TWO COMMUNITY COUNCILS

Committee Recommends a Separation—New Arrangement Effective Jan. 1

Travel Talks on the National Parks, Mexico and Denmark, Given by Local People Lately Returned Home

When Edward H. Mays, chairman of the nominating committee of the Community Council, reported at the meeting held on Friday evening, Oct. 21, in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens, he said that the committee composed of Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, Charles J. Grant and himself, had an unusual report to make. Mrs. Wilson had been ill and so was not present at the committee meeting, but by special invitation, Thomas B. Paton and George Smart were present. Mr. Mays reporting for the committee, said that while the Council does conduct a forum, still, its primary function is to attend to the civic business of the town. "The two sides of the town are in fact two communities and it is difficult for the Council, under the present form to function. The committee recommends that two Community Councils be formed, with some committees in common to both. There is absolutely no ill feeling on either side and this recommendation is made to increase the efficiency of the local civic work," said Mr. Mays. The committee will continue to function and to work out the details before Jan. 1.

S. W. Eckman reported for the committee on mosquito extermination. He told of the splendid work accomplished by Edward Durand, the inspector, during the last summer. Since the last letter sent out by the committee, 89 people have responded with $600—thus paying off the deficit of last summer's work and leaving a balance of $300 for next summer. To finance next summer's program a sum of $700 more is needed. Everyone is urged to forward a check to M. J. Folensbee, 55 Bow Street, who is the treasurer.

Dr. Riley, General Secretary of the Bureau of Charities of Brooklyn, spoke to the Council on the anti-tuberculosis campaign, when money will be raised by the sale of Christmas seals. He told of the work of the Anti-Tuberculosis League in furnishing milk to weak children in the public schools, in providing a summer camp for children at Bear Mountain and a sanatorium at Medford, on Long Island. He encouraged the sale of Christmas seals in Forest Hills.

Louis D. Speir told of a most interesting trip last summer to Zion Park in Utah and the Grand Canyon of Arizona. There are 19 national parks in the country, covering 10,850 square miles, and Mr. and Mrs. Speir found Zion Park one of rare natural beauty and of great charm.

Dr. F. R. Getz spoke on Yellowstone Park, covering the geysers, the flora and fauna, with carefully selected details.

J. Gorton Marsh, who makes extended business trips to Mexico, spoke on that country, with the humor that is characteristic of him.

Niels F. Holch gave a most enlightening discourse on Denmark, making frequent use of the book by Frederic C. Howe, called "Denmark, an Experiment in Cooperation."

At the next meeting of the Community Council, the annual reports of the officers and chairmen of committees will be heard.

RIDERS, ATTENTION!

The members of the Riding Club and their friends will have a "Paper Chase" on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 30, assembling at Forest Hills Inn. The "Hares" will start at two o'clock and the "Hounds" promptly at two thirty. The chase will be confined entirely to Forest Park and the party will return to the Inn for tea. The chase will take about two hours time. All riders are invited to join the party.

LOUIS P. MCGAHIE,
Secretary.

"WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?"

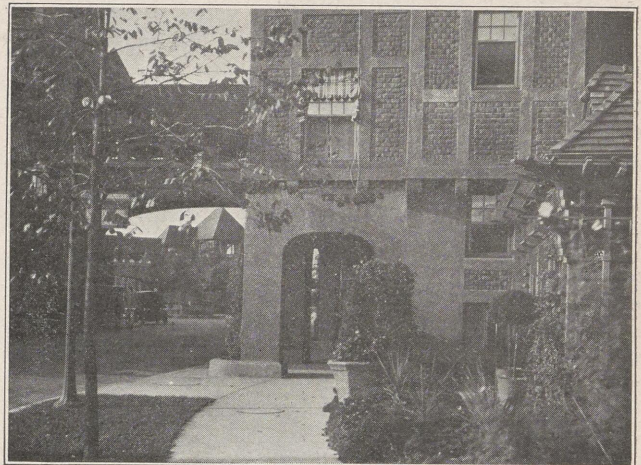

W. P. Beazell Will be the Speaker at Women's Club Meeting—Current Readings Chapter Active.

At the meeting of the Women's Club to be held on Monday afternoon, Nov. 7, William Preston Beazell, assistant managing editor of the New York World, will speak on the subject, "What Are You Going to do About It?" Mrs. R. Edson Doolittle, president of the Long Island Council of Women's Clubs will bring greetings from the other clubs. The singer will be Donald Fiser, baritone, with Grover Tilden Davis at the piano.

The current readings chapter will meet on Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, Nov. 9, at the home of Mrs. James Rea, 75 Ascan Avenue. Mrs. John A. McFarlan will review the book, "Seed of the Sun," by Irwin.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT

Whenever the Garden Players give a party "a good time is had by all." The Hallowe'en party and dance, which the Players are giving in the Masonic Temple this evening should prove no exception to the rule. Costume is to be formal, or worse, cider, doughnuts and all the other fixings will be plentiful and some interesting Hallowe'en program has been arranged. The admission price is only $1.00, including refreshments, which seems reasonable enough.

