ZONE PRIZE AWARDED

Civic Committee of Women's Club Active—All Residents Urged to Co-operate

The "Adopt an Orphan Vacant Lot" campaign which has been fostered by the civic committee of the Women's Club has resulted in some interesting developments. At the annual meeting of the committee, held March 30 at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Virgil W. Miller, the prize offered for the best kept zone was awarded to Mrs. E. R. Pierce of Seminole Avenue, who was in charge of the Club House zone, bounded by Colonial Avenue and Harvest Street. Mrs. Pierce and her lieutenants had not only made that district the cleanest, but had raised money for additional shrubbery to increase its beauty. Each of the ten zone captains reported on their work and later voted the prize to Mrs. Pierce.

Honorable mention goes to Olivia zone. R. Dawson Hall, captain of that zone, sent a report showing a great deal of work accomplished.

Mrs. F. M. Knowles read her letter to the Police Department suggesting the installation of an automatic telephone connecting the two police booths, and the reply from Commissioner Enright's office, which has approved the idea. The connection will be made immediately, and will enable residents to reach either booth by telephone on the same call.

The committee will continue to prevent dumping of waste on vacant lots. The various builders will be asked to either burn their waste or deliver it to the ash men, and to provide boxes, or containers of some sort, to prevent the empty milk bottles and lunch papers of their men from straying over to other people's property or the sidewalks. This particular problem of keeping the vacant lots clean is one that the committee members have been working on for two years, and they will continue to enlist the services of the school children and the co-operation of all the residents in making the movement show results. It is pointed out that there are plenty of proper places to throw waste without using vacant land, where it is most unsightly.

After the meeting, Mrs. Miller served tea and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

DEVELOPMENT WEST OF THE GARDENS

Sixty acres of land immediately adjoining Forest Hills Gardens and the West Side Tennis Club have been bought from the estate of the late Joseph Hayden by the Forest Hills Terrace Corporation, Daniel E. Lynch, president. The improvement of the property by the purchaser is promised to be of such a high order as to fit in harmoniously with Forest Hills and Forest Hills Gardens. There are 780 lots in the tract south of the Long Island Railroad. Those who will live in this new development will use the Forest Hills railroad station.

In discussing the development of Forest Hills Terrace, Mr. Lynch said: "We do not expect to be able to surpass the superb development of Forest Hills Gardens, but we do expect to equal it and at all times to maintain the high standard set by the Sage Foundation and associates. We will be content only with the best and most artistic workmanship, and it is our intention to insist upon the same rigid restrictions as those that have governed the development of Forest Hills Gardens."

A few modern apartment houses, to be co-operatively owned, will be erected. The first of these will be built soon from plans of Franklin B. Ware. The remaining lots will be sold in units of three to individual home seekers and builders.

"EDUCATION FOR CHARACTER"

Dr. Kilpatrick, of Teachers College, will lecture on "Education for Character" on Monday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock, in the Church-in-the-Gardens. This lecture is given under the auspices of the Mother's Club of Forest Hills Gardens. Tickets at 50 cents each may be secured from Mrs. Lyman B. Stowe. Members of the club will be admitted free.

SPRING CONCERT

Choral Club Will Appear in Fourth Attractive Program in the Masonic Temple

A very novel and interesting concert will be given at the Masonic Temple on Friday evening, April 20, when the Forest Hills Choral Club will give its spring concert. Bruno Huhn, the director, has built up a chorus of 75 voices. This concert will mark the close of a second season, and will be the fourth subscription concert. The club will present Cornetius Van Vliet, 'cellist, a very distinguished artist. The way to show appreciation of good music, of the work of the Choral Club, and of the cellist who will appear, is to secure tickets from any member of the club. The tickets are $1.50 each. Details of this attractive program will appear in the next number of the BULLETIN.

New associate members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pope Caldwell, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Saybolt, and Miss Valle Gaertner. Mrs. G. G. Thomson, 133 Ascan Avenue, is chairman of the membership committee.

Important Notice for Members

The Forest Hills Choral Club members have been invited to attend the concert given by the New York Banks Glee Club in Carnegie Hall on Tuesday evening, April 10. Bruno Huhn is the conductor. Tickets for this concert will be given to members at the next rehearsal of the Choral Club on April 3, at 8 p. m., in the Church-in-the-Gardens. Another rehearsal of the local club will be held April 12, Thursday evening. The last rehearsal before the concert will be on April 19, at 8 p. m., in the Masonic Temple, and the concert will take place on the following night, at 8:15 p. m.

