NEW BUILDING NEEDED

Gardens Mothers Work For It—Program Given by Children of Public School 101

Seventy mothers attended the February meeting of the Forest Hills Gardens Mothers' Club, which was held at Public School 101, on Monday afternoon, Feb. 19. The vice-president, Mrs. James A. Corscaden, was in the chair in the absence of Mrs. Lawrence F. Abbott, president. Promptly at 3 o'clock, the kindergarten children began their attractive entertainment, which was followed by a delightful program of songs, recitations, folk dancing and dramatization of stories, by the first, second and third year scholars. The whole program was under the supervision of Miss Beatrice Wilson, and reflected great credit upon Miss Wilson and the other teachers who assisted her.

After the mothers had expressed their thanks to the teachers by an enthusiastic vote, the club proceeded with the regular business. The treasurer, Mrs. Roger Williams, reported the deposit of $50 skating money—the nucleus of a fund with which the mothers hope to build a permanent pond in the Gardens, such a pond to provide a place for skating whenever there is freezing weather. Mrs. Corscaden made an earnest plea for all the mothers to join the club, so that it may become an effective aid in securing the new building soon. The members promised to go to the City Hall when the question comes up for consideration before the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

Mrs. Lyman Beecher Stowe reported on the noted educators who will lecture to the club members and friends for the benefit of the playground fund. The first lecture will take place in the Church-in-the-Gardens in April, the name of the lecturer and exact date to be announced later.

ENCOURAGE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

A large group of Forest Hills people, under the leadership of Mrs. Niels F. Holch, is working hard to form a strong auxiliary here for the Jamaica Hospital. The chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Ralph E. Renaud, 336 Burns Street, has sent out an appeal for names of members. To this appeal 160 people have responded. Names should be sent to Mrs. Renaud, but checks in payment for dues should go to Mrs. L. R. Blackhurst, 104 Ascan Avenue. The goal at which the officers aim is 1,000 members. A house-to-house canvass is planned for the near future, so that immediate response on the part of residents will save the canvassers some effort.

A committee is planning to give a musicale at the new and beautiful home of Mrs. Fred Stone some time in the early spring. This entertainment will attract a large crowd and will realize a substantial amount for the hospital. The date will be announced later.

The trustee of the hospital from Forest Hills will be Horace H. Hume.

EMINENT INVENTOR SPEAKS

Frank J. Sprague, consulting engineer of international reputation, talked informally to the Men's Club on Friday, Feb. 23, of his part in forty years of development of the electrical industry. He gave a narrative of absorbing interest covering many inventions conceived by himself and eventually brought to success after many hardships and much experimenting.

Mr. Sprague spoke particularly of his work in the designing and constructing of electric elevators, multiple-controlled electric trains and more recent appliances for external automatic control of railroad trains, supplementing the block signals now in use.

The host for the evening was G. G. Thomson of Ascan Avenue.

For the March meeting the entertainment committee has secured two editors of the Literary Digest, who will tell how the news of the world is gathered.

NOTED SCHOLAR TO SPEAK

"A Bundle of Letters Thirty Centuries Old" to Be Subject Before Women's Club

Robert William Rogers, an American Orientalist, will speak to the members of the Women's Club on Monday afternoon, March 5, on the subject "A Bundle of Letters Thirty Centuries Old." Mr. Rogers is a lecturer at Princeton University, a professor at Drew Theological Seminary, and is America's foremost scholar on the history of Babylonia and Assyria. He is the author of many books and is particularly famous because of his "A History of Babylonia and Assyria," published in two volumes, the sixth edition of which was revised in 1915. For research work he has studied in many libraries and museums of Asia and Europe, especially the Bodleian Library of Oxford and the British Museum. Mrs. Virgil W. Miller, chairman of the civic committee, will introduce Mr. Rogers. Miss Christina V. Rose, pianist, will furnish the music.

The proposed amendment of the constitution and by-laws will be voted upon. Members are asked to bring their year books to the meeting.

The current readings chapter will meet on Tuesday afternoon, March 13, at the home of Mrs. George H. Merrill, 47 Markwood Road, when Mrs. Alden H. Vose will review "The Judge," by Rebecca West. Mrs. Harold P. Daniels will be the assistant hostess. The same chapter will hear Mrs. Louis D. Speir review "Letters of Franklin K. Lane," at the home of Mrs. Donald G. Clark, 49 Markwood Road, on Tuesday afternoon, March 27, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles S. Winston will be the assistant hostess.

The philanthropic chapter will meet Wednesday afternoon, March 21, at 3 p. m., at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, 80 Ascan Avenue.

