THE RAISING OF THE FLAG ON THE VILLAGE GREEN, JULY 4, 1917, THE VETERAN CORPS OF ARTILLERY AND AUDIENCE STANDING AT SALUTE.

THE FOURTH OF JULY—1918

RAISING OF THE FLAG.

At ten o'clock on the morning of the Fourth, the annual celebration in the Gardens will be opened with the ceremony attending the raising of the Flag. Following a brief address by Rev. Joseph McLaughlin, patriotic songs will be sung in chorus. Frederick K. Seward is to be in charge and would like to have sent to him in advance the names of those who will assist in leading the singing. There will be no rehearsals.

TENNIS FOR THE CUP.

Also in the forenoon there will be held the annual tennis matches between the "Inns" and the "Outs." Each year this tournament has produced keen rivalry and excellent tennis. The "Outs" at present hold possession of the cup, but W. W. Dunklin, in the dual capacity of Tennis Committee Chairman and Manager of the Inn Team, is planning presently to display this same cup among the trophies at the Inn. The matches will be played on the Inn Courts.

CHILDREN'S GAMES.

At two o'clock in the afternoon the children will gather on the Playground for their annual games. Two hours of contests, to be arranged by their Play-leader, Miss Anne R. Smith, will follow and at four o'clock they will all adjourn to the Tea Garden of the Inn for their annual feast of ice cream and cake. Roland H. Smith is Chairman of the Children's Games Committee.

SPRING AWAKENING—GREEK GROUP DANCE BY THE STUDENTS OF LOUIS H. CHALIF, IN OLIVIA PARK. THEY WILL DANCE HERE AGAIN THIS YEAR IN THE AFTERNOON OF THE FOURTH AT 5 O'CLOCK.

OLIVIA PARK.

From the children's games in the playground and their party at the Inn, the road for everybody will lead to Olivia Park, where the next feature of the day's celebration will be the late afternoon gathering in the shaded amphitheatre there, where the pupils of Chalif will again be seen in their extremely graceful interpretive dancing.

On the program here, there will also be special singing by the "Service Four" from No. 152 Depot Brigade, Camp Upton, who will be guests in the Gardens over the celebration.

DANCING IN STATION SQUARE.

In the evening, Station Square will be illuminated and there will be dancing from eight o'clock until one. A military band has been secured and it is also planned to have singing in unison between the dances.

RED CROSS BOOTHS.

A very important feature of the evening in the Square will be the opportunity to patronize booths for lemonade etc., the receipts to go for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Leon D'Emo is Chairman in charge of this division of the celebration and, assisted by her Committee of workers from the local Red Cross Branch, will try to surpass the record receipts of last year.

ENTERTAINMENT OF WOUNDED SOLDIERS.

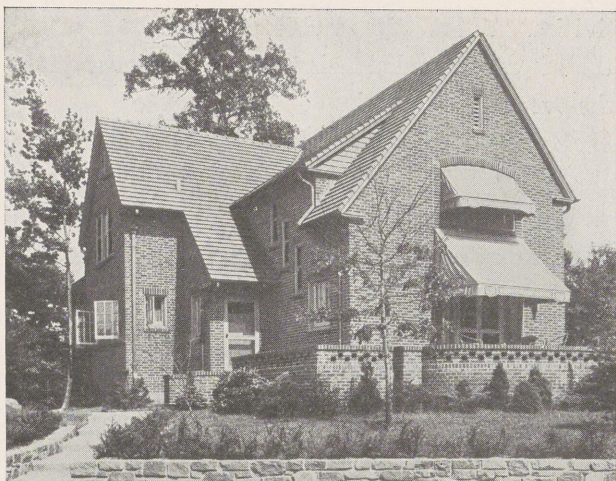

A suggestion made by L. M. Burt, that wounded soldiers, sailors and marines be given an opportunity to join in the celebration on the Fourth, has been enthusiastically adopted by the Committee.

Mr. Burt has made arrangements with nearby hospitals to bring convalescent men here by motor and dine them at the Sales Office, where Mrs. D'Emo and a corps of Red Cross workers have volunteered to serve them. So far as possible these men will be guests at all functions of the day, attending finally in a body at the exercises in Olivia Park.