RESIDENCE OF M. J. FOLENSBEE

The accompanying cut shows the house which has recently been bought by M. J. Folensbee and in which he and his family will reside. The house is on Occident Street. It is built of tapestry brick with roof of varicolored slate. There are six rooms, a sun room and one bathroom. The house was planned and built by the Cord Meyer Development Company.

The same company has started three houses on Jewell Street. These will be finished in the early summer.

THE CASE OF CHARLES S. PERRY

The case of Charles S. Perry, the jeweler who was arrested for pawning jewelry belonging to Forest Hills residents, came up again in the Second District Court of Flushing, on March 22, when it was again postponed until March 27. At the latter date the case was sent to the Grand Jury. It is the opinion of the Forest Hills citizens that in the interest of justice and in order to punish wrong doing this case must be carried through to the end.

EASTER CAROLS

EASTER Carols sung on the Green, Easter 1924, by all the people and led by the members of the Choral Club, representing all churches and interests of the village! Why not? What better way to create a feeling of community friendship? What better way to unitedly celebrate the day of such profound significance?

Easter Carol singing would call attention to the awakening of nature, in all beauty of color and fragrance, from the winter's sleep.

Easter Carol singing would bring comfort to sorrowing hearts. For no matter what our religious affiliation, the Carols confirm the belief of Dr. Felix Adler, when he says: "I affirm that there is an eternal life, a best beyond the best I can think or imagine, in which all that is best in me and best in those who are dear to me is contained and continued."

Easter Carols sing of a Risen Christ! We mean nothing narrow or orthodox in this statement. In the world today, as never before, there is a recognition that only by the acceptance of the principles of Jesus in the daily practice of human lives, can civilization be saved. Business men, social workers, dramatists, are searching for inspiration to better living in His Life. This is the message of the Easter Carols. Let us make our plans now for the celebration on the Green in 1924.

And for tomorrow, a very happy Easter to all readers of the BULLETIN!

AUXILIARY OF AMERICAN LEGION POST

The Forest Hills Auxiliary of the American Legion Post will hold the next regular meeting on Monday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock, at the Seminole Avenue Club House. This is an unusual hour for a meeting of a women's organization, but the reason for the time is a good one. Many of the members are mothers of small children, and they find it hard to attend meetings in the day time, so the experiment of an evening meeting is to be tried. Refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and to all who are eligible to membership, to come to this meeting.

The Auxiliary is proud to report a profit of $349.75 from the card party and dance held February 15 at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

THE MASONIC LODGE

The Masonic Lodge in Forest Hills will hold two special nights during April, the 3d and the 17th, when candidates in waiting will be given the final degree which makes them Master Masons. Last Sunday night a large body of local Masons attended services in the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Albert Sheppard, Junior Warden of the lodge, preaching. Mr. Sheppard spoke of Free Masonry as being one of the greatest organizations in the world, whose special function is to align itself with every agency working for good. He dwelt upon the unadvertised accomplishments of Free Masons in the history of this country, and of the widely extended charities of the Masonic lodges throughout the world.

Grosvenor Atterbury, supervising architect of Forest Hills Gardens, was married last Saturday to Miss Dorothy A. Johnstone, of Short Hills, N. J. Mr. Atterbury has a home in New York and one in Southampton.

NEWS GATHERING

Editor of Important Periodical Speaks Before Men's Club—Ladies Invited to April Meeting.

The March meeting of the Men's Club was held on the evening of the 23d at the home of Dr. Philip G. Cole, Markwood and Underwood Roads. The spacious rooms were never more attractive and the guests were cordially welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. Cole.

The speaker of the evening was Richard Duffy, foreign editor of the Literary Digest. He described the methods of the editors of that paper in collecting information and editorial comment from all parts of the world. In some cases, when a poll is taken, several thousand telegrams are sent to newspaper editors. One of the most noteworthy polls ever taken was that of the Literary Digest in 1914, shortly after the great war started, when it was uncertain as to what the attitude of the United States would be toward the allies. The result of the inquiry was highly encouraging to the allies, as showing that with the exception of a few localities the United States was thoroughly opposed to Germany.

Mr. Duffy gave a bird's-eye view of political conditions throughout Europe, referring particularly to Ireland, the Ruhr, Poland and Turkey. He also spoke briefly on conditions in China.

In replying to questions, Mr. Duffy said he did not think that Lloyd George would come back. As to conditions in Austria, he said there was great improvement, owing to a number of nations extending financial aid through the efforts of the League of Nations. He predicted that Lord Robert Cecil, in his speeches in this country on the league, would dwell upon this important achievement. "Are conditions in Turkey simmering down or are they really dangerous?" was one question asked. Mr. Duffy replied that he thought they were simmering down and that the Turks did not want to fight.

