HOME TALENT PROGRAM

An Entertainment of Much Variety Will Close Winter Course of Women's Club

Subject of Thrift Discussed by an Expert at March Meeting—Various Chapter Busy.

The last number of the Women's Club entertainment course will be given on March 10, at 8:15 P. M., in the Church-in-the-Gardens, and the program will be furnished by local talent. Judge Charles F. Moore will speak on "Dollars and Sense," in which he will discuss the methods by which they are acquired and the purposes they are made to serve, good and bad. This lecture makes the listener think and it also makes him laugh. Judge Moore came to New York to practice law, and his native state is West Virginia. He has published a humorous tale of the United States called "The History of the States, United and Otherwise." The other speaker will be Mrs. George Smart, who, impersonating Priscilla, will speak on "What 1620 Says to 1920." This is one of a series of impersonations of historical women which Mrs. Smart has given before many audiences of college clubs, conventions, etc., in which the history of the country is interpreted through the ideals of the leading women. Mrs. George C. LeBlanc, organist, will play in her skillful way MacDowell's "1620."

The musical program will be an attractive one. Mrs. Anna Park Angell, the cornetist, is unquestionably the best in her line in the country. It is hoped she will render "The Favorite," by Hartmann, a selection which displays her technical ability and facility of execution, which is so difficult to accomplish with the cornet. Mrs. Jewel St. Leger Aldrich, a soprano, will enrich the program. Mrs. Aldrich has sung in the principal cities of Europe and has sung many times in London, both in grand opera and in musical comedies, and she has been on Keith's circuit in this country. The Women's Club Chorus, thirty of the best voices in Forest Hills, trained by Mrs. Charles H. Scammell, will be heard in several numbers—Mrs. C. C. Miller, violinist, assisting, and Miss Florence McMillan, pianist, and Mrs. George C. LeBlanc, organist.

The refreshments of home made pies and cakes will be served after the program in the social room by the ways and means committee, Mrs. A. J. Wilson in charge of this particular feature. Tickets for the entertainment may be bought at either drug store or at the Inn.

The March Meeting

At the regular March meeting of the club at the Inn on Mar. 1 at two o'clock, the principal speaker was Miss Florence Spencer, chief of the women's division of the government loan organization of the Second Federal Reserve District, who spoke on the subject, "Thrift for Women." Miss Spencer showed that large organizations, trades unions, merchants' associations, women's clubs, Y. W. C. A., etc., are back of this thrift movement of the government. "Thrift takes moral courage," said Miss Spencer. "What can we expect Forest Hills women to do? They should buy only the necessities and so not only save, but help to bring down high prices." She quoted from some one, "If only parsimony had been born a virtue instead of a vice, or if even as a vice, it had a bit of social standing like some of the other vices!" She continued, "Women in the home do not understand that they are business managers. Home savings are hardest, but the women must be back of this movement to make it succeed."

S. W. Eckman presented in a most vital way the need and scope of the Community House which the Church-in-the-Gardens proposes to erect on its recently acquired land adjoining the church—this land having been acquired by the generosity of a lady of Forest Hills. "Something like $15,000 has been pledged and only one-tenth of the community has been solicited," said Mr. Eckman. "The advice and also the financial help of all organizations is needed as well as that of individuals. This house is to be the center of the intellectual, civic and recreational life of the whole town, throughout the week; on Sunday the church will use it for religious education. Through the co-operation of all, the Community House will soon be under way," were Mr. Eckman's closing words.

Work of Chapters

Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh asked that members send articles, to be sold at a bazaar, immediately to Mrs. Maude Judd, 141 Jewell Street; the bazaar to be given for the benefit of the Jamaica Day Nursery.

The current readings chapter will meet at 2:30 P. M. on Mar. 9 at the home of Mrs. Lee Galloway, 250 Greenway South. Mrs. Eugene Schoen will discuss Bernard Shaw's "Heartbreak House." On March 24 this chapter will attend the matinee performance of Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln."