HOSPITAL RELIEF.

On Wednesday last, one hundred and ten wounded American soldiers from France, arrived at a hospital here. They had suffered on the trip the added perils of a collision at sea and reached home at last in need of all comfort they could find. Relief of many kind were waiting for them, but one thing they seemed to appreciate above everything else was two large boxes of fruit. There was enough to go round; it was the only fruit they had;—and it came from the school children of Forest Hills.

Beside this relief the children as well as their elders sent books and flowers and games for these wounded men. Miss Jessup has appreciated this response to her appeal and is still eager to take from day to day everything of this kind that is offered. Her address is 87 Groton Street and her telephone number 6335 M. Forest Hills.

HOME OF W. D. MERSHON.

Pictured above is the home of W. D. Mershon on Wendover Road near Greenway North. This attractive house although not favoring a particular style, possesses a leaning towards the quaint cottage type now being used in the best of the modern English housing developments. Its high gabled ends, tiled roof and rough textured brick, with wide terrace of semi-circular form bring out the lines without application of ornament for the effect.

The house was designed and erected by the Homes Company.

SOME RECENT SALES.

Within the last three months the following persons have purchased houses in the Gardens:

John McMillan, Broker with H. L. Doherty & Co.; Herman H. Doehler, President of the Doehler Dye Casting Co.; John G. Elliot, for several years a lessee at 34 Greenway Terraces; Mrs. Lorenzo Ullo, sister of George J. Ryan, President of the Queens Borough Chamber of Commerce; F. Clark Thompson, Broker with Shonnard & Mills; Herbert R. Pendleton, Broker with Alberti & Carlton; Ernest Victor Gent of Busch, Beach & Gent; Henry W. Crowell, with the Otis Elevator Co.; N. R. Wilkes, with Titus Blatter Co.; Harry P. Burton, newspaper man with the Liberty Feature Service; William J. Welch, Jr., with MacAndrews & Forbes, and John P. Curtiss, who has been a resident of the Gardens for several years, has purchased one of the houses on the Terraces.

NEW TIME TABLE TODAY

A new time table on the Long Island Railroad goes into effect today, (Saturday June 29th.)

TAXPAYERS' MEETING

The last meeting of the Taxpayers was held on Tuesday evening, June 25th, at the Church of Forest Hills. This meeting had one of the largest attendances and was the most important meeting of the year.

Mr. Lyman Beecher Stowe spoke on "What the Community Council Means to Forest Hills," giving the steps taken in the organization of the Council and the work of the Council in the past two years in relation to its importance to the community.

Mr. Stowe also spoke of the sale of Hearst newspapers in Forest Hills. After a lively discussion the following resolution was made, seconded and carried:

"That we take advantage of the offer of the Long Island News Company, and ask that they cease to serve the Hearst Newspapers in this community; and take what steps are necessary in prohibiting the sale of German newspapers, and that we direct our motion to the Long Island News Company or to whatever company our local newsdealers deal with, as well as to the local dealer himself."

Mr. Neumer, Chairman of the Fire Committee, reported that within a very short time an automobile fire apparatus would be established in Forest Hills, as well as the installation of six alarm boxes instead of one.

Mr. Eckman, Chairman of Anti-Mosquito Committee, reminded residents who had not given their checks for this year's work to do so at once. He reported that all the mosquitoes annoying us at present were home bred, due to stagnant water being allowed to gather, and that after the first of July it was the intention of the Committee to employ a high school boy to hunt up these places of breeding.

VIGILANCE COMMITTEE FORMED.

A Forest Hills Vigilance Committee has been organized to prosecute cases of disloyalty occurring in Forest Hills and vicinity. All cases of disloyalty should be reported by mail to this organization to be investigated at once. Complaints will be received signed or unsigned. Signed correspondence is preferred and will be considered strictly confidential. Post Office Box 1000, Forest Hills, has been reserved as the official address of this organization.