Attractive House, 191 Greenway North—George Woehrlin, Architect

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Forest Hills Auxiliary of the American Legion Post will hold a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ward J. MacNeal, 82 Rockrose Place, on Monday afternoon, 2:45, March 12.

The card party and dance which the Auxiliary held at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Feb. 15 was a success socially and financially. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Veterans' Mountain Camp.

REHEARSING FOR CONCERT

Every Tuesday night, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock, members of the Choral Club rehearse in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens, under the leadership of Bruno Huhn. Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, president, announces that the spring concert will take place on Friday evening, April 20, at the Masonic Temple. The names of the assisting artists will appear later. Mrs. Scammell urges all members to attend the rehearsals regularly.

Local news notes and other items of interest for publication should reach the Editor of the BULLETIN not later than Tuesday morning of the week of publication.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

FOR a number of years the Sage Foundation Homes Company has furnished free of charge a room in the Sales Office for the use of the Library Station. Light and heat have also been a part of the gift. It has been possible, therefore, for the Queens Borough Public Library to maintain here a station open a part of two days a week. Committees from various organizations have worked to bring the institution before the residents, to encourage a general and regular use of it on the part of children and parents, and to urge the central library authorities to send here the books that would best meet the demand. Considerable has been accomplished; much more can be done when the entire community is aroused to the fact that in a democracy the citizens get what they want, when they want it hard enough and when they work together for it.

Encouraged by improved conditions, the committee has appeared before the Board of Estimate and Apportionment in the old City Hall, New York, to ask for an appropriation of $25,000 for a library site. The board is considering that appeal. It will be a number of years, of course, before the dream of a library branch building will come true, but it surely will be realized. In the meantime, the lot on which the Sales Office stands has been sold and a large building will be erected there. Before many months have passed the library station will be homeless. Send suggestions to the BULLETIN as to the best possible central location for the present library station. The institution belongs to the citizens and they can make of it what they will.

SCHLESIER-FULLER WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Edna Schlesier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Schlesier, Seminole Avenue, and Edward R. Fuller, Chicago, took place on Monday evening, Feb. 26, in the Church-in-the-Gardens, with Dr. Robert J. Kent officiating clergyman. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin and Duchesse lace with silver cloth train, an Egyptian cap and veil and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Helen Smith, and the maids, Miss Effie Dongan, Kew Gardens, and Miss Helen Kay, wore apple-green chiffon dresses. Miss Smith's bouquet was of orchid sweet peas while the other maids carried rose sweet peas. The decorations in the church were the greens and bouquets of lavender and rose sweet peas. The whole scene was one of harmonious beauty.

The best man was C. W. Fuller, and the ushers were John Hubbell New York; John Stone, Port Washington; David Visel and Arthur Carpenter, Brooklyn.

A reception was held at the Kew Gardens Inn immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will live in Philadelphia.

AUDUBON TREASURER REPORTS

The receipts from all sources for the recent Audubon lecture were $408.03. The disbursements for printing, postage, stationery, lecturer and rent of theatre were $404.48. A detailed report will be rendered to the society next week.

BIG BUILDING BOOM*Three Companies Active in Developing Forest Hills—Construction of High-Grade Houses.

With the approach of spring Forest Hills can prepare for the annual influx of home seekers. On any pleasant Saturday or Sunday it is safe to say that there will be hundreds of prospective new residents examining the houses the different companies are completing for occupancy this spring. The Cord Meyer Company has a number of attractive homes on Nome and Occidental streets.

On the Gardens side, the Sage Foundation Homes Company has completed a very attractive group of houses on Middlemay Circle just off Greenway Terraces. There are two groups of three houses each, one of the houses being an inside house and the other two semi-detached. One feature of the construction is a very large porch which each house has. All contain seven rooms and two baths, with garage.

The Forest Hills Gardens Homes Company is finishing its first group of twelve houses on Whitson Street, some of which have already been sold. These houses are six and seven rooms of the semi-detached type, and eight rooms detached. They were designed by Robert Tappan, who lives on the next block, and the elevations were passed upon by Grosvenor Atterbury, who is responsible for the architectural effects of Forest Hills Gardens. Each of these houses has a detached heated garage. The construction is of the very highest type.

This company has also started a duplication of the first group on the opposite side of Whitson Street. The purchasers of houses in the first group will know just how the other side will look. It is expected that this block on Whitson Street between Ascan and Puritan Avenues will be one of the most attractive in all the Gardens. The contract has been let for the painting, which will enhance the architectural beauties to the utmost. The street already has large trees planted in the parking space of the sidewalks.

