No. 2

An Advertisement by George Washington

"IN THIS state of absolute freedom and perfect security, where is the man to be found who wishes to remain indebted for the defense of his own person and property to the exertions, the bravery and the blood of others, without making one generous effort to repay the debt of honor and gratitude?"
"GEORGE WASHINGTON"

From a circular letter addressed to the governors of all the states on the disbanding of the Continental Army, June 8, 1783.

"Rainbow" Bugler Killed.

John Turner, of the 166th Ohio Regiment, in the Rainbow Division, the Bugler, only twenty years old, who on "Rainbow Night" blew taps in Forest Hills, was killed on August 2nd at Chateau Thierry. He had already won the decoration of the French Government for bravery in action. He died in the hospital the day after receiving a wound in action which, in the absence of medical aid in the midst of desperate fighting, he had dressed for himself.

Ninth Coast Artillery.

Colonel Delafield has left the command to go into Federal Service and Governor Whitman has appointed Lieut.-Colonel Burleigh as Colonel in his stead.

Last Thursday night at the Armory in Fourteenth Street the inspection and muster roll of the Second Battalion was held. Artillery drill is held every Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock.

Several local men have recently joined the Forest Hills Company, but, as the new draft is already taking quite a few, the officers and men hope that the vacancies will be further filled from the ranks of their friends here.

Fourth Liberty Loan.

A mass meeting will be held in the Church of Forest Hills, Seminole Avenue and Gown Street, tomorrow (Sunday), October 6th, at 8 P. M.

The Central Committee of the Liberty Loan Campaign will send one of their best speakers, who has returned from the front and will give specific facts from his own observation as reasons why we should support the Loan. Music will be rendered by the church organist and quartette.

Members of the local Loan Committee are making encouraging returns. They are operating along the same lines as on previous campaigns with greater speed, born of experience. Officers of the organization are:

Alexander Cameron, Chairman; V. W. Miller, Vice-Chairman; David Millar, Vice-Chairman; S. H. Pierce, Secretary; Robert E. Marsh, Assistant Secretary; John Curtiss, Publicity Manager.

Under this Committee and co-operating with it is the Women's Committee, with Mrs. H. P. Daniels, Chairman; Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Walker as sectional leaders, and the wives of committeemen serving to complete it. A Girl Scout division is headed by Mrs. Mueller and Mrs. Shaw.

The Boy Scouts will again serve as "Gleaners after the Reapers." Scouts must not solicit subscriptions, or secure promises, before October 12th.

A meeting of the Liberty Loan Committee will be held in the Sales Office on Monday, October 7th, at 8:15 P. M.

Italian Children's Christmas.

Tonight at the Inn a diversion during the dancing will be a brief concert given to provide means for sending dolls to Italian children. Mrs. Springer, of Ascan Avenue, now in Italy, has written that they haven't any.

New Play Leader.

We are glad to welcome Miss Beatrice Fox of New Britain, Conn., as the new Community Secretary and Playleader of Forest Hills. Miss Fox is a graduate of New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics and comes to us experienced in practical work as well as trained theoretically.

Miss Fox comes as the successor to Miss Anne Smith, who leaves in a short time to go abroad with Social Service Work in Italy under the auspices of the American Red Cross.

Miss Brewer to Go Abroad.

Miss Mabel Brewer, of Greenway South, has gone to Washington, D. C., to attend Miss George's Montessori School there preparatory to work abroad with the American Friends' Relief under the auspices of the Civilian Relief of the Red Cross.

Co-Operative Buying.

Winter-keeping apples may be ordered now at a low rate by the barrel if sufficient orders are received. Individual delivery will be made. Now is the least expensive time to buy. Orders may be placed through Mrs. R. E. Renaud, of Burns Street. About November 1st it will be possible to get potatoes on this co-operative buying plan.

Two Letters From Jack Ortgies.

In a New England Division in France, Jack Ortgies of Continental Avenue, has been in some of the most desperate fighting of the war. The following letters are restrained by censorship but give an idea to one reading between the lines what it is like.

August 21, 1918.