A COMMUNITY CELEBRATION,

It may be doubted whether any other Fourth of July, since that original and memorable one which sponsored the Declaration of Independence, has carried the measure of vital significance that attaches to this year's anniversary.

In 1776 an inconsiderable group of men vitalized on this continent a new conception of freedom. In 1918 the descendants of that group, now grown to a manifold nation, are reiterating, daily, if not hourly, the principles of that heritage in terms of war. For this practice of liberty for over a hundred years has made it part and parcel of the American consciousness; a thing to live by or to die for.

The most formidable attack yet made on this institution, because the most formidable attack yet made on world liberty, has been the recent onslaught of the Hun, begun on the fields of Belgium. With the feverish vigor of belated realization America has at last taken her place in the battle line abroad and the battle line at home. She is in khaki; and Independence Day, 1918, will dawn on a nation awakened as never before to the sacredness of freedom.

For years past the Fourth of July has been merely the echo of history. This year it becomes history itself.

Forest Hills will celebrate the day with increased fervor and decreased expense. Suitable but not unseemly retrenchment will mark the proceedings. The heightened sentiment of the occasion will be crystallized in the morning ceremonies about the flagpole and in the entertainment of a number of American soldiers convalescing from wounds sustained at the French front. Those who were fortunate enough to view his contribution to last year's celebration will no doubt be rejoiced to learn that Chalif, with a selected group of dancers, will again hold forth in Olivia Park as a part of the afternoon's festivities. There will be children's games as usual in the afternoon and dancing in the Station Square in the evening.

The residents of the Gardens are assured that illumination, music, printing, policing, labor and such items of expenditure will reach nothing like the total of other years. All lavishness of display, it is agreed, should be restricted to the spirit of the community and the spirit of the day.

Let Forest Hills Gardens observe the day as will the one million defenders of human rights in France—shoulder to shoulder!

EDWARD HAROLD CONWAY

FOURTH OF JULY NOTES.

Revenue from the Red Cross Booth in the Station Square on the Fourth of July last year amounted to more than $300. There is greater need this year and the response should be better.

An unusual guest is expected at this year's celebration. If a proper landing can be made, one of the aviators from Hempstead will fly here in the morning and possibly stay for further flights through the day.

Distinctive Fourth of July buttons will be distributed again this year to residents and their guests, and an effort will be made to confine participation in the celebration to those wearing them.

A special police force will patrol the Gardens during the events of the day as an additional protection to homes.

The community is again indebted to Herman Rountree and his Committee of artists who have generously given their talent in the production of this year's posters. These posters, with those of former years already constitute a rare and valued collection.

To meet the expenses of the celebration the subscription of every family is needed. Economy has been practised in incurring expenses; a great many have already subscribed; but Dr. Sweeney and his Collecting Committee have not yet succeeded in visiting every home. It will help them if checks are sent directly to Dr. T. T. Sweeney, 5 Russell Place, at once.

CHILDREN'S GAMES ON THE PLAYGROUND 1917. THE SACK RACE REQUIRES PRACTICE. IT'S HARDER THAN RUNNING IN SKIRTS. THE GAMES THIS YEAR WILL START AT 2 O'CLOCK.

PROCLAMATION AND PROGRAM.

The preparation of the Proclamation and Program is in the hands of Frederic W. Goudy, who has generously volunteered his services this year as he has always so kindly done in the past. It is quite superfluous to add that both will measure up to or surpass the standard of artistic achievement for Forest Hills Gardens that Mr. Goudy has established. It is interesting to know that at the present time two of our former Proclamations are being exhibited in California as examples of artistic typography. Copies have also been exhibited at the Printing Exhibition of the American Institute of Graphic Arts and at the Convention of the Affiliated Advertising Clubs of Cleveland, Canton, Buffalo, Rochester, and Syracuse. Reproductions have appeared in the "American Printer" and have received commendatory notice in other typographic journals. The printing for the celebrations in Forest Hills Gardens for the past four years has reached a remarkably high point of artistic merit, for such things are not as yet approached by that of any other community.

SOLDIER AND SAILOR GUESTS.