Walk Down the Green, Under the Arch, Enter Station Square, on Election Night.

ELECTION RETURNS

On election night it will not be necessary for the people of the Gardens to go into the city in order to get the returns. Louis P. McGahie has arranged with the Western Union Telegraph Company to have the returns sent to Forest Hills Inn. In the Station Square the news will be displayed on a screen and there will also be motion pictures to entertain the young and those not so young. The whole town will be in the Square that night, the weather man permitting, and it will be fun to mingle with one's neighbors as the reports of the news of the day are flashed on the screen. No need of going to the city with its crowds, inconveniences and noise; just plan to meet your neighbors in the town Square on election night.

DANCING LESSONS

Eleanor S. Ranlett will open her classes in dancing for girls and boys, at the Inn, on Nov. 5, 2 P. M.

SINCERITY

“TO please your best self is the only way of being sincere . . . You wish to learn what is sincerity? Look into yourself, for what lies deepest within you . . . Give up asking any but yourself for the whereabouts of truth.

“For Americans the war, nationally speaking, will have been but a bracing of the muscles and nerves, a clearing of the skin and eyes. Such a mental and moral condition will promote in them a deeper philosophy and a more resolute facing of truth . . . Americans will find themselves suddenly grown up. Not till a man is grown up does he see and feel things deeply enough to venture into the dark well of sincerity.

“America is an eager nation. She has always been in a hurry. If I had to point out the capital defect in the attractive temperament of the American people, I should say it was a passion for short cuts . . . That enchanting work of art “Tom Sawyer” and “Huckleberry Finn” is an exception. What a reproduction of atmosphere and life; what scent of the river, and old time country life it gives off! How the author must have been soaked in it to have produced those books! . . . America has a tremendous atmosphere of her own, a wonderful life, a wonderful country, but so far she has been skating over its surface. The time will come when she will strike down, think less in terms of material success and machine-made perfections . . . Sincerity, and unswerving fidelity to self, alone, will bring the dignity worthy of a great and free people!”

This beautiful and amplified definition of sincerity is taken from the Englishman, John Galsworthy.

Living in a garden spot of a village, at this time of year when the town is radiant with autumnal beauty, it ought to be easier for our people to live a sincere life than if we were in crowded and less lovely surroundings. This village will become truly great, only as we residents live the sincere life, with unswerving devotion to our best selves and with the prompt performance of our duty towards our fellowmen, near and far.

THE OPEN SHOP

The Men's Club will hold a most interesting meeting on Friday evening, Nov. 4, at 8:15 o'clock, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Galloway, 250 Greenway South, when Noel Sargent will be the speaker, on the subject, “The Open Shop and Unemployment.” Mr. Sargent is the director of the open shop department of the National Association of Manufacturers. This is a vital subject and one that is uppermost in the minds of people at this time, and Mr. Sargent is unusually well qualified to speak upon it. The meeting at the Galloway home will be largely attended.

WELCOME TO MR. PEARSON

The Audubon Society is proud of the lecturers it has presented to Gardens audiences. They have all been men of prominence in conservation work, executives, writers, artists. To this group has been largely due the steadily growing interest in the cause of conservation which has become a living issue to our people, because on it hangs the maintenance of the resources of our country. The conservation of wild life is the background of the effort being made by the Gardens Audubon Society to protect and increase the number of birds in the Gardens.

Among the men most active in the national work is T. Gilbert Pearson, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies. He was in Forest Hills last year and made a happy impression. Not only was he an interesting speaker but he had a humorous touch that was appealing. Both grown-ups and children liked him. On Nov. 5 he is coming again to the Church-in-the-Gardens to show more of his wonderful moving pictures of bird life and to tell of the protective work done in the great Gulf reservations. Every one in Forest Hills is cordially invited to come. The lecture will begin at 8 p. m. and will be given in the social room. It is hoped that every member and friend of the society will be on hand to look, listen and learn.

Secretary, Forest Hills Gardens Audubon Society

DELICATESSEN STORE HONORED

Trophy Again Awarded to the Best Kept Store—More News About Ash Collection.

The food store division of the civic committee, of the Women's Club, met on Oct. 20 to report on the inspection of the food stores of Forest Hills and to re-award the trophy to the best kept store. The trophy was again awarded to the Delicatessen Store, which fully deserves this honor. The store is well kept, the kitchen and ice boxes are spotless and all food is protected according to the rules of the New York City Health Department.

The second award, which is a certificate of “Honorable Mention,” goes to the Forest Hills Market on Austin Street. On their trips of inspection, the members of the committee found that this meat store is in good order. The place is neat, the ice boxes clean and free from odor, the meat and fish carefully handled and protected and the refuse disposed of according to law.