The third group being constructed by the Forest Hills Gardens Homes Company faces Ascan Avenue. It consists of nine houses in a row and occupies the block between Whitson and Ingram streets. These houses are to be seven rooms, two baths, most of them with garages. The foundations are already in and the houses will probably be finished in the early summer.

GARDENS CORPORATION MEMBERSHIP*Large Number Respond — Architectural Supervision Is Explained.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Gardens Corporation held Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, an interesting report was made as to the progress in the collection of maintenance and membership dues in the corporation to date. This report showed that 371 property owners have paid maintenance charges and 338 have paid both maintenance charges and dues in the corporation. In other words, 33 owners have paid maintenance but not dues. Out of this 33, only 8 have actually refused to pay the dues to the corporation, the others asking for more information.

A statement is being mailed this week to all property owners in the Gardens advising all who contemplate building that, in accordance with the assignment made by the Russell Sage Foundation and the Sage Foundation Homes Company to Gardens Corporation, all plans for new buildings must bear the stamp of approval of Gardens Corporation. It further advises that in order to save needless work and expense to the owner, a conference should be held between the owner, his architect and the architectural representatives of Gardens Corporation before any working drawings are made. At this conference the general type of building desired may be considered and the wishes of the corporation with relation to such matters clearly explained.

GLASS BROKEN

The glass in the street lights and in the bird posters on the street lamps is often broken carelessly by the boys of the Gardens. The Gardens Corporation goes to much expense to replace lamp glass and the Audubon Society bears the cost of replacing glass in bird posters. The broken glass on the streets cuts automobile tires. Parents, please talk these things over with the boys.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORS

Charles B. Nelcamp sold the S. S. Freeman house, Union Turnpike and Greenway North, to Henry Hof, New York. After redecorating most of the house, the Hof family will move into it on April 1.

The handsome house on Greenway Terraces designed by Grosvenor Atterbury for H. Lytle Hunter is now occupied by Mr. Hunter and his family. The house is constructed of lammie brick and has leaded windows. The pierced brick wall surrounding the house makes it very imposing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Abbott and children, Greenway South, have enjoyed a short vacation at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sherman, Brooklin, Maine, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William B. Davis, 41 Wendover Road.

Mrs. George Watson, Harvest Street, gave a luncheon and bridge at her home on Feb. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Freeman have gone to Florida for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sarkisian and two of their children left for Miami, Florida, on Feb. 20, to stay three weeks. Mrs. Sarkisian has just recovered from a severe attack of flu.

Verner Kline, Fife Street, has gone to New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Pearce, Seminole Avenue, have spent a week in Atlantic City.

MANY SALES OF HOUSES AND LOTS

The house of F. M. Knowles, 392 Burns Street, has been sold to J. A. Rooney. T. F. Frawley has sold 18 Park End Place to G. H. Hodell. The house at number 16 Park End Place has changed hands from C. B. Flory to Robert Kane. Miss Charlotta A. Ortgies has sold 346 Burns Street to Dr. F. L. Finnegan. R. E. Renaud has bought the house at 16 Puritan Avenue from A. Kreamer. S. McConnell has bought 78 Greenway Terraces from H. F. Williams. The house of Chester I. Barnard, 86 Greenway North, has been sold to J. M. Lee.

These sales have been negotiated recently by Louis P. McGahie, who has also been the means of selling a number of land plots for clients.

CAMP NAMED FOR ROOSEVELT

Prominent Forest Hills men, all great admirers of Theodore Roosevelt and who wish to perpetuate his ideals of robust manhood and clean living, are devoting unselfishly much of their time in the interest of Camp Roosevelt in Maine, a camp for boys, at "Bill" Sewall's Lake Mattawamkeag, Maine. It is generally known that "Bill" Sewall was Theodore Roosevelt's guide. A most interesting illustrated booklet may be had through Russell R. Whitman, Tennis Apartments, or the camp director, R. A. Watkins, 27 Donaldson Avenue, Rutherford, New Jersey.

CAMP ALLEGRO FOR GIRLS

Parents who are planning to send their daughters to camp for the coming summer may be interested in the announcement that Mrs. Blanche Carstens, Gardens Apartments, will reopen this summer for the sixth season Camp Allegro, located in the White Mountains, at Silver Lake, New Hampshire. The camp offers water and land sports, mountain climbing, horse-back riding, and develops appreciation of beauty in nature, music and handwork. The camp booklet will be mailed on request.