On Sunday afternoon, June 16th, Miss Martha Allen entertained a large party of soldiers and sailors at her home on Beechknoll Road. From 4 to 5 o'clock the guests enjoyed a ride about the town and to Malba and return in the automobiles of Mr. Batcheller, Mr. Marsh, Mr. Ward and Mr. Post. Supper was served on the lawn, and the young men seemed to have a very pleasant time.

Some of the townspeople kindly aided in entertaining the boys. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Beecher Stowe, Mr. and Mrs. Batcheller, Mr. and Mrs. Teague, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ward, Mr. Marsh, the Misses Hulda and Dorothy Flint, and Miss Evelyn Wessman. Several civilian guests from out of town were also present.

The house and lawn were prettily decorated with flags and Japanese lanterns. The latter part of the evening was spent in the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Teague on Beechknoll Road.

Among the soldiers and sailors entertained were a Columbia University instructor, a research worker of Wesleyan University, Ct., two British warrant officers, a British wireless operator, a member of the Medical Corps, and several who are members of the crews of sub-chasers.

Miss Allen is a worker in one of the clubs for soldiers and sailors established by the National League for Women's Service, and this party was a farewell for some of the boys about to go overseas.

THE SPIRIT OF PLAY.

On Wednesday, June 26th, the friends of little children gathered together on "The Village Green" to learn how they might enter the Land of Happiness through the Spirit of Play."

The Masque was given by the children of the Playground who had been trained by Miss Barbara Schelling, of the Florence Fleming Noyes School of Dancing, Miss Schelling herself taking the part of "The Spirit of Play," and delighting her audience with her work with the children, as well as her own graceful dancing.

Miss Imogene Washburne gave the Prologue and Epilogue, inviting all mortals to enter the portals of play.

The success of the Masque was due to the kind co-operation of the following residents: Mrs. Robert Tappan opened her house to the children in the dyeing of the costumes, and took entire charge of the designing as well as fitting of costumes suitable to each child. She was assisted by Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Ward.

The synopsis was edited by Mr. Harold Conway, and the Prologue and Epilogue written by Mr. Walter Hartwig.

The gate which led to the Land of Happiness was designed and constructed by Mr. Louis P. McGahie and Mr. L. M. Burt, and the patronesses of the afternoon were as follows:

Mrs. Alexander Cameron, Mrs. Roland Smith, Mrs. Edwin Arden, Mrs. Edward H. Mays, Mrs. Haas, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Harold Daniels, Mrs. V. E. Engelbach, Mrs. Julius Luneborg, Mrs. Robert Wylie, Mrs. W. D. May, Mrs. David Ray, Mrs. S. W. Eckman, Mrs. A. E. Kretschmer.

The Masque was preceded by a short program. Miss Estelle Brion gave Chalif's dance of "The Hussar," and Mr. Lincoln Rowley, Secretary of the Playground Commission of East Orange, gave an interesting talk on "What the Playrogund Means to Forest Hills." Mr. Rowley showed the importance of Playground work, and told of what had been accomplished in a similar kind of community. His talk stimulated the interest in the signing of contribution blanks for the Playground Fund, and the full returns of the financial campaign made in tagging those present on the day of the Masque will be made in the next Bulletin.

SCOUT CAMP.

With the departure of the Pioneer Squad for the Ramapos on Monday, the camping season of the Queens Boy Scouts opened. Scout Executive C. A. Warden and his assistant, F. C. Roud, have just returned from the camp after making a preliminary survey and report that without any question Queens Borough has the best camp site of the five Boroughs. By agreement with the Palisade Interstate Park Commission, two large lakes in the Ramapo Mountains have been set aside exclusively for the use of Boy Scouts of America, under the direct supervision of the Councils of the greater city. Queens Borough has had a prominent place in shaping the progress of camping through Alrick H. Man, C. G. M. Thomas and John H. Weier, its representatives on the Federation of Councils. The program as a whole is the largest camping enterprise in the country, outside of army cantonments.

