Mae R. Follmar. All of the parts were well taken, especially deserving of mention is George Williams, who took the part left vacant because of the illness of Floyd McTyier. The three who played the roles "Memory," "Life" and "Prophecy," Kathleen Madden, Mary Ellen Osgood and Elaine Holmes, deserved the hearty applause which they received.

Miss Lucille Nicol, the new district superintendent, presented the diplomas, certificates of merit and prizes.

Diplomas were presented to the following: Harriette Barnard, Grace Campbell, Alexandra Ceppi, Anna M. Goetz, Lurleane Harris, Elaine Holmes, Dorothy Jolly, Kathleen Madden, Evelyn McGill, Mary Ellen Osgood, Elma Rea, Mary Saybolt, Helen Schoen, Virginia Snowdne, Jane Wood, Jean Barnett, Karl Easton, Robert Ellis, Alfred Haire, Floyd McTyier, Fenwick Morris, Frederick H. Musil, William Neisel, Charles Frank Page, Edwin F. Peters, William Rankin, Walter Schmidt, George Williams and Dorothy White.

Certificates of merit were awarded to Lurleane Harris, Alfred Haire, Mary Ellen Osgood, Evelyn McGill, Anna Goetz, William H. Rankin, Elaine Holmes and Grace Campbell.

The sewing prize was given to Mary Ellen Osgood; the shop prize to Edwin Peters; and the Mothers' Club prize, which stands for scholarship, school spirit, punctuality, conduct and attendance, was awarded to Karl Easton. The class presented the school a beautiful picture, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin." This was the first opportunity afforded many of the parents to become acquainted with the new principal, Miss Mabel Sondheim, who spoke a few words regarding the children and the school.

During the intermission Miss M. Gorman, special teacher of music, sang some very lovely soprano solos. Among the numbers she sang was Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me." Later on Miss Gorman illustrated very capably the method employed by modern song composers in making current "hits" made up in part from old classics. Her efforts were very enthusiastically received by the audience.

The class officers are: Grace Campbell, president; Evelyn McGill, vice-president; Fred Musil, secretary, and Karl Easton, treasurer.

MORE PRIZES AT ASSEMBLY

At a special assembly of Public School 3, Thursday morning, June 26, Mrs. William A. Hume, chairman of the civic committee of the Women's Club, presented prizes to the members of the civic league who had taken care of the vacant lots during the year. Good work in keeping these lots free from rubbish was done by 14 scholars. The first prize of $5 was given to Evelyn McGill, class 8B; the second prize, of $2.50 was presented to Harford Getz, class 8A. August Kraemer, Jr., class 7A, received honorable mention.

Through the courtesy of a friend, another medal was awarded at these exercises. It arrived too late to be presented at the graduation exercises. By unanimous consent it was given to Grace Campbell, who has been accompanist for all the school assemblies in the last three terms and has helped with the music on other special occasions, including the accompaniment of the play on June 25 at the graduation exercises. The medal will be inscribed "To Grace Campbell, for her loyal devotion to Public School 3, Queens."

CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

During the months of July and August the Rev. C. E. Silcox may be reached at Spruce Cottage, Silver Bay, Lake George, N. Y.

Services will be held every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock during the summer months, in the Church-in-the-Gardens. The following are the pulpit supplies for the rest of July and all of August: July 13, Rev. William S. Beard, New York.

July 20 and 27, Rev. Coningsby M. Gordon, of the Swantson Street Church of Christ, Melbourne, Australia.

August 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31, Rev. Roy L. Minich, Christ Church, Woodhaven.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORS

Miss Lilian Strom, Euclid Street, sails July 26 to Panama and South America and will return Sept. 1.

Mabel Ruth MacNeal, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ward J. MacNeal, Rockrose Place, was born June 25.

Oliver Jones graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in June and his mother, Mrs. Betsy H. Jones, attended the Commencement exercises.

Among High School graduates, not listed in the last BULLETIN, are Betty Gray, who completed the course at Jamaica and Henry Miller, Jr., Newtown.

Mrs. R. E. Renaud, Puritan Avenue, with her daughters, Jean and Ruth, is visiting at the farm of Mrs. Patience B. Cole, Ringville, Mass.

Mrs. Herbert Padelinetti and daughter, Jean, Cranford Street, enjoyed a visit at Atlantic City recently.

To name the camps where Forest Hills young people are enjoying the summer would be similar to giving a catalogue of such camps, for so many boys and girls are enrolled in such a large number of these popular resorts. Arthur H. Flint has about 30 boys from this vicinity in his camp Forest Hills-in-Groton, New Hampshire. Mrs. Blanche Carstens has between 50 and 60 girls from all parts of the country in her camp, Allegro, Silver Lake, New Hampshire.

