HOUSE OF DR. J. WARD MACNEAL.

In Rockrose Place, between Greenway North and Greenway South is the interesting home illustrated above. The exterior walls are of hollow tile faced with light colored stucco and the roof is of red tile. The garage in the rear matches the house in construction and design. The plans were drawn by Robert M. Farrington, Architect.

CO-OPERATIVE BUYING.

Orders have been received for one hundred and eighty three baskets of peaches which are to be delivered under the co-operative buying plan early in the coming week. At least, one hundred and sixty baskets are to be delivered as there are eighty baskets to a truck load and deliveries will be made in multiples of eighty. If orders are received at once for enough additional baskets to make a third load, they will all be delivered early next week.

For price and further delivery details, information may be obtained from Mrs. R. E. Renaud of Burns Street. Additional "Butter and Egg Clubs" have been formed in the past week, and she will also explain how such organizations are effected.

NEW TIME TABLE TODAY.

The usual September change of time table on the Long Island Railroad goes into effect today, the changes occurring principally in Sunday trains. The regular Fall schedule change will be made in October.

RED CROSS FAIR.

At high noon on Thursday, September 12th, the Forest Hills Red Cross Fair will open its three day run. The entrance will be on Gown Street, just off Queens Boulevard, and the general admission charge ten cents. The attractions within the gates have been widely bulletined; some notes of the latest innovations appear on another page; but the Fair itself, will surpass anything that has been said about it. Its managers have adopted as their slogan, "The Biggest Show for the Biggest War and the Best Boys on Earth."

REGISTRATION.

All men from eighteen years of age to forty-five, both inclusive, if not registered under first Draft, are called upon to register on September 12th, under the Selective Service Law. Local Board No. 175, having jurisdiction over this district, has named four enrollment stations, the one most accessible for the Gardens being the Sales Office of the Homes Company. This office will be open for registration from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

NATIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP.

When Robert Lindley Murray on Tuesday last defeated William T. Tilden in the finals of the National Singles on the West Side Courts, he brought to a close a tournament that not only had produced a high order of tennis, but also was the means of raising $8,000 for the War and Navy Departments Commission on Training Camp Activities.

OPENING OF KEW FOREST SCHOOL.

The Kew Forest School will open Monday, September 26. The enrollment of pupils is progressing rapidly and indications are that the school will probably be filled on its opening date. Parents who have not already registered their children are asked to do so as early as possible in order to assist the principals in the proper organization of the classes.

A Kindergarten Department has lately been added and placed in charge of Miss Boyd who has had charge of Miss Cleghorn's School in Kew Gardens during the past year.

LETTER FROM LIEUT. WARREN.

Lieutenant Harvey T. Warren, at Sheffield, England, has written under date of August 12th a very interesting letter to Mr. John M. Demarest, from which the following are extracts:

"I want to thank you for the Fourth of July posters and program which have just reached me. It was thoughtful of you to remember me and you must have known how interested I was in Fourth of July at Forest Hills, even though I am so far away. I also got a copy of the Bulletin and hope you will continue sending it. We also had a grand and glorious Fourth here, but I have already written a full account of it, I think to Charlie Close, and I presume it is public property by now.

"Had a breath of home the other day when I looked up from my desk and beheld a lieutenant-colonel in full regalia come to inspect our camp. Imagine my surprise to find it was none other than Dr. Keyes, my neighbor on Greenway, South. I hope he had a heart and sent in a good report about us.

"One big ray of sunshine, however, was the tobacco from Forest Hills which we have finally distributed among the men. I am glad we kept it until we got over here, as they appreciated it much more. English tobacco tastes like a combination of seaweed and sawdust and all the men were glad to get a wiff of Bull, P. A. and Piedmont. Please thank the Men's Club again for me and tell them how much we appreciated it."

SCHOOL OPENING.

On Monday morning, September 9th, at nine o'clock, school will open for the Fall term, both at No. 101 on Russell Place and No. 3 on Meteor Street.

Grades 2A, 2B, 3A, 3B, 4A, and 4B, will meet in School No. 3 on the North Side, while Grades 1A, 1B, 5A, 5B, 6A, 6B, and the kindergarten will meet in No. 101 in the Gardens.

Registration of new pupils will be at School No. 101, where Miss Cording, Principal, will receive them.

There were many attractive and handsome costumes at the Fancy Dress dance at the Inn on Monday evening last, prizes being awarded to Mrs. C. E. Aldrich as a Spanish Dancer; Mr. C. H. Pape, in Italian Brigand costume; and to Mr. Stokes and Dr. Barry, in most alluring bathing costumes. Worth Colwell made a most ridiculous appearance in his interpretation of what seemed to be a Roman bride, and as usual, carried out the part with his theatrical cleverness. Miss Evelyn Wessman made a most enchanting Hawaiian dancer; while Harry Cutting, as a French chef was almost too true to life to affect an impersonation. There were many charming Pierrots, Miss Helen Smith and Mrs. Dan Castleman in the lead. A most attractive Chinese couple and many lovely costumes portrayed the dress of other countries. Everyone seemed bent on making the close of the summer season at the Inn a most enjoyable affair. Many interesting events are scheduled for the fall and winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barse have just returned from a three weeks' vacation in the Adirondacks. Their son, Captain Horace Barse, who entered the Aviation service some time ago, has recently been made an instructor in Aerial Observation.

