KEEN INTEREST SHOWN

Gardens Corporation Passes Resolution Against Erection of Any More Two-Family Houses.

It was estimated that 400 residents attended the meeting of the Gardens Corporation, held in the Church-in-the-Gardens, on the evening of May 12. Lawrence F. Abbott, president, was in the chair. The treasurer's report, presented by George B. Hanavan, is printed below. John M. McMillin urged all property owners to sign the agreement to pay 4 mills per foot for maintenance. After Mr. McMillin's plea, 21 signed the agreement and with the number already signed, the 4-mill clause becomes effective. Dr. William A. Hume reported for the up-keep committee and told of the expense of tree pruning, grass cutting and street repairing. Walter D. Teague said that the architectural committee, since Jan. 1, had passed on 30 houses, 36 garages and 4 alterations in the Gardens and 31 houses in the Vanderveer tract.

After explaining that the powers of the Russell Sage Foundation and the Sage Foundation Homes Co. had been vested in the Gardens Corporation and stating that the corporation is trying to keep up the Sage standards, President Abbott told that the directors are unwilling to approve any more two-family houses. Louis D. Speir, representing Judge John R. Davies, George B. Hanavan, Judge George H. Boyce and himself, as the legal committee, expressed the opinion that the corporation has a legal right to withhold approval of two-family houses. D. E. McAvoy, who wishes to build 43 convertible houses on Union Turnpike, said that he wanted the good will of the residents and that convertible houses are not necessarily permanently two-family houses.

The following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved that the members of the Gardens Corporation endorse the general policy of the Board of Directors not to approve the erection of two-family houses, and specifically endorse the action of the board in withholding approval of plans submitted for 43 houses of this character on Union Turnpike.

REPORT OF TREASURER, GARDENS CORPORATION

Jan. 1, 1924 to May 12, 1924

RECEIPTS

| | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------|
| Maintenance | $7,921 |
| Membership dues | 6,379 |
| Use of addressograph | 12 |
| Permits for street openings | 3,114 |
| Architectural fees: | |
| Gardens | 1,715 |
| Vanderveer | 1,500 |
| | $20,641 |
| Balance from 1923 | 559 |
| Total Receipts | $21,200 |

DISBURSEMENTS

| | |
|---|---------------|
| Maintenance and expenses | $5,804 |
| Return on street openings, one-half fee | 1,557 |
| Architectural supervision: | |
| Gardens | 1,715 |
| Vanderveer | 1,200 |
| Total Disbursements | 10,276 |
| Balance on hand | $10,924 |

The outstanding feature of this report is that the total collected so far this year for maintenance tax and membership dues is only $14,300. From the total amount collected from these two items for the year 1923, $17,656, it is apparent that there is still outstanding for maintenance and dues $3,356, and there is still the most expensive part of the year, with the grass cutting, street paving, shrub and tree trimming, to be paid for. Second statements are being mailed to those who have not yet paid and it is urged that these payments come in as promptly as possible for the sake of the summer work.

FOREST HILLS ASSOCIATION BUSY

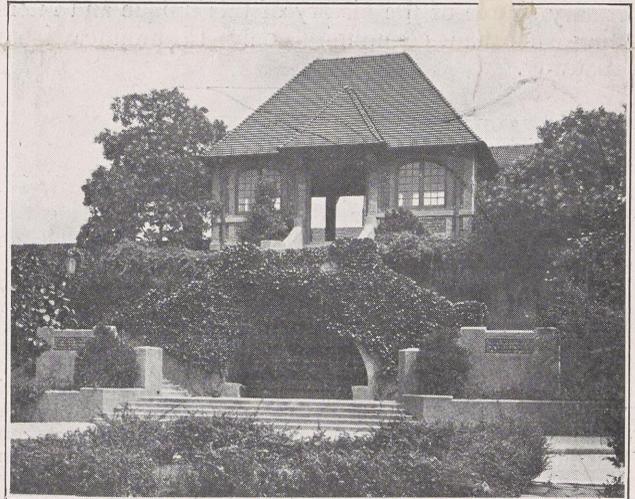

Members Urged to Use Clubhouse—Civic Committee Active—Will Celebrate July 4.