Our last trip to the front was the most exciting we have had yet. We left one section of the line in our cars and travelled quite a bit over one hundred miles to a place four miles back of the lines. There we were on the alert at all times in case the Boche continued their drive; but they didn't. They were stopped by the marines and French and were driven back some distance out of an important woods; then our division relieved the marines and kept the Boche on the run for quite awhile. One night while we were back in the alert position, living in our pup tents in a woods we were awakened sometime after midnight and told to roll our pack and get into our cars. Well, it was just like being blindfolded—it was so dark and to make matters worse it had rained in the early evening, consequently our shelter-halves were all wet. So we had some job getting all our things rolled and finding our way out of the woods. It proved to be an attack in another part of the line, so we went back and slept. A couple of nights later we packed and went up to the line and were going to throw over a barrage to help capture a town, but we couldn't get to our positions in time so did not fire but there sure was some firing from our artillery.

I guess I have told you before that I am a runner and was sent with a message early the next morning to headquarters—I had to cross an open field and up another hill and from there I could watch the shells breaking in the valley. It surely was some sight. From this place we went back to our old place in the woods and stayed for a couple of days and then went back again. This time we went as near the line in our Fords as we could, then got out and walked for quite a distance; it sure was hot, too, and (July 20) it was on my birthday so you see what a time I had. We slept in the woods that night, that is we tried to sleep. The next morning, I saw the infantry go over the top and it was some sight too. They went over in waves. Later in the day we went over in one wave with some infantry flopping down on our bellies about every twenty feet to let some schrapnel past. Dodging bullets is no fun, believe me. After that day was over, I felt as if I had spent a whole year of my life in that one day. I could tell a lot more about this trip but it would not be permitted by the censor. At present we are back of the lines quite a distance going through a stiff course of training. We are located in a small town so there is nothing to do but work. One good feature of it is we can go in swimming in one of France's most noted rivers.

September 8, 1918.

We are back in reserve again, so you see we didn't get our leave as was expected. Everybody was disappointed of course after waiting so long. We are living in some forest about forty miles from nowhere, so you see there isn't much to talk about except the weather and it doesn't look very promising, so that is another pleasant thing we have to look forward to. We have been traveling in large three-ton English trucks for the last month or so because our Fords had to be turned over to some other division. They are not as convenient nor as comfortable as the Fords, but it is much better than walking.

LOST: The little school girl who lost the belt of her new Heath Sweater on Tuesday afternoon will be happy again if finder will telephone 6392-J.

The Inn.

Miss Adele M. Shaw has returned from a delightful vacation spent in the mountains in New Hampshire.

Mr and Mrs. Harry R. Cleland and their baby daughter, who have a home in Groton Street, are spending the winter at the Inn.

Mrs. Lee McMillan, of New Orleans, has returned to the Inn after a summer spent at Magnolia, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Doane and Miss Sarah Doane, of Philadelphia, spent a few days at the Inn last week.

W. J. Stout has returned from several weeks stay at Wakefield, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coombs, of Wakefield, R. I., spent several days at the Inn, enroute to Washington.

Mrs. James Wilding and baby have arrived from San Francisco, and will spend the month of October at the Inn with Mr. Wilding.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are Dr. E. E. Butterfield, of Forest Hills; Mr. Ralph Spooner and Mrs. Walter Spooner, of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Michie and son, Mr. G. A. Veck, of New York City; Mr. A. L. Reed, of Richmond Hill; Mr. Walter C. Hartwig, of Forest Hills.

Mrs. C. R. Elwood, son and daughter, have arrived from Menominee, Mich., to join Captain Elwood for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Thornley and Miss Doris Thornley, of Washington, intend spending the winter at the Inn.

Misses J. C. and Blanch Moore, former guests of the Inn, have returned for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Godwin, of Virginia, anticipate spending the winter months at the Inn.

Mrs. S. B. Williamson, whose husband and son are at the front, has returned to the Inn with her daughter, Mrs. J. Smith, of Birmingham, Ala.

The ladies of the committee serving refreshments at the Inn on Saturday evenings after the dances, for the benefit of the Red Cross of Forest Hills, have met with great success. Mrs. A. S. Goselin, of the Inn, will be glad to take orders in advance.