Mrs. W. J. Demarest and her daughter, Mrs. Clarence N. Bott, of New Orleans, are spending a few weeks at the Inn. Mrs. Bott came north to join her husband, Captain C. N. Bott, who was stationed at Camp Upton, before his departure for France.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graves, of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gunster, who are among the winter arrivals at the Inn.

Miss Mary Morse Griffiths has recently joined her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Huber, as the guests of Mr. Albert W. Morse. Miss Griffiths will shortly return west to continue her Senior year in the University of Cincinnati. Mrs. W. D. Cleveland has left the Inn to join Mr. Cleveland at Linville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crawford have just returned to the Inn after a two months' absence from New York.

Mrs. A. W. Donavan, with Miss Donavan and Mrs. Dewey, of Rockland, Mass., have been visiting Sergeant Donavan, who is connected with the Gas Defense Plant at Long Island City, and who has been the guest of the Inn for several months past. Colonel Bradley Dewey, who was also the guest of the Inn for a few days, is at the head of the Gas Defense Plant.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn are Mrs. E. C. Merriman, Mrs. G. B. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brace, Mrs. Lewis Roberts with her daughters, Misses Madeleine and Joyce Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carr, and Miss Linda Griffith.

Sitting in an easy chair.

You can do it, you know how!
Do your early autumn shopping,
Do it well and do it NOW.
Spend your pennies, dimes and nickles

Or a real, live romping puppy,
Lamb, or sheep or Jersey cow.

If you want OUR Boys to Win
You can help them in your way,
Do your Christmas buying early,
Any night and every day
From the 12th of old September.

NEW WHEAT REGULATIONS.

In order to make the wheat crop meet the needs of everyone it has been agreed that our Allies should use 20 per cent. of wheat substitutes in their bread. We can do no less. Beginning September 1st, 1918, the following regulations are in force:

Bakers' Bread shall contain not less than 20 per cent. of other cereals than wheat.

The housewife is asked to use at least 20 per cent. of substitute cereals in all home baking.

Corn bread should be used frequently. Cornmeal for this purpose should be bought in addition to purchases with wheat flour.

Purchase of Flour.

These new regulations take the place of the fifty-fifty rule. Flour may be bought in two ways:

- (1) With substitutes. (2) Victory Mixed Flour.

Purchase of Wheat Flour With Substitutes.

(a) The retail dealer must keep in stock barley flour, corn flour or cornmeal, and must sell one pound of one or more of these with each four pounds of wheat flour. Wheat flour may not be sold alone.

(b) If the householder prefers, instead of the barley or corn flour, or cornmeal, he may request as a wheat substitute, feterita flour and meals, rice flour, oat flour, kaffir flour, milo flour, peanut flour, bean flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, or buckwheat flour, buying one pound of one or more of these with every four pounds of wheat flour. The dealer is not required to keep these substitutes in stock.

(c) Rye flour or meal may be sold as a wheat substitute, but on the basis of two pounds of rye with three pounds of wheat flour.

Victory Mixed Flours.

If the householder prefers he may buy his flour already mixed with substitutes. In this case he need not buy additional substitutes. The following mixtures may be purchased:

- (a) Mixed Wheat and Barley Flour, containing four pounds wheat flour to one pound barley flour.
 (b) Mixed Wheat and Corn Flour, containing four pounds wheat flour to one pound corn flour.
 (c) Mixed Wheat Barley and Corn Flour, containing eight pounds wheat flour to one pound barley flour and one pound corn flour.
 (d) Mixed Wheat and Rye Flour, containing three pounds wheat flour and two pounds rye flour.
 (e) Whole Wheat, Entire Wheat or Graham Flour, containing ninety-five per cent. of wheat berry.

RAINBOW OVERSEAS FUND.

The following letter of resignation of Mr. Swartz as chairman of this committee has been received:

The Forest Hills Rainbow Overseas Committee,

W. P. McCulloch, Secretary-Treasurer,

Forest Hills, L. I.

Dear Friends:

In view of my departure from Forest Hills to take up missionary work in Peking, China, I must tender my resignation as Chairman of the Forest Hills Rainbow Overseas Committee. It is my earnest hope that the good work which, under the leadership of our committee, the community has inaugurated and is now sustaining may be continued as long as the men in the service need the help of the Y. M. C. A.

Word has come from France of the appointment of Mr. Vaughn Dabney as our personal representative. This relationship should prove a genuine satisfaction to those of us who believe in this great work.

Very sincerely yours,

PHILIP A. SWARTZ.

In referring to Mr. Dabney, the letter from France states "he is one of our most efficient men."

A FOREWORD.

(From the Kew-Forest School Prospectus.)

The Kew-Forest School of Kew Gardens and Forest Hills comes to the community in response to a keenly felt need of a school of modern equipment, high standard of scholarship and discipline, and with a sincere spirit of service.

This particular type of school has been chosen because it best meets the demands of the communities it is to serve. As a private school it can offer certain distinct advantages, among them being the avoidance of overcrowded classes, a wide range in the selection of its teachers, and a close co-operation between parents and the school.

In a day-school the monotony of boarding-school life is avoided—a monotony that often reacts unfavorably upon teachers as well as upon pupils. Furthermore, parents are enabled to enjoy the companionship of their children and to direct their development at a period in the child's life when such companionship and direction are most needed. When the home and the school are united by a common purpose, and when that purpose is not merely the mental training of the child but the development of such characteristics as self-restraint, self-reliance, courtesy and a desire to serve, the best results are possible.
