GOD SAVE THE STATE

EVENTS OF VICTORY INDEPENDENCE DAY

COMMUNITY SINGING.

Mr. Frederick W. Seward Is the Leader.

ONE of the most delightful features of our village life is the community singing and at no time is this important feature used to such advantage as on July Fourth. Around the Flag Pole, at 9.30 o'clock in the morning of that patriotic day, will gather all the villagers and with the raising of the Flag we shall sing our national songs together. Somehow or other, singing together makes us better neighbors and better friends. And when our singing is of a patriotic nature, then we all become better citizens. So come to the Flag Pole, all ye who can sing, and all ye who wish you could, fifteen minutes after nine o'clock on Independence Day, and Mr. Seward will lead you. We are anticipating an inspiring time when men and women and children sing together on the Village Green.

Reunion of Old Rifle Club.

Three years ago there was formed a Rifle Club in Forest Hills of which Mr. A. T. Shurick was captain, and most of this organization was later merged into the Veteran Corps Artillery. After our country entered the war, the War Department ordered the merging of the Veteran Corps Artillery into the Ninth Coast Artillery, the Eighth Company of which is composed of the men from our village and of this company, Mr. Horace F. Pomeroy, the head of our Fourth of July Committee, is captain.

There were 150 members of the original Rifle Club and all members are urged to report in their military uniform to Mr. A. T. Shurick, the military chairman of the day, who wants to hold a reunion of these men at the flag raising at 9.30 o'clock, on the Village Green.

Mr. S. W. Eckman, Chairman Fourth of July Celebration, 1918, Introducing Senator Calder

ISAAC F. MARCOSSON AND CONGRESSMAN MacCRATE SPEAKERS.

The Speakers' Committee—Judge Davies, Chairman—takes pleasure in announcing that Isaac F. Marcossou, and Congressman John MacCrate will be the speakers for the day.

Congressman MacCrate has been strongly recommended as a brilliant and interesting speaker, by Senator William M. Calder whom residents will remember as the speaker at our celebration last year.

Isaac F. Marcossou needs no introduction. Of him Colonel Theodore Roosevelt said, "He has played the part of a straight American in this War. He has done everything in his power to arouse our nation to its duty. I wish him God speed with all my heart."

Mr. Marcossou has just returned to this country after a prolonged period "Over There" with a background of four years' personal association with the "Great Struggle" and great figures in it. To ninety per cent of our residents the name Marcossou is sufficient. His current articles in the Saturday Evening Post are, undoubtedly, closely perused by a large proportion of our residents. First, and above all else, he is a marvelous observer, and his predictions have behind them the foundations of a trained and sane observation. But he is more than a student of the war from its economic and industrial sides. He is gifted with the rare ability to translate his impressions into pictures that live as convictions in the minds of his hearers. He is a business man—but with a keen sympathy that senses national and international movements and interprets them in terms of American business. His life, during the past four years, his associations, his knowledge of what American business men want to know and his ability to tell them much in little space make him one of the foremost and most trustworthy prophets of the future.

Long experience as a newspaper man is a good background for Mr. Marcossou in his war correspondence. His writing and his speaking today are both interesting not only because of his familiarity with the great and titled, national figures, but also because of his association with and appreciation of the common soldier and the everyday man. Most charmingly he tells intimate human nature stories of the soldier boy and his surroundings while in France.

Those who come expecting to hear the preachment of charity for Germany will be disappointed. We suspect that Mr. Marcossou will bring one or two personal observations of defeated Germany with him, and may do much to lay bare the true situation in that country.

One word more—in fairness to yourself, your guest and the speaker, let us urge you to come promptly at eleven o'clock and give Mr. Marcossou every moment of the time that is at his disposal to tell us of his observations of "The Great War and After."

GAMES FOR CHILDREN.

The Station Square will again be the scene of the children's games and the hour is set for one o'clock. A committee, with Dr. W. F. Saybolt as chairman and Miss Beatrice Fox, playleader, as vice-chairman, is planning an exciting and a delightful time for the boys and girls of Forest Hills Gardens, in these contests which are athletic and recreational. There will be dashes, three legged races, a paper fight, a sack race, an obstacle race, relay races, etc., for the children and some games and contests for children of a larger growth. The committee hopes to have this part of the program measure up to the highest standard of fun and efficiency.