Ensign Bassett on Furlough.

Ensign Charles Chester Bassett, Jr., of the U. S. Naval Flying Corps, is spending his furlough with his mother, Mrs. Edward L. Hunt, in Ingram Street. Ensign Bassett, while a sophomore at Harvard, volunteered in the Lafayette Escadrille, before the United States declared war, and has been sixteen months at the front. On his twenty-first birthday he was commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Escadrille. He has flown all makes of land and sea planes and has been cited for distinguished service in scout patrol and bombing work. His motor went dead over the North Sea last February and it is considered one of the war miracles that he was saved from drowning, as he sank twice before he was reached by Ensign Gates, the famous foot-ball player of Yale. In recognition of this service Ensign Bassett has been notified that he is to be commissioned a Junior Lieutenant of the U. S. Naval Flying Corps. He returns to the front in a few days.

Two younger sons of Mrs. Hunt, Rice Bassett, of Princeton, and Ben Bassett, have entered the Navy and are now on Submarine Chasers. They are the grandsons of Benj. F. Rice, U. S. Senator from Arkansas.

Girl Scouts.

At the instigation of the troop captains, Mrs. Frederick Mueller and Mrs. C. A. Shaw, a committee of women interested in further promoting the local organizations of the Girl Scouts met at the home of Mrs. Shaw, 7 Roman Avenue, on September 23rd. The committee consisted of Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Eder, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. Cantrell, Mrs. Small, Mrs. Chalmers and Mrs. Beazell. Mrs. Walker was elected Chairman.

With the co-operation of this committee the Captains are planning for the Scouts a highly interesting year, including a short course in the Morse Telegraph Code, given by Mrs. R. A. Pope, lessons in First Aid by Mrs. Chalmers, signaling by Mrs. Shaw, outdoor and indoor sports, and other activities.

The Captains need two or more active assistants. Young women interested in the work are requested to communicate with Mrs. Mueller, Public School No. 101, or with Mrs. Shaw.

Personal Notes.

A son, Samuel Emerson, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Dowdney, of Burns Street, on Thursday, September 19th.

Lieutenant James Garretson, of Ascan Avenue, after several months of active service, has been chosen for special training in a French Artillery School.

Captain Thomas B. Paton, Jr., of Meteor Street, just returned from active service abroad, has been sent as an instructor to Spartansburg.

Will Rogers, the well-known actor of the "Follies" has taken the Sweeny house for the Winter. Dr. and Mrs. Sweeny are in New York, and the children are in school in Canada.

A recent letter from Emil B. Meyer, formerly with the Architectural Department of the Homes Company, and who went "over seas" with the 77th Division from Camp Upton, announced that he had received his commission as Second Lieutenant. He entered the Officers' Training School while at Camp Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin K. Hanks have rented their house in Slocum Crescent to George A. Douglas for a year. They are in Buffalo, where Mr. Hanks is doing Factory Production work at the Spencer Lens Co. on scientific optical instruments.

Miss Frances Bassett, daughter of Mrs. Edward L. Hunt, left on Sunday last for school, after a delightful vacation in the Gardens.

Edward L. Keyes, 3rd, oldest son of Lieutenant Colonel Edward L. Keyes (for a year past on duty with the A. E. F. in France) of 110 Greenway South, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Infantry a short time ago and ordered to Stevens Technical Institute, Hoboken, as an Instructor. He entered Princeton University in the fall of 1917, trained there, and was sent as one of the twenty to the S. O. T. C. for intensive instruction at Plattsburg. He is not quite nineteen years of age. His great-grandfather was a Major General of the regular army during the early part of the Civil War.

The names of E. C. Ketcham, of Greenway North, Thomas L. Atkinson, of Markwood Road, and William Tooner, of Greenway South, are among the registrants whose numbers were in the first drawing to determine order for call into service.

Mr. and Mrs. Mecabe, of Greenway South, have returned from a ten-day motor tour through the Green and White Mountains.