The leader of the food store division is Mrs. Virgil Miller, of Colonial Avenue. She and her assistants are working hard for the protection of the food supplies of the town.

Ash Removal

John Farrel, of 98 Queens Boulevard, Elmhurst, is gaining customers throughout Forest Hills, but he has not yet obtained enough to make his business pay. He should have 135 customers by Nov. 1, and it is hoped that by Jan. 1 he shall have 150. A larger number of customers guarantees more efficient service.

For 50 cents a week he and his men will remove the ashes, garbage and bundles of papers daily. They will take the cans out of the cellars and after the cans are empty they will put the cans back in the cellars. Those who wish to be sure to secure the services of John Farrell may do so by communicating with him at the above address, or by sending word to Mrs. Louis D. Speir, 64 Shorthill Road.

CANDY AND CAKE SALE

The Women's Guild of the Church-in-the-Gardens will hold a candy and cake sale on the afternoon and evening of Nov. 19. The place will be announced later. The sale will be managed by the ways and means committee, of which Mrs. Charles H. Scammell is chairman.

It has been decided to postpone the big Community House Fair on account of the business depression and to hold the fair at the usual time next fall beginning on election day.

Found—Fur neck piece. Telephone Boulevard 6571.

Lost—Flat beaver neck piece—Return to 338 Burns Street, Boulevard 6382 R. Reward.

CELEBRATIONS ASSOCIATION

Important Annual Meeting Held—Reports Given—Members of Executive Board Chosen

The annual meeting of the Celebrations Association of Forest Hills Gardens was held in the social room of the Church-in-the-Gardens on Tuesday evening, Oct 18, at 8:30.

President Horace McRobert, Jr., briefly reviewed the work accomplished during the first year of the association, which was organized in its present form Sept. 13, 1920. He singled out for especial praise several members of the various committees in charge of the arrangements for the last Fourth of July celebration, among them, Dr. W. F. Saybolt for the particularly fine way in which he organized and superintended the children's games; Mrs. George Smart for her difficult work in connection with the Olivia Park performance; Mrs. Charles H. Scammell for her handling of the choral features of the day; Louis P. McGahie for his excellent arrangements for streets and police; Walter Teague for the artistic printed matter designed by him and produced under his supervision, and also for his scenic arrangements at Olivia Park; Harvey Warren for his direction of the always popular Town Criers, and for his direction of the play in Olivia Park; Mr. Mitchell for the efficient way in which he provided for seating accommodations in the Square and for handling the audience at Olivia Park; and F. CHURCH-IN-THE-GARDENS

It is very gratifying to note the splendid attendance at the Sunday morning services. Each Sunday we see among the congregation a number of visitors. New residents and visitors in the community are always welcome.

The most important feature that is now being developed is the first "Father and Son" banquet that is to be held in the social room of the church on Friday evening, Nov. 11. The attendance on this occasion is not limited to members of the Church-in-the-Gardens, but is open to all fathers and sons in the community. The space, of course, limits the attendance to about 125. Therefore every father who wishes to entertain his son at such an occasion should make reservation early. The price for the dinner will be $1.00 per cover, but it will be necessary for every father to be accompanied by a boy, and every boy to be accompanied by his own father or a foster father. Reservations may be made with either Dr. S. Ellsworth Davenport, Jr., W. P. McCulloch or J. F. McTyier.

At the annual meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society the following new officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Montague, president; Allen Smart, first vice-president; Miss Dorothy Flint, second vice-president; Miss Dorothy Smith, secretary, and David Millar, treasurer. Mr. McTyier will continue his relationship as superintendent of the young people's work, and wishes to advise that the society is open to all young people in the community.

Dr. Latshaw takes great pleasure in announcing that he has been able to secure two speakers to address the fathers and mothers of the members of the Sunday School and others interested in religious education, on the following evenings: for Wednesday, Nov. 2, Eugene Camp, the President of Applied Christianity, Inc., on "Some New Lines in Religious Education," and on Wednesday evening, Nov. 9, Dr. W. C. Laufer will address the meeting.

The Women's Guild

The Women's Guild will meet Friday, Nov. 11, 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. I. K. Ward, 21 Borage Place. Mrs. W. C. Longcope will assist Mrs. Ward. Members will bring the annual donations for the New York Congregational Home for the Aged.

BOY SCOUTS

At a special meeting of the troop last night, which was attended by members of the local scout committee, Irving Hare's resignation as scoutmaster was regretfully accepted and the responsibilities of the office formally turned over to F. L. Fear, director of athletics at the Kew-Forest School. Mr. Fear's work with boys and his personal experience as a scout equip him well for the duties of scoutmaster. The troop is also fortunate in the appointment of John Montague, of Euclid Avenue, as assistant scoutmaster. Members of the troop will take part in the "Father and Son" celebration during the week of Nov. 6.