The music chapter gave a program of much excellence at the home of Mrs. George C. LeBlanc on Feb. 25, when a program, interpreting MacDowell and Ware, was given by Mrs. R. P. Kaighn, Mrs. John Mears, Mrs. Edward H. Moir, Miss Eleanor Foster and Mrs. Knapp.

HOME OF ROBERT J. COLE

Illustrated above is the home of Robert J. Cole on Wendenover Road near Rockrose Place. Modelled somewhat on the English Villa type, its lines are brought out through the simple treatment of the gable ends and attractively designed chimney. A trellised porch overlooking the rear garden adds much to the homelike atmosphere of this house. Grosvenor Atterbury, F. A. I. A. was the architect and the Homes Company the builder.

PROTECT THE HEDGES

Complaints have come to the BULLETIN office from many persons saying that the milk men, the newsboys, the boys who deliver meat and groceries are being destructive to the hedges in their careless jumping over them and breaking through them. Will the tradespeople kindly instruct their employees to take care not to break the hedges, which are costly to plant and to maintain.

REMEMBER THE BIRDS

The birds surely meet great difficulty in finding food during such weather as we have had this winter. Since birds live largely during winter months on dried seeds and grasses, when the sleet storms come, and everything is glassed over with ice, their fare must be discouragingly slight and hard to procure. It is kind to remember them by giving them suet, bread crumbs and the like.

BIRD ENEMIES

A friend of our song birds writing from Tarrytown to the editor of the Sun and New York Herald says:

"In this community I doubt if a single young bird after leaving its nest escapes its enemy. Mr. or Mrs. Cat is on the job 365 days in the year from sunrise to sunset, and it's goodbye little bird. I believe that our birds, next to the horse, are the best friends and most useful creatures God has given us, and it should be our duty to protect them in every way and at all times. I would like to see for that purpose an organization in every town and village in the country. I am sure there would be volunteers enough among the intelligent portion in every community to take up the work."

As there is already an organization in Forest Hills, the Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society with a special committee on Bird Enemies, this organization, through its committee, calls on "the intelligent portion" of the community to cooperate in getting rid of the tramp cat who has to make his living by stealth—and mostly at the expense of our song birds. And the "other portion," who perchance may own the tramps, must act with us in this matter or else it's "good-bye pet cat" instead of "goodbye little bird."

W. P. McCULLOCH,
Chairman, Committee on Bird Enemies,
Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU

IF you want to live in the kind of a town
That's the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.

You'll find elsewhere what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town;
It isn't your town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead.
When everybody works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.

And if while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see;
It isn't your town—it's you.

UNITED AMERICANS

Enthusiastic Preliminary Meeting Held Here Raises $1,000 to Launch Membership Drive in Country.

A most enthusiastic meeting of patriotic citizens of the United States was held on Monday evening, Feb. 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland H. Smith, 97 Continental Avenue. The purpose of the meeting was to raise funds to carry on the organization work of the United Americans. This society plans a nation-wide campaign of education of the American people in the origin, nature and value of American institutions and the issues at stake in their development and preservation. United Americans at the present moment is in the process of erecting the necessary machinery to launch successfully its campaign of the entire country in an enormous membership drive. All funds raised at the meeting at Mr. Smith's home will apply to this drive, which will take place early this summer.

Alexander Cameron, of the Gardens, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers, who were John A. Embry, formerly United States Consul at Omsk, Siberia, and Mrs. McAllister Smith, of Petrograd and New York City. Both speakers addressed the meeting on Bolshevism and its menace; Mr. Embry relating the story of his visit to Bolshevik Russia in the spring of 1919, and Mrs. Smith told incidents personally witnessed during the Russian Revolution of March, 1917. It will be remembered that Mr. Embry spoke with feeling and with first hand information on this same subject before the Community Council of Forest Hills in January.