P. D. Wright, chairman of the house committee of the Forest Hills Association, extends a cordial invitation to all members of the association to use the Seminole Avenue Clubhouse. Members may give parties at the Clubhouse without paying any fee; non-members are required to pay $10 for such a privilege. The various parties which have been given in the Clubhouse this winter have proven that it is much easier to entertain there than in one's own home.

Mr. Wright, the Rev. Mr. Sheppard and William C. Mayer are members of the civic committee. Due to the efforts of the civic committee last year, when Mr. Mayer was chairman, most of the streets of the Cord Meyer side were taken over by the city. Some of these streets are now being repaired by the city and there is promise of greater progress. The committee is also working to create public sentiment in favor of the proper installation of sewers for surface drainage. Several other improvements are under consideration.

The executive committee meets in the Clubhouse on the second Monday evening of each month and an invitation is extended to any member of the association or any property owner to attend these meetings.

The association will soon plan for July 4 celebration and is ready to accept contributions for a fund for that celebration. James W. Manson, Euclid Street, has offered to give $50 for such a fund.

FAIR A DECIDED SUCCESS

The fair, which was conducted by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church, in the Masonic Temple on May 9, was a decided success in spite of the very inclement weather of the day. The gratifying sum of $1,480 was cleared. Mrs. S. E. Canaday, president of the Auxiliary, and Mrs. Alick Weir, former president, in whose administration the fair was planned, are very grateful to all who assisted in any way to make the undertaking such a great success. Mrs. Val Hattemer, in charge of refreshments, served a delicious supper to a large number.

ARE YOU ON THE LIST?

THE BULLETIN is published by the companies whose names appear at the head of this column. It is the desire of the officers of these companies and of the editor that every family living in the Cord Meyer Development, and in all sections of Forest Hills Gardens receive the paper by mail on the day of publication. To this end the mailing list is constantly revised by the editor and is checked regularly by the executive secretary of the Gardens Corporation and the officers of the Cord Meyer Development Co. Also the Forest Hills Post Office is encouraged to see that the copies of the paper are delivered promptly. Even so, every once in a while we hear of some member of the community whose family does not receive the paper. If you know of any such, please write to the editor, giving name and address.

The editor endeavors to print the news of the village in a concise form and to write such editorials as may be helpful in the community life. This has been the purpose since 1915 when the paper was started. The indexed bound volumes of the BULLETIN furnish the primary source of the history of this unique and interesting suburban community, only 15 minutes from Broadway.

SUMMER DATES OF PUBLICATION

The BULLETIN will be published on June 14, July 12, August 9 and September 13—once a month during the summer. After that it will appear fortnightly, as during the last nine years.

Mr. Martin built the house now occupied by Nathan S. Jonas and family, and after living there for many years the Martins moved into one of the Greenway Terraces houses. Mr. and Mrs. Martin both took a keen interest in all community affairs as long as they lived here. In 1913 Mrs. Martin organized the Women's Club of Forest Hills.

GARDENS PLAYERS WIN $100

In the Little Theatre Tournament, which was conducted at the Belasco Theatre in the week of May 5, the Gardens Players group was awarded $100 as one of the three best groups of the 17 which were in the competition. The three best played Saturday afternoon and evening, as did also the one receiving honorable mention. The group from Dallas, Texas, received the Belasco cup as the best company competing in the tournament. Beside the Dallas Players and the Gardens Players, the Alliance Players of Jersey City received $100. In presenting the cup for David Belasco, Walter Hartwig, the general manager of the tournament, expressed appreciation of the friendly rivalry existing among the competitors. He also thanked the Belasco Theatre staff for unstinted helpfulness. In accepting the cup, the director of the Dallas Players said that the audience had won for them the cup by appreciation and attention.

"Crabbed Youth and Age" by Lennox Robinson, put on by the Gardens Players, brought prolonged and deserved applause. Agnes Kiendl, as the attractive widow, outshining her daughters, Catherine Jones, Elsa Youngs and Geraldine Claypole, was the star of the performance. Melville Greig, Ordway Tead and Edward H. Moir, each acted convincingly the part of the young man who should have been courting one of the daughters, but who preferred to dance and talk with mother. Altogether the Gardens Players contributed clever, humorous and finished acting.