TENNIS MATCHES.

At two o'clock tennis matches will be held on the Inn courts. As in former years the games will be between the Inns and the Outs. Mr. William Dunkling will have charge of the interests of the Inns and Mr. Harvey Warren will champion the cause of the Outs. Mr. L. M. Burt is chairman of the tennis games.

THE GOLDEN DAY—AN ALLEGORY IN OLIVIA PARK

THE Fourth of July performance in Olivia Park this year will be a combination of local effort and the talent of Louis Chalif's pupils. Instead of separating the dancing numbers, developed under guidance of the famous master, and the familiar pastoral playlet, they will be brought together in a single allegory called "The Golden Day."

Rehearsals have been progressing favorably for a fortnight or more and the performance should move smoothly in its charming sylvan setting, varied this year by a stage effect somewhat different from those seen in the past. As usual, there will be a concealed orchestra of strings and a vocal interlude is also planned. There will be four dancing numbers woven integrally into the play and symbolic of its action.

The cast is not yet announced, but Imogene Washburne, whose performance two year's ago in "A Masque of Liberty" was so striking, will play one of the characters. Mrs. Will Philip Hooper will also be a member of the cast. The text of "The Golden Day" was written by Ralph Renaud, who is directing the rehearsals.

Olivia Park is echoing with such a fury of declamation every afternoon that the birds are afraid to come there and sing any more, but it is hoped they may be won back as a chorus for the final performance.

VICTORY INDEPENDENCE DAY.

ONE hundred and forty-three years ago, July 4th, 1776, a group of men representing some three or four millions of people in thirteen colonies along the Atlantic seaboard, met and solemnly declared "That these United Colonies are, and of Right, ought to be Free and Independent States." Large as they were in their vision and determined as they were in purpose, little did these statesmen know the importance of that declaration to the cause of liberty.

In the past two years we have seen the descendants of those men and others who cherish their ideals, to the number of four millions, offer their all—their lives—that the liberty of 1776 might be the possession of all the peoples of the world in the year 1919. Seventy-five thousand of our boys made the supreme sacrifice in the struggle for the democracy of mankind; and not they alone, but nearly five millions of the men of our allies. We have stayed at home, you and I, in our lovely village, in comfort and safety. To be sure, we have conserved, saved, and sacrificed, all of which has improved us a little and today makes us better fitted for the new era of sane living.

This day of readjustment, this reconstruction period when a square deal must be given to every man, woman, and child of all nations of the world, calls for moderation in language, clear thinking, and unselfish purpose. The spirit of the men whose lives have been laid down for us will help us as we try to meet these new and higher ideals. Therefore, on this anniversary of Independence Day, let the people of the Nation, of all parties and creeds, of both sexes, dedicate themselves to the work of reconstruction, with open minds, with generous hearts, and with determined purpose. May justice and righteousness prevail!

OUR COMMUNITY CELEBRATION.

Once again our village is to celebrate Independence Day with all the enthusiasm and good-fellowship of old; a victorious thanksgiving and merry-making Fourth.

We have been working together these past two years in a mood of energy and sacrifice. Now let us turn back whole-heartedly to more personal affairs and make our own community day mean all that it should in a social way. The lesson of the war has taught us to work together. We need to learn to play together; let this occasion be the inspiration. It is significant that our celebration has come to be of more than local importance. The individual contribution of special talent, the interesting back-ground formed by our Station Square, the Green, with its historic flag-pole, the charming little park for its masque and artistic dances, and the community interest and community spirit, all molded together, make for a combination not only unique, but individual, and peculiarly adaptable to the Gardens. We have the picture, we have the frame, we have the artists, and we have the community spirit; a setting that fits everything; a pictorial quality, with all in harmony.