During the short business meeting preceding the address of the evening, Harold P. Daniels made an appeal to members to use their influence and muscle in helping to make the village more attractive, especially by removing glass, paper and other litter that have accumulated during the winter. He said that if everybody would do just a little, conditions would be vastly improved. He urged co-operation with the Women's Club in this matter.

It was announced that the annual ladies' meeting of the club would be held in April, at the Inn, and that the speaker would be William R. George, founder of the George Junior Republic.

During the week beginning with April 30 there will be held a Little Theatre Tournament on Broadway, and the Gardens Players will participate, according to an announcement of Edward S. Swazey, president.

Walter Hartwig, of the New York Drama League, has worked up the plan so that 20 organized Little Theatre Groups will each present a one-act play during the tournament. There will be four one-act plays given each evening from Monday to Friday. Judges will choose the three best plays given the first five nights, and these three productions will each be awarded $100. These three plays will be presented again Saturday afternoon and evening. At the conclusion of the performance Saturday night the judges' decision as to the best presentation of all will be announced, and the successful group will be awarded a trophy presented by David Belasco. This trophy will be competed for again in a tournament of 1924.

Just which play the Gardens Players will present in the tournament has not been decided.

NEW CONSTITUTION

Community Council a Bond of Union Between Gardens Corporation and Forest Hills Association.

The Community Council, which has been the forum in the past for the discussion of local problems and the agency through which the residents have acted in the common interest, has now, through a change in its constitution, been reorganized to become a bond of union between Gardens Corporation and the Forest Hills Association, and so continue its life as an instrument through which residents both north and south of the tracks may co-operate.

At a meeting held at the Church-in-the-Gardens on the evening of Friday, March 16, Louis Dean Speir presented a new constitution, which, after some discussion, was adopted. The principal provisions of the new document are:

1. The Community Council is continued as the joint organization for various vital common interests of the combined community of Forest Hills and Forest Hills Gardens, such as police protection, mosquito extermination, etc.

2. Full members will be all who either pay the $2 annual dues or belong to the Forest Hills Association or Gardens Corporation.

3. The presidents of these two organizations will be president and vice-president respectively of the Community Council year and year about.

4. The Governing Board will consist of these officers and chairmen of committees appointed by them.

5. Meetings of members or Governing Board will be called as occasion requires.

The annual meeting of the congregation was held on Wednesday, and a full report will be given in the next issue of the BULLETIN.

CLEAN-UP IN THE GARDENS

Men Folks Asked to Take Action the First Two Saturdays in April

Now that the snow is at last off the ground permanently and the first buds of spring begin to appear, it is time to clean up and prepare for summer. For this reason, the first two Saturdays in April have been named as clean-up days, and the men of the Gardens are requested to give up part of those days to their own property and the vacant lots nearby.

It is requested that all the burnable refuse be consigned to the flames and that which is not burnable be stacked in piles conspicuously so that the Gardens Corporation can send carts around and gather it up.

Among the other undesirables of the spring, will be found the bagworms hanging from the trees. If these are allowed to remain the worms will later create great havoc among the trees. These should be pulled down and burned before the leaves on which they feed begin to appear.

If the men folks undertake this work enthusiastically on the first two Saturdays of April the Gardens will start the spring spic and span, and there will be less destruction of foliage by caterpillars this year.

CLEAN-UP RULES FOR THE WHOLE TOWN

(1) Use covered garbage pails. Remove the garbage cans and ash cans from sidewalks as soon as cans are emptied.

(2) Tie all paper securely in bundles ready for the collector. (This is a New York City ordinance.)

(3) Throw no refuse in vacant lots.

(4) Do not walk on the grass in the parkways between the sidewalks and the streets.

CIVIC COMMITTEE OF WOMEN'S CLUB.

THE FOREST HILLS ASSOCIATION

The executive committee of the Forest Hills Association is assured by George Meyer, of the Cord Meyer Development Company, that the streets in Forest Hills will be put into a good state of repair as soon as spring weather permits. The committee is pushing the city hard to get the streets taken over by the city, in order that such conditions as now exist might be eliminated. The Forest Hills Association is working in conjunction with the Women's Club and the Men's Club to keep the community free from all signs of carelessness in the disposal of refuse matter. The Cord Meyer Development Company will be only too pleased, for a very nominal charge, to cart away any refuse stuff that cannot be disposed of through garbage collection.