Probably more than a hundred residents of the Gardens are already in service abroad. It is, therefore, interesting, though not strange, to hear of chance meetings there, as when Lieut. Warren unexpectedly met Lieut.-Col. Keyes in Sheffield, England, recently. Now a letter from Lieut. Wessmann tells of meeting Lieut. Garretson in Paris, and, among the women workers, Miss Jessup, nursing in Florence, writes that she recently spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Springer of Ascan Avenue, who passed through there on her Red Cross mission.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bosworth have rented the home of Mr. Louis Litt at 94 Groton Street, from October 1st to May 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Litt are staying at the Hotel Lucerne, New York City.

The Davenport house, 20 Groton Street, has been leased from October 1st by Mr. Richard Knight. Mr. Knight has recently returned from France after ten months' service there as Advisory Engineer on United States Government construction.

Captain William F. Colton, of Salt Lake City, with his daughter, Mrs. Union Worthington and son, Hood, were recently guests of his son, F. B. Colton, of Burns Street.

Test—Fryer.

Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, U. S. N., and Mrs. Wood announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Edith Livingston Fryer, to Lieutenant Colonel Frederick Coleman Test, U. S. Infantry, General Staff Corps, Washington, D. C.

Red Cross Fair Echoes.

In a little pamphlet circulated as a "Foreword" to stimulate enthusiasm in our recent Fair, there was printed the following:

"The Annals of Forest Hills show marvelous results attained by those who have given their time, brain and support to previous entertainments and National movements, and the American Red Cross, through its Branch at Forest Hills, now calls upon you for help and to work and work for success!"

Success was attained, as the following figures specifically prove:

Total receipts by Committee$12,734.02
Total expenditures by Committee 1,691.31

Net profit of Fair$11,042.71

The details of the above are as follows:

Receipts—Oriental Tea Garden, $626.90; Mystery Table, $63.06; Chances on Buick Auto (net), $3,716.00; Chances on Punch Board, $287.75; Chances on Red Fox Fur, $150.00; Chances on Persian Kitten, $11.00; Chances on French Bull Puppy, $306.80; Chances on Silver Mesh Bag, $63.25; Chances on Knox Hat, $28.50; Silhouette Booth, $41.00; Novelty Booth, $285.63; Auto Accessories Booth, $232.23; Old-Fashioned Booth, $663.27; Doll Booth, $267.14; Ice Cream Booth, $86.95; Fancy Work Booth, $260.58; Candy, Etc., Booth, $719.80; Cakes, Pies and Pastry Booth, $215.66; Lemonade Booth, $147.08; Jellies, Jams and Canned Goods Booth, $296.88; Babies' Wearing Apparel Booth, $365.49; Vegetables, $122.00; Fruit Venders, $14.54; Armenian Booth, $325.64; Theatre, $384.37; Baby Show, $32.95; Admission and Programs, $446.30; Dancing Pavilion (including Arena admission, etc.), $1,279.57; Merry-Go-Round, $60.55; Wheel of Chance (Dolls), $985.08; Punch and Judy, $9.65; Chances on Golf Set, Gun, Pig, Soap, etc., $238.40; total, $12,734.02.

Expenditures—Columbus Awning and Supply Co., tents and decorations, $450.00; Bernard Yoeppel & Co., signs, $118.00; Newtown Register, printing, $174.00; Sostman Mercantile Co., dolls for wheel of chance, $277.20; John Morgan, supplies for lemonade booth, $61.50; Sage Foundation Homes Co., lumber, $50.00; B. J. Thuring, chairs for theatre, $45.00; Hanson's Pharmacy, ice cream and cones, $41.25; Metropolitan Tobacco Co., cigarettes, $80.22; John De Barber, punch boards, $149.70; E. Engelbach, knitting needles and miscellaneous supplies, $47.17; J. M. Saulpaugh, china for Tea Room, $10.16; American Balloon Co., balloons and hats, $19.00; Kwong Yuen & Co., articles for Tea Room, $18.70; A. Langstadter, Inc., stationery and stamps, $12.95; J. Thomas, cups, $10.00; Gardens Auto Service, auto hire, $10.00; Z. & L. Rosenfield, multigraphing, $4.00; Fairchild Son, chairs for Dancing Pavilion, $5.00; H. Hirschberg, wheel of chance expenses, $7.56; total expenditures by Committee, $1,691.31.