The personnel of the committee changes each year, but the spirit of friendliness and unity of purpose have been steadfastly maintained. This will be our best celebration because the experiences of the past two years have made us more patriotic citizens and better neighbors. We have learned to work, now let us learn to play. There is room for all and it is hoped that each will play his part. As Kipling says—

"It ain't the guns nor armament, nor the funds that they can pay,
But the close co-operation that makes them win the day.
It ain't the individuals, nor the army as a whole,
But the ever-lasting team work of every bloomin' soul."

OUR POSTER

We invite particular attention to the poster insert in this issue of the Bulletin. The Chairman of the Poster Committee, Mr. Herman Rountree, has contributed a drawing of unusual charm and artistic value. Each year he has donated a poster, commemorating our Fourth of July Celebration. They have all been good, but this year Mr. Rountree has fairly outdone himself. This poster (the original of which is on exhibit at the Inn) is of such high quality that the Committee could not resist reproducing it in color in the Bulletin. We take occasion to thank him, in the name of the residents of Forest Hills Gardens.

Mr. Rountree was born in Springfield, Mo. His first work was on the Philadelphia Public Ledger; later he illustrated for the best authors in leading magazines. He now confines his work largely to the commercial field. In commercial art Mr. Rountree stands at the head of the profession.

SECOND DRILL OF THE FOREST HILLS RIFLE CLUB.

NOTICE.

To all men who belonged to the Forest Hills Rifle Club:

The old Forest Hills Rifle Club will be reassembled for the last time as guard of honor of the flag raising on the morning of July Fourth.

Every man who was a member of the old Rifle Club is requested to be present and should make it a special point to do so. The Rifle Club was the first evidence of the loyalty of this community and it seems fitting that it should be revived at this particular time.

Many of its members have been in the United States service in different capacities. Some have been at the battle fronts, and it is but proper that we take this last opportunity to do homage to them.

* * * * *

Assembly will be in Continental Avenue, 9 A. M.

Uniform should be worn, but is not compulsory—khaki trousers, blouses, canvas leggins and campaign hats—except for men who were in other service who will wear the prescribed uniforms of that service nearest to the above.

Men who were on Overseas duty will wear the Overseas cap and all decorations. It is expected that all officers will wear the insignia of their rank.

A. T. SHURICK,

Chairman, Committee on Military Affairs.

4TH of JULY IN FOREST HILLS GARDENS

Children's Games in Station Square 1918—"The Obstacle Race"

COSTUME DANCE.

MR. W. L. FLEMING, Chairman of the Dance Committee, is the originator and proposer of a happy thought in suggesting that the entire community be requested to appear in fancy costume at the dance in the evening, in the Station Square. No other suggestion could be more opportune, for this is our Victory Celebration as differentiated from the celebrations of the past two years, and it is fitting and proper that we make it a festive and merry making occasion. No agency can so promote this spirit as costumes. A large assemblage of people in fancy dress is a pleasant and spectacular sight, and with the brilliant illumination in the Station Square, should be an impressive one.

Adopting Mr. Flemming's suggestion, the general committeemen have made arrangements for their families and themselves to appear in Pierrot, Pierrette and Yama Yama costumes. The dance committee, in order to facilitate matters, have made arrangements with A. W. Tams (1600 Broadway) to supply these costumes to members of our Community, at a special price of $2.00 each. Costumes of other characters, and of a more elaborate style, can be secured at consistently reasonable sums. There are undoubtedly a number of people of our community who own their own costumes. They are requested to appear at the dance arrayed in them. Variety will lend charm to the scene. It is hoped that a very large proportion of the community will accede to Mr. Fleming's request.

Through the influence of Captain Horace F. Pomeroy of the 8th Company of the Ninth Coast Artillery, the band of that military organization will furnish the music for the evening. The band consists of thirty pieces and a band concert will be given at seven o'clock, followed by dancing at eight o'clock. The band will play until one o'clock, and it is needless to say dancing will continue until that hour.

DISPLAY THE FLAG.

On the Fourth of July let every home, in Forest Hills Gardens, display the Colors. This is a patriotic obligation and a privilege.