At the close of the program John M. Demarest assisted Mr. Embry in raising the funds, and within a few minutes subscriptions had been made for more than one thousand dollars. For the purpose of collecting the subscriptions, a finance committee was appointed as follows: John M. Demarest, chairman; Lyman Beecher Stowe and Mrs. Sterling Birmingham. It is probable that others will be added to this committee. United Americans headquarters is at 2 West Forty-third Street, New York City. The chairman of the Executive Board is the Hon. Newton W. Gilbert, to whom all checks covering subscriptions should be made. The checks should be mailed to John M. Demarest, Sage Foundation Homes Company, 9 Station Square, Forest Hills. Checks from residents who were not present at the meeting as well as those who were, will be most welcome. Mr. Gilbert addressed the Womens' Club at the December meeting in a most stirring manner on "American Citizenship."

A field organizer will meet the finance committee of Forest Hills soon and will then plan a United Americans organization for the village here. It is expected that the town will then "go over the top" and prove itself 100 per cent. American as it has in the past patriotic drives.

CHRISTIAN-FOLENSBEE

Miss Lorita Christian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Christian of Bow Street, was married to Mr. Myron James Folensbee, on Mar. 4, 8:45 P. M., in the Church-in-the-Gardens, Dr. Robert J. Kent, for many years pastor here, officiating. Miss Esther Dickie, of Brooklyn, niece of Mrs. George C. LeBlanc, gave an organ recital preceding the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with bridal veil and carried pink roses. She was given away by her father. Miss Phyllis Salmon, the maid of honor, wore pale blue taffeta. The bridesmaids: Miss Marguerite Van Houten, Mrs. J. D. McNutt, and Miss Frankie Johnson, wore gowns of orchid pink taffeta and all maids carried pink roses. Little Miss Corinne Green was the flower girl. The best man was Mr. Robert W. Searle, of New Brunswick, New Jersey, and the ushers were Mr. Franklin O. Church, Mr. A. Willard Voorhees, and Mr. Dean C. Jenkins.

THE GARDENS PLAYERS

With a purpose of seeing how "the other fellow" works, thirty-six members of The Gardens Players made a pilgrimage to MacDougal Street in Greenwich Village to see the Provincetown Players. Dinner at "Cristine's" was also an objective.

WAR ON MOSQUITOES

Community Council Discusses Plans with Mrs. Elizabeth H. Wright as Principal Speaker.

In speaking on the subject of mosquitoes before the Community Council at the Church-in-the Gardens, on the evening of Feb. 20, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Wright, recently returned from Bermuda, where she was engaged in exterminating mosquitoes, said: "There are 500 varieties of mosquitoes in the United States and among those we have 5 or 6 varieties here. One square foot of stagnant water can breed 5000 mosquitoes. They can be exterminated by (1), oiling, (2) ditching and (3) filling. Many kinds of people must be dealt with when we try to exterminate this pest—those who think they know it all; the skeptical, who think nothing can be done; the joker; the timid, who want nothing said about it; and then the broad minded folks who do things."

She laid down some rules to prevent the breeding of mosquitoes. "Mosquitoes breed only in water. Hence:

Do not have any barrel, can or receptacle, which can hold water, uncovered. See that the gutters are kept clean and run freely. Mosquitoes breed here. Put oil at foot of leader, water may remain at foot of stones. A great many mosquitoes breed in a handful of water. Holes in trees or stumps should be filled with sand or dirt or cement. Allow nothing to hold water unless water is changed every 5 days. This applies to vases, watering cans, etc."

S. W. Eckman, chairman of the anti-mosquito committee here since its organization, five years ago, told of the anti-mosquito war which began five years ago. In June 1916 Myron J. Folsenbee became the inspector for the Forest Hills. A city appropriation of $150,000 was secured to drain the salt marshes of Flushing and Jamaica Bays. During the war it was impossible to push the work because only young boys could be secured for it. "We need $1000 to employ a competent inspector this summer," said Mr. Eckman, "and when we do our part other communities will follow." Dr. J. A. Corseaden spoke of the medical side of the question and he also said there would be comfort and an economic value in exterminating the mosquito.