The site upon which the Queens boys will camp is a double island in the center of one of the prettiest lakes in the Ramapos. Trees, birds, and animals abound in the surrounding country, and added to the natural beauty is the historical value of the section. West Point is an overnight hike distant. Abandoned iron mines in the near vicinity furnished metal for American ordnance during the Revolutionary War.

With its equipment consisting of log messhall, wood craft cabins, army tents, boats and canoes, the physical properties of the camp are complete. The Council has succeeded in securing councillors who give oversight to the educational, physical and moral activities of the boys. Religious observances make a part of the camp program through visits to nearby churches or local services in the several camps.

From the formal opening of camp on July 2nd until the close on September 5th, the Scouts will be brought back to Nature and given all of the advantages which a woodland life affords.

THE INN.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray S. Brown and son, Murray L., of Forest Hills Gardens, are spending a few weeks at the Inn before their departure for their summer home at Lake Champlain.

Mr. George Sherman Richards and Mrs. H. Van S. Baldwin, who have spent several summers at the Inn, have returned for a stay of several months.

Lieut.-Col. S. B. Williamson and Mrs. Williamson, who were guests of the Inn last summer, have been spending a short time here pending the orders of Col. Williamson, who expects to sail for France within a very short time. Their son, Lieut. L. H. Williamson, who is in the same regiment with his father, hopes to be sent across at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Glenn and Miss Eleanor P. Brown, of New York City, have returned to the Inn to remain until late in the summer.

Mr. John F. Hanson, of Philadelphia, has recently joined his mother, Mrs. A. H. Garrett, here, and hopes to remain in this vicinity while awaiting orders from the Naval Reserves.

Mrs. N. A. Gilbert, of Cleveland, O., has been visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gilbert, who are among the permanent guests of the Inn.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are Mr. George Nowland, of New York; Mrs. G. A. Brown and her daughters, Misses Anne and Ethel; Mr. R. S. Hoffman, Mrs. W. A. Waring and daughter, of Chicago; Miss Margaret Neilson, also of Chicago; Mr. L. D. Pearson, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Chesterman, of Richmond, Va.

PERSONAL NOTES.

A son, Hugh Mullen, 2nd, was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanley Mullen, of Ivy Close, on Sunday, June 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nichols announce the marriage of their sister, Lucy Margaret Brett, of 15 Ivy Close, to Mr. William Butler Andrew, on Saturday, June 15th.

Letters have been received announcing the safe arrival in France of Walter M. Ryan, 104th Machine Gun Battalion, and Jack F. Ryan, 102nd U. S. Engineers.

Miss Maida Birmingham, with her baskets of flowers carried by a donkey, is gathering many dollars for blind Italian soldiers at the fair now being held in front of the New York Public Library.

The friends of Charles Bishop will be interested to know that he has enrolled in the R. O. T. C. at Cambridge, Mass., which starts July 1st. This camp is under the auspices of Harvard and trains for the Infantry only.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. L. L. Post, of Beechknoll Road, gave a pleasant afternoon tea on Friday, June 21st, to twelve of the younger women of Forest Hills. This was the fifth of a series of afternoon teas given by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Post during the spring and early summer.

GRANT B. ROSSMAN.

Grant B. Rossman, one of the pioneer residents of the Gardens, died suddenly from angina pectoris on the evening of Wednesday, June 19th, in his home on Puritan Avenue.

Mr. Rossman, widely known as a newspaper man of New York, was in his fiftieth year. Born in Michigan, he was graduated from the University of Minnesota and came to New York in 1895. Here, until the outbreak of the Spanish-American War in 1897, he served on the Herald, leaving to volunteer in the Seventh Regiment at that time. Almost immediately, to get into action more quickly, he left the Seventh and went with the Third United States Cavalry through the campaign in Cuba, serving with distinction.

After the war, Mr. Rossman returned to his newspaper career in which he served successively the Herald, Tribune, Wall Street Journal and Standard Statistics, being employed by the latter publication at the time of his death.

In 1902 he married Miss Elizabeth Taylor of New York, daughter of the late Robert William Taylor, who, with two daughters, Eunice and Elizabeth, survive him.