OUR VILLAGE PROCLAMATION

ON the first page of the Bulletin appears the annual Proclamation for the Fourth of July celebration of our village, designed by Mr. Fred W. Goudy, our citizen and neighbor, who, from year to year, at this season, uses his talent to the advantage and fame of the village. We digress from the plan heretofore followed, of printing the Proclamation separately, by printing it in the Bulletin. Last year's Proclamation has been exhibited at the Art Alliance in New York, where it was seen by representatives of the American Federation of Art, who asked Mr. Goudy for samples of the Proclamation and other samples of his work for our village. These have gone over the country to libraries and schools as a part of an exhibition of artistic typography. These art specimens are also to be a part of an exhibition which the Metropolitan Museum will send from coast to coast.

Mr. Goudy's book "The Alphabet," recently printed, is an attempt to trace the development of the forms of the Roman alphabet from stone cut inscriptions to the present day. The type used in this book is the Kennerley, a Goudy design, and the same one used in our Forest Hills Gardens Proclamation in this issue of the Bulletin.

Mr Goudy is editing a quarterly magazine—"Ars Typographica," devoted to the art of typography instead of the business of printing. There are forty Goudy type designs. One of these is used in each edition. Mrs. Bertha Goudy has set the type for "The Alphabet" and for our Proclamation and July Fourth Program, in the Village Press.

BIG SISTERS OF QUEENS.

There will be a refreshment booth, where sandwiches, ice cream and cake can be purchased, all for the benefit of the "Big Sisters of Queens," an organization which does its helpful work in time of peace as well as war. The president of this organization in our Borough is Mrs. Smith Alford of Flushing, who will have charge of the booth for the day. Mrs. Murray Brown, chairman of our ward for the Big Sisters, will necessarily be out of town on July Fourth, so Mrs. Alford has consented to be responsible for the booth. Mrs. John M. Demarest is executive member for this ward and will assist Mrs. Alford. Donations of cakes, sandwiches, etc., are solicited through the Bulletin, for this worthy object.

DECORATIONS AND ILLUMINATIONS.

Chairman E. D. Sealy reports that plans for decorations and illuminations in the Station Square have been prepared by the Architectural Department of the Homes Company and filed with the proper municipal authorities for permits, etc. These plans, showing the layout of the general illumination, were carefully studied in order that the effect would harmonize architecturally with the Inn and the station buildings, and at the same time shed the proper amount of light.

In general all of the illuminations and decorations will be concentrated in the Station Square, where a number of poles are to be erected near the outside walks, from which electric streamers containing hundreds of incandescent lights, festooned with flags and pennants will be looped to a tall pole placed in the center near the fountain. The lights will be treated so as to produce a soft but brilliant moon-light effect. The decorated band stand and speakers' rostrum at the foot of the station steps will, with bunting draped refreshment booths, add much to the general effect.

MOTION PICTURE RECORD.

This year almost two reels will be used in taking pictures of the day's activities. From the beginning of the program in the morning, until late at night, every feature of the day will be made part of the permanent record of the moving picture machine. Since 1914 these pictures have been taken of the Fourth of July celebration in Forest Hills Gardens and are ready, for all time, to tell the story of the last few years to our children and to our children's children. There is something inspiring about it when we think of the historical value of those records. It gives us a queer feeling "to see ourselves as others see us" and it makes us wish to put on our best clothes and our best manners, too, on July Fourth.

The one outstanding feature of everlasting value of these records is the fact, that in the reel for 1917, we can see for all time just how Theodore Roosevelt looked and acted when he spent a day in our town. The village seems bigger and finer because he was here and when we see his picture thrown on the screen, we want to be more loyal to the traditions of the past and more determined to do our part as citizens of this great country, in the future.

Mr. McGahie is responsible for this important work—the motion picture record—as he has been in the past.

BOY SCOUTS.

The nation-wide campaign to raise $1,000,000 in the interest of the Boy Scout movement through the help of 1,000,000 associate members was assisted by a number of Boy Scouts from Forest Hills. Their efforts were directed by Chairman Fred. Grietsch and Scout Master Hargreaves. The splendid returns of 306 members and $367 secured, more than covered the quota of 250 associate members. Maurice Mayer is the Scout who received first prize for securing the first twenty-five members, and Boston Hunt won second prize. Forest Hills has again won distinction for its ready support of a good national cause.