Alice, Grace and Murray Eckman and Mary Jane Miller are at camp near Cooperstown, N. Y.

Patsy Renaud is at Tula Wooket, Roxbury, Vermont. In the senior division of the same camp are Geraldine and Evelyn Dow.

Nancy and Harriet Woodard are at Camp Wyonegonic, Denmark, Me.

Joy Mays is having her second experience at Aloha Camp, Fairlee, Vermont. Dorothy Wicke has also returned to Camp Aloha.

Baldwin Vose, Collier Elliott and George Witke, Jr., are at Camp Passumpsic, South Fairlee, Vt.

The camp idea has become so popular for young folks that the fathers and mothers are trying the same experience. Mr. and Mrs. Alden H. Vose with Alden, Jr., are enjoying Camp Shanty Shane, South Fairlee, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wicke joined them there yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. George Felton, Berea, Ky., and Mrs. Richard Perkins, Berkeley, Cal., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrett, Puritan Avenue, are home after spending two delightful months with friends and relatives in England.

Eunice Rossman, Boston, has returned home, having enjoyed a visit with her aunt, Miss Mary E. Taylor. Miss Taylor is motoring through Connecticut for the rest of July, with friends.

Edward R. Senn, 699 Ocean Avenue, Brooklyn, has purchased the house at 89-51 Street.

George Rowland Collins, of the faculty of New York University, has bought the new house 34 Pilgrim Street. Mr. Collins and Miss Edith B. Ramsay, Kew Gardens, will be married July 16 in the Church-in-the-Gardens and after the wedding trip they will reside in this new home.

Please mail to the editor of the BULLETIN the names of your summer visitors or if you go on an interesting trip let the readers know that also, through the paper.

THE INN

Prof. G. H. Gerould and Mrs. Katherine Fullerton Gerould and son, of Princeton, N. J., were recent guests of Mrs. Gerould's mother, Mrs. Bradford Fullerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell, and son, Adair, of Cleveland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Adair.

Mrs. J. J. Bliss, and daughter, Miss Eleanor Bliss, have departed for Cheyenne, Wyo., and intend passing the summer on a ranch there.

Baron and Baroness De Goncer are spending some time with Mrs. C. W. Watson at Griffinsburg, Va.

Miss Martha V. Bayler, of Richmond, Va., who is taking a summer course at Columbia University, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chesterman. Miss Bayler is secretary of the State Board of Charities of the State of Virginia.

Mrs. Charles Wells and Mrs. J. J. Lesslie, of Pittsburgh, joined Mrs. Wells' daughter, Mrs. Mark Hays, for the weekend at the Inn.

Among those entertaining at dinner parties on the Fourth of July were the following: Mrs. Sias, Mrs. Tanyon, Mrs. Robb, Miss Doughty, Mr. Euler, Mrs. Diesch, Mr. Eckerinna, Mrs. Jewett, Mr. Bobst, Mr. Tyrell, Mr. Neal, Mr. Nichols, Mr. H. Pearl, Mr. Kuhn, Mr. Dawson, and Mrs. Hobart.

Miss Marjorie Gateson, star of "So This Is Politics," now having a successful run in New York, entertained at luncheon in the Fountain Room on the Fourth of July.

Among those sailing on the Cunarder "Lancastria" on July 3 were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Harn, who will spend several months in England and on the Continent. Mr. Harn is to be a speaker at the general session of the World Advertising Convention in London this summer. This is a signal honor for Mr. Harn since there are only five or six Americans on the general program. Other speakers on this program are the Ex-Secretary of Agriculture, E. T. Meredith, and Francis Sisson, vice-president of the Guaranty Trust Co., New York. Mrs. Harn is planning to continue her musical studies under Paris coaches during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Turner, and family, who have been spending some time at the Inn, sailed on July 5 for a several months' trip to South America. Mr. Turner is connected with the General Motors Export Co., and while in South America he will visit Brazil and the Argentine, and will return home by way of England and the continent.

Max Mertens, of San Francisco, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Skillman.

Mrs. Katherine Hobart is leaving on Thursday for Vancouver, from which port she will sail for the Orient. Mrs. Hobart will spend several months in Japan, China and the Philippines.

Miss E. M. Sleicher is sailing on Tuesday to spend the summer abroad.

Among those registering at the Inn recently were: Mr. and Mrs. Ordway Tead; Mrs. C. Griswold; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guthman, and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, and Mrs. Tyrell, all of New York; W. A. Shattuck, Philadelphia; Major and Mrs. C. T. Griffith, Philadelphia; Miss Elizabeth Abbott, G. P. Hutchins, Miss M. M. Klarfield, New York.