Mrs. George A. Douglass reported for the committee on public schools. Miss Beatrice Fox, community secretary, reported on the meetings of the City Parliament of Community Councils. Miss Fox and A. Alfred Renshaw are delegates from Forest Hills to the City Parliaments.

The members of the governing and advisory boards and chairmen of the standing committees of the Council met at the home of the president, George Smart, on the evening of Mar. 3. The personnel of the committees was completed and the various interests of the community were discussed. Plans were made for a most interesting meeting of the Council on Mar. 19, at the Church-in-the-Gardens, when the subject "Playground and Recreation" will be considered from the standpoint of people of all ages. Speakers will be announced later.

NEWS OF THE SCHOOLS

Mothers' Club

"Our School Situation" will be the subject of discussion at the next meeting of the Mothers' Club to be held at public school 3 on Monday afternoon, Mar. 15, at three o'clock. Fathers as well as all mothers and teachers are urged to be present and to come prepared to express themselves on this most vital question in the life of the town.

What is the best thing to do and how shall it be done to secure the best possible accommodations for the public school children? The Mothers' Club has been cooperating with the committee of the Community Council on this important work. Members of the Club are requested to attend this meeting and hear what has been accomplished.

Name for the Public School

Wanted—a name for public school 3! Edgar D. Shimer, district superintendent of the public schools for districts 45 and 46, has written to the principal of the local schools, Mrs. H. C. Hoppe, asking her to suggest a name for the new building on the north side. She sends the question to the BULLETIN and the BULLETIN passes it on to all the readers. What shall the name of the new school be? Send suggestions to the BULLETIN office.

Party for Mrs. Hoppe

The teachers of public schools 3 and 101 gave a tea party for Mrs. H. C. Hoppe on Thursday afternoon, February 26, at the home of Miss Beatrice St. Leger Wilson. A silver cake dish was presented to Mrs. Hoppe, a recent bride, with the best of wishes of the teachers for her future happiness.

NEWS FROM THE PLAYLEADER

The boys and girls of Forest Hills are planning a "real circus," which will take place Mar. 13, at 3 P. M. at the Seminole Avenue Club House. When this circus comes to town be sure that the tigers and lions do not get you! A tight rope walker comes from Australia, a clown from the South Pole and many other interesting features. Purchase your ticket and come.

Trip to the Museum

After the morning swimming class on Saturday Feb. 28 the visitors, with the class members, journeyed to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and spent the afternoon learning how the Egyptians lived long, long ago. The afternoon was too short; so another trip is planned.

Swimming! Well—you should see little Katherine Lewerth swimming like a fish and Lydia Flint is as much at home in water as on land; as for Jean Easton, the dead man's float is her specialty. Join the class, girls!

Girl Scouts

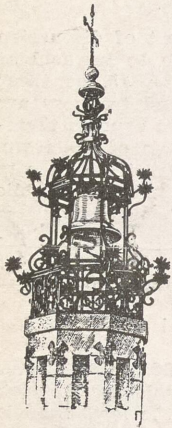

Helen Fay, has completed the first tenderfoot test which has been given in the troop and she is well on her way toward being a second class scout. Miss Fox hopes to publish the complete list of tenderfoot scouts in the next BULLETIN. Wait for it!

Mrs. E. H. Mays, of Slocum Crescent, has cordially invited the Girl Scouts to her home on Friday, Mar. 12, to listen to her stories of the children of Japan. What a treat is in store for the scouts. Let all the scouts show their appreciation by being there at 5 P. M. sharp.

Organization for Young Women

Cards have been sent out to about forty young women in Forest Hills calling a meeting at the Sales office on the Greenway for Monday evening, Mar. 8. It is called for the purpose of seeing if some form of charity work for our near neighboring towns could not be accomplished here in Forest Hills. It is also hoped that some social interest will develop from this gathering. If you have not received a card but would be interested in meeting with them, please come Mar. 8 at 8 P. M.