TAXPAYERS' MEETING

The last meeting for the season of the Taxpayers' Association was held at the Church of Forest Hills, on Friday evening, June 20th. The hard shower of the afternoon hindered many from attending, but the meeting was an enthusiastic one, notwithstanding that handicap. President Thomas B. Paton read an appreciative letter from the Chairman of the Sixth District of the Victory Liberty Loan, Mr. Acosta Nichols, thanking him, Mr. Paton, and all the residents of Forest Hills for the excellent work accomplished in putting the last Loan "over the top."

Dr. T. Kennard Thomson, of New York addressed the meeting and told how feasible it would be to have a canal run through Forest Hills, thus affording the pleasure of motor boat riding at our very doors. He also dwelt on the fact that draining the meadows into this canal would bring very pleasant relief from the mosquito pest. A committee appointed by the Chairman will take this subject in hand and it is hoped that a report may be made at the first meeting to be held in the fall, the third Friday in October.

The Anti-Mosquito Committee of the Taxpayers' Association needs a boy of Forest Hills to be an inspector, working in the interest of this committee. Boys who desire this work during the summer months will please apply to the Chairman, Mr. S. W. Eckman, 10 Greenway Terrace.

WEDDINGS.

O'Halloran—Lindquist.

At 6 o'clock on the evening of June 25th Miss Gladys O'Halloran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. O'Halloran, of 61 Jewel Street, was married to Mr. Benjamin E. Lindquist, of Ottumwa, Iowa, at the home of her parents. Miss O'Halloran wore a gown of white Georgette crepe, trimmed in silver and Duchess lace. She was attended by Miss Alice Thompson, of New York, as maid of honor, whose gown was pink. Dr. Robert J. Kent, pastor of the Church-in-the-Gardens, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lindquist will make their home at 61 Jewel Street. The wedding was the culmination of a "Rainbow Night" romance.

Miller—Millang.

Mr. Frank Millang, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millang, of Slocum Crescent, was married to Miss Elizabeth Miller of Narbeth, Penna., at the bride's home on June 11th. They will reside at the corner of Fife and Seminole Avenues, Forest Hills.

Ullrich—Pearce.

A beautiful wedding took place at the Church of Forest Hills, June 22nd, at 2 o'clock, when Miss Elsie Ullrich of Forest Hills was united in marriage to Mr. James E. Pearce, of South Mills, N. C., by the Rev. Edward L. Hunt. The maid of honor was Miss Emma Metz, and the best man James E. Bowen, Lieutenant, U. S. Navy.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Metz, on Livingston Street. The church was handsomely decorated in palms and flowers.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Maurer, of Ingram Street, have as their guests Mrs. Maurer's mother and sister, Mrs. William Henry Beavis and Miss Helen Marie Beavis, of Shaker Heights, Cleveland Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh, of Greenway North, accompanied by Mrs. Marsh's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Montague, and Miss Mary Marsh, left last Tuesday for a month's visit with friends in and near Chicago.

Howard Ortgies, of Continental Avenue, started Friday for a summer's stay at Camp Dudley, Westport, New York, on Lake Champlain. He will be a leader in the camp this summer. Godwin and George Castleman of the Inn, and Charles Caldwell of Ibis Avenue, will also spend the summer at Camp Dudley.

Mrs. H. P. Daniels and son, John, of Markwood Road, have gone to visit friends on Lake George.

Mr. Rowland H. Smith, of Continental Avenue, sails the early part of July for France, on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millang, of Slocum Crescent, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida, to Mr. George Russell Bowman, of Woodside. The wedding will take place September 11th, in Forest Hills at the Church, My Lady Queen of Martyrs.

Village Green—1918

THE INN.