MASONS ENTERTAIN

The Masonic Temple was well filled on the occasion of the Washington's birthday party, held on the 22d under the auspices of the entertainment committee of the Masonic Lodge, of which Henry Hirschberg is chairman. Chas. Bierbauer, a member of the committee, announced the coming St. Patrick's day dance, to be held under the same auspices, on March 17.

DO YOU USE CORRECT ENGLISH?

Conferences to consider the correct use of the English language will be held in Forest Hills, under the direction of Edward Harold Conway. Those interested will please consult Mr. Conway, 63 Burns Street, Boulevard 5206.

VALENTINE PARTY

A very pretty Valentine party was given for the children attending the Gardens Kindergarten in the Tennis Apartments. The decorations and favors were all appropriate for the day and helped to make the party a happy as well as a pretty one.

THE INN

Washington's birthday was celebrated at the Inn with a formal dance and the management was highly complimented upon the very appropriate and beautiful decorations on that occasion.

Mrs. L. P. McGahie entertained a party of eight in the sun porch of the Inn for dinner and dance on Saturday, Feb. 24. Another large party was entertained there by Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Castleman.

The Executive Committee of the Long Island Hotel Association met at the Inn on Tuesday, Feb. 20, for a luncheon and business meeting.

Four artists well known in metropolitan music circles played to a capacity audience at the Inn Sunday night. The most carefully selected numbers were enthusiastically received, and the four artists—Anna Welch, harpist; Constance Karla, violinist; Gertrude Holmgren, contralto, and Frances Clute, pianist—will appear again at some later date. This concert was the first of a series of Sunday musicales, and the next concert on Sunday, March 4, promises to be a still greater success.

A dinner party was given at the Inn on Saturday night for the boys of the track team of Newton High School, who recently won the Greater New York championship. With the boys were Vice-Principal Arthur Book of Forest Hills and Mr. Howlett, coach.

Major John L. Clarkson of Philadelphia was the week-end guest of Miss Stella Hoban.

Chief Justice Anderson of the Supreme Court of Alabama was the guest of Mrs. William C. Oates at dinner and concert Sunday evening.

E. K. Titus, who sings one of the leading roles in "Blossom Time," has gone to Baltimore for a week's engagement and thereafter will go to Washington.

Louis Lombard of the French diplomatic service is at the Inn with Mrs. Lombard and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Burke of London are again registered at the Inn.

Mrs. Wm. J. Bevins of Andover, Mass., is visiting her sister, Miss Adele M. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sweet of New Orleans are guests of the Inn for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. J. L. Owens has returned from a trip to West Indies and Panama.

Miss Margaret Faral, after a vacation trip to Bermuda, has returned to the Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bobst and son have returned to the Inn and have engaged the studio suite.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keegan and daughter have returned to the Inn, welcomed by their numerous friends.

Mrs. B. Chesterman, now in Chicago, will return to the Inn on March 6. Mr. Chesterman is expected at some later date.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Laurence and daughter of Bronxville, N. Y., were dinner guests of Mrs. W. C. Oates on Sunday. Mr. Laurence is the owner of the Grammatan Hotel, Bronxville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Gallen entertained during the week Miss Ruth Gallen of the Metropolitan Opera Co. and Miss Miss Estelle Gallen, also Edward M. Gallen, Jr.

Among the latest arrivals at the Inn are:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, Belfast, Ireland.

Miss Florence Mayo, Denver, Colo.

Miss Marion Miller, Rochester, New York.

J. C. Farrant, London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mark Palmer, Hotel Plaza, New York.

James B. Hammond, Altoona, Pa.

OLD-TIMER GOES SHOPPING

Window shopping, that most delightful of feminine sports, no longer presupposes for the Forest Hills woman a trip into New York. Our own Continental Avenue grows more and more alluring as new shops blossom out gaily along its short length. One of the newest of these is a delightful gift shop, located diagonally across from the theatre, toward Queens boulevard. Besides the usual display of novelties of every kind, planned to please persons of every age, disposition and sex, this cosy shop means to specialize in girls' frocks and sweaters. Unusual toys and books for little children are another fascinating line carried here. This particular window shopper, who remembers the good old days when Continental Avenue boasted only one store—that still occupied by the stationer—feels that the pink gingham pig in this window is worth going to see, though she defies any normal woman to approach this spot and remain a mere window shopper.

OLD-TIMER.

CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

"Out of the wilderness into the promised land," is the way our neighbor pastor, Rev. Albert Sheppard, refers to the coming of our long-needed and eagerly awaited new pastor, Rev. Claris Edwin Silcox. For fifteen months the Church-in-the-Gardens has been pastorless, but, thanks to the loyalty and interest of its officers and active workers, a high standard has been maintained in the pulpit supplies, the attendance has increased, the Sunday School has grown, and there have been additions to the church membership. Splendid activity has been shown by the various church organizations, but in spite of all commendable progress, the Church-in-the-Gardens has needed a regular pastor. Mr. Silcox is peculiarly adapted for a Forest Hills congregation and gives promise of fitting happily into our community life. Let us give him a royal welcome Sunday, March 4, when he will occupy the pulpit for the first time as our pastor.

Most encouraging headway has been made by the Every-member canvass in securing pledges for an enlarged 1923 budget. All concerned are eager to secure the entire amount, about $12,600, in signed pledges payable in weekly payments. The treasurer of the church is J. F. McTyler, 57 Summer Street. He will be glad to hear direct from anyone who was missed in the Every-member canvass.

R. P. K.

WANTED—USERS OF THE LIBRARY STATION

The number of people using the Forest Hills Library Station of the Queens Borough Public Library is very gratifying, as is also the circulation of the books which are furnished from the central library at Jamaica. Approximately 1,000 books are constantly on the shelves here, and while the number remains about the same, the books themselves are week by week exchanged for others which have been especially asked for by the people here. No matter how good the record of circulation, the committee urges a more general use of the library on the part of Forest Hills people.

The station is located in the Sales Office, at the head of the Green. Beginning with January, 1923, the hours of the library on Friday were extended from 5:30 to 8 p. m., the hours having been Friday 3 to 5:30 p. m., Monday 3 to 5:30. The use of the library from 5 to 8 on Friday is not great enough to indefinitely continue those hours. If an improvement is not shown in the coming two weeks, this new arrangement will be discontinued and the former hours resumed.

Some of the new titles added to the library during February are: Canfield, "Diary of a Forty-niner"; Curwood, "Courage of Captain Plum"; Farquhar, "First Million the Hardest"; Fitzgerald, "Tales of the Jazz Age"; Fletcher, "Ravensdene Court"; Garland, "Son of the Middle Border"; Hergessheimer, "Bright Shawl"; Maughan, "On a Chinese Screen"; Robinson, "Mind in the Making"; Stewart, "Parody Outline of History"; Traprock, "My Northern Exposure."

DEATH OF MRS. MEIGS' SISTER

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Meigs, 36 Slocum Crescent, are sorry to hear of the death of Miss Eleanor H. Brown, a sister of Mrs. Meigs. Miss Brown came from her home at New Haven to visit in the Meigs home at Christmas time. She was taken ill while visiting here, and died on Feb. 24. She was buried from her brother's home in New Haven on Feb. 28.

MR. McMILLIN'S MOTHER DIES

The mother of John M. McMillin, Fairway Close, Mrs. Essie A. McMillin, died in Washington, D. C., on Feb. 19. She is survived by her husband, a son of Los Angeles and Mr. McMillin of Forest Hills.

FOUND—WRIST WATCH

There is a small gold wrist watch at the postoffice to be claimed by the owner.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Visiting clergy for the Thursday evening Lenten services include the Rev. Thos. A. Sparks of St. Clement's Church, New York; the Rev. John V. Cooper of Lynbrook, and the Ven. Geo. F. Bambach, archdeacon of Brooklyn.

The Junior Guild is very busy preparing Easter gifts and candy boxes for the crippled children at St. Giles, Garden City.

The activities of the Women's Guild are continuing, and plans are under way for a very active season directly after Easter.

Building on the new church will be started in all seriousness when good weather is assured. The present plans call for the erection of the sanctuary, chancel and nave.

W. P. S. L.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

During the month of March, Rev. Albert Sheppard of the Presbyterian Church will preach Sunday mornings on "The Crises in the Life of Christ." The subjects for the evening will be illustrative of the morning topics, but will be from famous books and plays. The subjects for March 4 are: morning, "The Crisis at the Jordan"; evening, Lagerlof's "Anti-Christ." On March 11 Mr. Sheppard will discuss in the morning, "The Crisis at Sychar"; in the evening, Rostand's "The Samaritan Woman."

URGES REPEAL OF LUSK LAWS

The Mothers' Club of Public School 3 met at the school auditorium on Monday, Feb. 19, under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. O. Yerkes. After the transaction of the usual business, Rev. Albert Sheppard gave an address on "Senator Lusk and the Radicals." The famous Lusk laws, now before the State legislature on the question of repeal, were quoted by Mr. Sheppard, and the desirability of repeal and its prospect were discussed. The feeling was expressed that assistance should be given to bring about the repeal.