THE CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

Dr. Cope's sermon last Sunday on "Spiritual Values in a World of Things," or "Invisible Realities in an Age of Tools," was of an exceptionally high order. Although Dr. Cope is a specialist on Religious Education, he merely referred to the subject in the application of his sermon. Many of those present are anxious to hear him again, and the pulpit supply committee has already engaged him for April 11. It is hoped that the large committee on new pastor will not be delegated to a "sermon tasting expedition" on that date, as was the case last Sunday.

Tomorrow at 11 o'clock Rev. Albert Sheppard, pastor of the Church of Forest Hills, will occupy the pulpit. We appreciate this opportunity to welcome our new neighbor and to introduce him to our people.

The committee on new pastor is hoping soon to make a recommendation to the congregation.

The study group on Christian Americanization continues to grow in numbers and in interest, and suggestions are already being offered to continue the study group idea after this particular course is completed.

THE INN

The Black and White Dance in celebration of Washington's birthday was a very interesting affair, and most artistic, with the decoration and costumes carrying out the scheme of the dance. A great variety of costumes predominated, with Mr. O. C. Harn and Miss Smith of the Gardens winning the prizes for the most attractive costumes in black and white, while Mrs. J. J. Root, Jr. received honorable mention as an attractive Balloon Girl.

A great many ladies of the Inn have been entertaining guests at Tea in the Sun Parlor since the severe weather has prevented many trips to town, among the larger of the parties being that of Mrs. Fred Thornley and also Mrs. W. H. Bawmes on Tuesday last. Mrs. Walter Schmidt also entertained several ladies at bridge and tea a few days ago.

Mrs. William J. Bevens, of Andover, Mass., is visiting her sister, Miss Adele Shaw, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Jones, of Milwaukee, Wis., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watrous over the week end.

Miss Eleanor O. Brownell, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., visited her mother, Mrs. S. Brownell, for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson have returned to make their home at the Inn, having spent the winter in New York.

Mrs. W. Worthington, and little Miss Jane, have given up their house in the Gardens and are spending several weeks at the Inn before leaving for the summer months.

Miss Katherine Beeson, of Hamilton, Ohio, was the guest of Miss Sally Pierce over the week end, enjoying the Washington's birthday festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Root, Jr., Dr. Robert Mortimer Jones, and Mr. Henry Etsch of New York were also among the holiday's guests.

APRON AND CANDY SALE

The Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens is Raising Funds for the Proposed Community House—Regular Meeting on March 12.

On March 17, in the attractive Sun parlor of the Inn, the ways and means committee of the Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens, will have a sale of aprons and candy. The aprons will be all kinds, big and little, useful and ornamental. The candy will be the usual box candy of the highest grade, sold at a most reasonable price—and also there will be twelve kinds of home-made candy, made by one of the Guild members, who is famous for her candy making. This sale will begin at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon and will last as long as aprons and candy last, which will probably be only a few hours. Mrs. Benj. A. Rolfe is in charge of this sale, which insures its success, and the proceeds will go to the fund for the new Community House.

On April 11, there will be an evening of song, in the Church-in-the-Gardens, under the same auspices and for the same purpose as the apron sale. Miss Winifred Marshall, who sings songs of different periods and of different nationalities in costumes, will be the artist. Tickets will be one dollar each. Refreshments will be served for fifty cents by the social committee of which Mrs. J. Gorton Marsh is chairman. This will be an evening of delight for the people who attend and the Community House fund will be greatly increased. Save the date!

On March, 12, at 10 A. M. all members of the Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. J. G. Elliott, 29 Winter Street, for an all day sewing preparatory to the apron sale. Every member is expected to do her bit on that day and beside to donate two aprons, Mrs. E. C. Ketcham and Mrs. Henry W. Hillman will assist Mrs. Elliott. The devotional and business meeting will take place at 2 P. M.