The evening of June twenty-fifth saw a merry-making through "footing it fleetly" in the Inn ballroom. The occasion was the benefit for the Young Citizens' Loyal League, a national organization that is offering its service to the schools as the handmaid of the community civics; what the children learn in the classroom, they put into practice in school and community life by means of a league program. Announcement was made that the affair would be a costume dance to which men might wear the cool clothing of a Kansas farmer, or even the hired man, and the women, dairymaid and sunbonnet effects suggested by the name. It is safe to say that even the charm of Forest Hills women and the manly beauty of Forest Hills men have never been seen to more fetching advantage. The scenery of the dance was chiefly Shakespearean. "These are the cow stanchions." "You may pet the cows. "Girls, do not feed the horse with the white face, he is afraid of women." These and numerous other signs drawing on the vivid imagination of those present, caused much merriment. The touch of freedom given by the costuming made the evening a time of genuine gayety. Real merriment is too rare; a country sun and country breezes were felt by the guests of the country dance.

Miss Eleanor O. Brownell, who is head of the Shipley School at Bryn Mawr, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. S. Brownell, who makes her home at the Inn.

Mr. A. H. Chapman and Mr. Charles S. Richmond of Chatham, have been visiting Mrs. J. Wilbur Chapman, of the Inn. Mr. Chapman intends remaining during the summer vacation with his mother.

Miss Eleanor Morse, of Lexington, Kentucky, is spending part of her summer vacation from college with her brother, Mr. A. W. Morse, of the Inn.

Mrs. Murray S. Brown with her son, Murray, Jr. is spending some weeks at the Inn before departing for her summer home at Crown Point, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Keleher of San Francisco, are among the recent arrivals at the Inn, Mr. Keleher having recently become associated with his brother, Mr. A. H. Keleher, one of the permanent guests of the Inn, in business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Worthington, Miss Jane, and Miss O. Jones have returned to the Inn after an absence in the West of several months.

Mrs. Hallett Addoms and family of Kew Gardens, are stopping at the Inn for some weeks.

Recent arrivals include: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cassidy, who have recently purchased property in Forest Hills Gardens; Miss M. Clark, Miss C. M. Johnson, Mr. F. A. Robbins of

San Francisco, Mrs. Luella E. Hastings, Miss Jane and Miss Val. Gunderson of Chicago, Mr. Randall M. Martin of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Whitworth of Nashville, Tenn., who are visiting Captain and Mrs. W. H. Graves of the Inn.

CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS.

Dr. and Mrs. Kent were specially honored last Monday by the members of the Queens Brotherhood of Congregational Ministers who with their wives motored to Blue Point. It was the regular monthly meeting, but the only item of business attended to was the reading of a minute prepared by a committee and unanimously adopted expressing in terms of affectionate appreciation the high regard in which Dr. and Mrs. Kent are held for their work during more than a quarter of a century in Brooklyn and Queens. The minute was read at the tables in the dining room where the party of fifteen listened to informal addresses, brimful of wit and humor. A perfect June day and a most delightful spirit of comradeship made it an occasion never to be forgotten.

On two homes the shadow of bereavement fell last week. The aged aunt of Mrs. W. H. Batcheller, returning from a prolonged visit to her son in Scotland, arrived in this country seriously ill and while waiting at Mrs. Batcheller's home expecting soon to recover sufficient strength to be removed to her own home in Athol, Mass., went to her home above. She was a fine Christian woman. Dr. Kent conducted a brief service on Friday afternoon, June 20th.

Mrs. Shields, mother of Mrs. Kendrick, entered into rest after a lingering illness. She was highly talented, having rare ability in music and painting, and to live for others in loving service, was her nature. The funeral service was held by Dr. Kent on Saturday afternoon, June 21st.

It is the intention of the officers of the Sunday School to continue services through the Summer. They will be of a varied and special character, full announcement of which will be made from week to week.

THE CHURCH OF FOREST HILLS.

A strawberry festival for the Church of Forest Hills took place Thursday, June 26th. at the home of Mrs. D. Springsteen. On Saturday, June 28th, the Sunday School picnic was held in Forest Park.

Twilight Symphony, 1918—Interpretative Dance in Olivio Park by Pupils of Louis H. Chalif