This success had its beginning with Mrs. Leon D'Emò, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, who not only first suggested the Fair, but also was a directing genius in its management.

In putting it through, many were the obstacles and difficulties met with and overcome—disappointments were encountered by several of those whose shoulders were strongest at the wheel. A splendid spirit of co-operation, however, pervaded the atmosphere and all pulled in the same direction for success. A goodly portion of the credit must be given to those generous outsiders, professional and otherwise, whose efforts and money were so lavishly expended, but then again had it not been for the energy and ingenuity of those insiders who interested the outsiders, where would we have been? Therefore, it seems to us that each one of us Forest Hillites should pat yourselves on the shoulder and rest content in the very gratifying thought that we were all factors in this, our latest success, and that no matter how heavy was our pleasurable burden or how light our self-assumed pleasing task, we did it, and "over the top" we went to the tune of $11,042.71!

Baby Show at Fair.

An interesting feature of the Red Cross Fair was a Baby Show. Forty children under four years of age dressed in "best bib and tucker" of unique fashion paraded, in groups according to age, before a large audience. First, second and third prize ribbons were awarded to the three winners of each class.

The Judges were as follows: Chairman, Mr. L. M. Burt; Mrs. A. M. Gray, Mrs. Anna Springsteen, Mrs. Harry Spangenburg, Miss Lillian Rice.

The parade was led by Arthur Macdonald in uniform, guarding a first prize winner, little Miss Ethel Wilson, wheeled by Miss Phyliss Umsted.

The prize winners were as follows:

First Class, children up to 1 year, 6 months:

Girls—First prize winner, Ethel Myra Wilson, 144 Puritan Avenue; second prize winner, Helen Hamilton Swan, 19 Greenway Terrace; third prize winner, Doris M. Dede, 6 DeKoven Street.

Boys—First prize winner, Henry Mullen, Jr., 2 Ivy Close; second prize winner, Robert H. Marsh, 23 DeKoven Street.

Dance Pavilion at Fair.

The description of the entertainment provided at the Red Cross Fair is not complete without special mention of the Dance Pavilion conducted under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Kloetzer. This was the only single feature that netted over one thousand dollars, and grateful thanks are due not only to the directors, but also to Mr. Will Rogers, Edward Cantor, the stars from "Yip Yip Yaphank." Benny Leonard and Bill Brennan, Ad Newburger and his juvenile dancers, and to Kondazian and all who participated in his Fashion Show.

Church-in-the-Gardens.

A service of special interest was held in the Church-in-the-Gardens on Thursday night, September 19th, when Mr. Clay E. Palmer was ordained to the Christian ministry. Mr. Palmer is in the army, stationed at Fort Totten, and expects to be appointed chaplain. A council composed of pastors and delegates from a dozen churches met in the afternoon, and after the usual examination voted to join with the Church in the ordination service in the evening. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, pastor of the Clinton Avenue Church, Brooklyn, and until recently chaplain at Fort Hamilton, preached the sermon; Rev. Lewis T. Reed, of the First Church of Flatbush, gave the charge to the young minister; Rev. A. E. Roraback, of the Church of the Evangel, led in the ordaining prayer, and Rev. W. A. Wagner, of the Union Church, Richmond Hill, presided. The members of the Council were entertained at dinner at the homes of some of members of the Church.

The first service of the Church-in-the-Gardens was held in a store in Station Square on the second Sunday in October, 1912. Sunday after next will be observed as anniversary Sunday. All the members of the congregation are urged to be present. The Sunday following will be the anniversary and rally of the Sunday School. An anniversary sociable is being planned for.

House Planning.

Mr. Robert Tappan, of Whitson Street, has just completed an experimental workingman's house at Washington for the United States Housing Corporation, under the direction of its President, Mr. Otto Eidlitz. It is built in accordance with the system of co-ordinated planning and construction devised by Mr. Tappan. He is now in Boston supervising the manufacture of a number of houses based on the use of his designs and patents.
